Publishing is an engaging and practically focused textbook exploring all aspects of the contemporary magazine industry. Editors David Stam and Andrew Scott present a detailed analysis of the key elements of the magazine business today with both a look back to the past and a projection of the future. The role of digital and new media platforms and their effect on all aspects of publishing is explored in detail. The book features a broad range of case studies written by industry experts providing readers with accessible examples of key issues in magazine publishing. Additional micro essays also expertly apply theory to practice and the book is further supported by a companion website www.insidemagazinepublishing.com. Subject areas covered include UK magazine publishing today, changing business models, originating and managing creative content, magazine writing and design, circulation, sales and advertising, distribution and marketing the magazine in the digital age. There are useful appendices on printing, paper selection and legal matters as well as a detailed glossary.

Inside Magazine Publishing provides a comprehensive overview of magazine publishing for students and all those wishing to understand this dynamic and complex industry. Innovations in Magazine Publishing Simon Das, David Stam, Andrew Blake, 2021-05-05. This book examines the key developments in the UK magazine industry since 2014 and explains in detail how the business has innovated to survive. Innovations in Magazine Publishing explores the key issues that publishers and editors have had to grapple with in recent years and demonstrates how they have changed their business models and encouraged innovation and creativity. Written in an engaging and accessible style, the authors and contributors have drawn on years of industry expertise and contacts to examine the massive changes that have taken place in the areas of content creation and advertising in the last decade. Beginning with a highly useful summary of UK magazine publishing history, the book then provides a detailed focus on how magazines have had to adapt to a declining revenue picture in both copy and advertisement sales. This discussion considers changes in ownership and the supply chain, mutual dependency on social media, the rapid growth of the independent sector, investing in brand and product extensions and how media companies themselves have changed to meet the demands of the new era. The important issue of ethnic diversity within the UK publishing industry is addressed and the introduction also includes a discussion of the effects of the Covid 19 pandemic on the industry and how the magazine business will need to respond to whatever the future may bring. This comprehensive overview of the current state of the industry is a vital resource for students, researchers and professionals in magazine journalism as well as for those studying media and journalism studies more generally.
