Ministry Of The Laity:

Liberating the Laity R. Paul Stevens, 2002-03 Every church has far more work than any one person can do Even a team of professionals is not enough The New Testament solution was for every member to be a minister Though the priesthood of all believers was a key idea in the Reformation it is little practised today Following secular models churches usually organize around the clergy who are paid by the laity to do the ministry Paul Stevens argues that according to Scripture the primary task of a Christian leader is not to do the work but to equip the saints to do it Exploring new options for pastors tentmakers and laypeople this book provides structures and strategies to best equip all the saints for ministry The Role of the Laity in the Life and Ministry of the Church World Council of Churches. Department of the Laity, 1955 The Source and Relation between Lay Ministry and Ordained Ministry Ignatius Ayivor, 2018-01-25 Research Paper undergraduate from the year 2017 in the subject Theology Miscellaneous language English abstract On the basis of the fact that lay people are included in the People of God and that all Christ's faithful are called to share in the life and mission of Christ the laity does really have mission to undertake in the Church The Decree on the Apostolate of the Laity seeks to unfold the ministry of the laity in the Church's mission in a clearer way According to this decree there is a common call to all Christ's faithful in the building up of the Body of Christ the Church There is a diversity of ministries and the lay faithful have their mission to perform within the ecclesial structures Every member of the Church whether he or she is cleric or lay is called to mutual and collaborative ministry The diversity of ministries in the Church is a witness to the unity of all members in the Church Though the duties activities and rights of the laity underwent many considerable changes during the course of the history of the Church the fact remains that the lay faithful have their ministry in the Church The mission of the Church is the concern of all the members of the Church clerics and lay persons alike However all the Christfideles do not perform the mission of the Church in the same way they undertake ministries in the Church each according to his condition or gifts received from God himself future ministry Equipping the Saints seeks to help congregational leaders answer these and other questions related to mobilizing lay ministry in the years ahead The chapters include Shall We Abolish the Clergy or the Laity by Michael Christensen Team Building Through Spiritual Gifts by Brian Bauknight The Loss and Recovery of the Biblical Basis for Ministry by Russell Moy Out of the Pew Into the World by Jessica Moffat The Seeker Service in the Mainline Church by Eric Park Circuit Riding in the 21st Century by Rob Duncan and Life Together Reclaiming the Ministry of Small Groups by Christine Anderson Key Features Responds to emerging trends that promise to be determinative of the shape of ministry in the next century Addresses an important practical need in congregations Offers help in formulating new models for congregational ministry Key Benefits Readers will understand the important emerging need for called trained and committed laypersons to engage in ministry Readers will learn how to recruit and train lay leaders Readers will identify a new model of clergy lay ministry partnership Enabling the Laity to Share in the Ministry of the Church William Alvey Renn,1981

Hans-Ruedi Weber,1986-01-01 This book deals with the old theme of the ministry of the laity but in a new way The term laity stands for men women and children who attempt to live as Christians both in the presence of God and in the midst of the world The ministry of the laity thus has to do with the human vocation lived in the light of Christ This book takes up three worldwide human quests and examines how Christ responds to them the human search for wisdom as we face the present threat of annihilation of creation the human cry for justice because of the oppressive impact of present economic and political structures and the human need for identity as many cultures and social groups experience a deep crisis of selfhood The Laity as Participants in the Mission of the Church Humphrey C. Ananjeje,2017-06-05 The church is made up of both the clergy and the laity And for it to properly fulfill the mission for which it was instituted by Christ all its members each according to his or her God given gift must contribute both to the upbuilding of the church and to its mission On the part of the laity their active participation in the general mission of the church ad intra and ad extra has been a great challenge in the life and practice of the church throughout its history The Second Vatican Council in its spirit of aggiornamento makes some positive difference This work critically examines the conciliar documents some relevant postconciliar documents and theological reflection of some theologians And finally it proffers solutions that will enhance the active participation of the laity in the mission of the church in general and the church in Southeast Nigeria in particular The Ministry of the Laity in Town Parishes Frederick Slaney Poole,1909
