Maggie The Personal Story Of A Public Life:

Privacy and Social Freedom Ferdinand David Schoeman, 1992-07-31 Drawing on a wide range of literature in moral and political philosophy law cognitive and social psychology and anthropology not to mention some very perceptive readings of novels by Henry James Professor Schoeman shows how the aim of moral philosophy ought to be to understand our social character not to establish fortifications against it in the name of rationality and autonomy Sex Scandal William A. Cohen, 1996 Never has the Victorian novel appeared so perverse as it does in these pages and never has its perversity seemed so fundamental to its accomplishment By viewing this fiction alongside the most alarming public scandals of the day Cohen exposes both the scandalousness of this literature and its sexiness In narratives ranging from Great Expectations to the Boulton and Park sodomy scandal of 1870 71 from Eliot's and Trollope's novels about scandalous women to Oscar Wilde's writing and his trials for homosexuality Cohen shows how in each instance sexuality appears couched in coded terms He identifies an assortment of cunning narrative techniques used to insinuate sex into Victorian writing demonstrating that even as such narratives air the scandalous subject they emphasize its unspeakable nature Written with an eye toward the sex scandals that still whet the appetites of consumers of news and novels this work is suggestive about our own modes of imagining sexuality today and how we arrived at them BOOK JACKET Separate Spheres No More Monika Elbert, 2014-07-30 Examines the intersection of male and female spheres in American literature Although they wrote in the same historical milieu as their male counterparts women writers of the 19th and early 20th centuries have generally been ghettoized by critics into a separate canonical sphere These original essays argue in favor of reconciling male and female writers both historically and in the context of classroom teaching While some of the essays pair up female and male authors who write in a similar style or with similar concerns others address social issues shared by both men and women including class tensions economic problems and the Civil War experience Rather than privileging particular genres or certain well known writers the contributors examine writings ranging from novels and poetry to autobiography utopian fiction and essays And they consider familiar figures like Harriet Beecher Stowe Emily Dickinson and Ralph Waldo Emerson alongside such lesser known writers as Melusina Fay Peirce Susie King Taylor and Mary Gove Nichols Each essay revises the binary notions that have been ascribed to males and females such as public and private rational and intuitive political and domestic violent and passive Although they do not deny the existence of separate spheres the contributors show the boundary between them to be much more blurred than has been assumed until now Performing National Identities Sherrill Grace, Albert-Reiner Glaap, 2003 A collection of 18 original essays on contemporary Canadian theatre by drama specialists in Belgium Finland Germany Hungary and elsewhere Television Movies of the 21st Century Vincent Terrace, 2021-05-07 For the major broadcast networks the heyday of made for TV movies was 20th Century programming like The ABC Movie of the Week and NBC Sunday Night at the Movies But with changing economic times and the race for ratings the networks gradually dropped
