Communicating Trauma Na'ama Yehuda, 2015-08-27 Communicating Trauma explores the various aspects of language and communication and how their development can be affected by childhood trauma and overwhelm. Multiple case study vignettes describe how different kinds of childhood trauma can manifest in children's ability to relate, attend, learn, and communicate. These examples offer ways to understand, respond, and support children who are communicating overwhelm. In this book, psychotherapists, speech language pathologists, social workers, educators, occupational and physical therapists, medical personnel, foster parents, adoption agencies, and other child professionals and caregivers will find information and practical direction for improving connection and behavior, reducing miscommunication, and giving a voice to those who are often our most challenging children.

Learning English Neil Mercer, Joan Swann, Barbara Mayor, 2020-10-28 Learning English focuses on young children's acquisition of spoken and written English in monolingual and bilingual contexts and explores the debates surrounding English in schools and colleges and the often controversial nature of the English curriculum in different parts of the world. English is learned in most parts of the world both through use in the home and community and as a major language of education. Learning English represents just some of this diversity.

With A Woman's Voice Lucy Daniels, 2001-11-29 Having written a bestselling book at 22, survived a harrowing battle with anorexia nervosa, and pursued a successful career as a clinical psychologist, Lucy Daniels has led a remarkable life. In With a Woman's Voice: A Writer's Struggle for Emotional Freedom, her first book in 40 years, Daniels shares the experience of overcoming emotional hardships and gaining valuable insights from them through psychoanalysis that has enabled her to help others. With a Woman's Voice is Daniels' memoir of the struggles she faces as a writer and a doctor of psychology, struggles that began at a very young age and continued long after the success of her two novels. As the child of a wealthy newspaper family, Daniels was emotionally deprived by her demanding parents and plagued by her own feelings of inadequacy and helplessness. Sent to a mental hospital for treatment of her anorexia, she spent years enduring brutal regimens of electroshock therapy, insulin injections, and force feedings. It was during this time that she wrote Caleb My Son. Caleb My Son became a national bestseller, earning accolades for its portrayal of racial and generational conflict in the South of the 50s. Her second book, High on a Hill, was a fictional account of the time she spent in the hospital. Her novels won her a Guggenheim fellowship and extensive praise. After this early success, Daniels succumbed to writer's block that lasted several decades. She tells in her memoir of her decision to examine and resolve her problems, leading her to seek psychoanalytic treatment while pursuing a doctorate in clinical psychology. After years of examining her difficulties and learning how they could be treated, she created a foundation that helps artists overcome emotional disorders and gain creative insight from both self-examination and psychotherapy. With a Woman's Voice recalls these achievements and the difficult years that led up to them with insight, humor, and wisdom. Daniels provides a moving account of Hegde's PocketGuide to Treatment in Speech-Language Pathology, Fifth Edition M.

N. Hegde, 2025-07-03 Now in its fifth edition Hegde's PocketGuide to Treatment in Speech Language Pathology is a renowned resource and a classic in communication sciences and disorders. There is no other single book in speech language pathology SLP that provides step by step descriptions of treatment procedures for every disorder of communication. This revised PocketGuide to Treatment blends the format of a dictionary with the contents of a textbook and clinical reference book. With this guide both students and professional clinicians have at their fingertips not only an encyclopedic knowledge of the entire range of treatment concepts and approaches but also specific treatment procedures that can be readily applied in treating any disorder of communication in any child or adult. In addition the guide offers treatment selection criteria to promote evidence based clinical practice and points out the existing evidence for described treatment procedures. The guide also offers guidelines on treating all communication disorders in ethnoculturally diverse individuals. SLPs with this handy guide on their desk will have both a quick reference and a detailed resource on general and specific treatment procedures including brief task specific treatments for individuals of all ages. The information can be easily reviewed before clinical sessions or examinations as the guide's entries are arranged alphabetically. When the Bough Breaks Jonathan Kellerman, 2013-03-26

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Dr Morton Hander practiced a strange brand of psychiatry. Among his specialties were fraud, extortion, and sexual manipulation. Hander paid for his sins when he was brutally murdered in his luxurious Pacific Palisades apartment. The police have no leads, but they do have one possible witness: seven year old Melody Quinn. An engrossing thriller. This knockout of an entertainment is the kind of book which establishes a career in one stroke. Newsday: It s psychologist Dr Alex Delaware s job to try to unlock the terrible secret buried in Meldoy s memory. But as the sinister shadows in the girl s mind begin to take shape, Alex discovers that the mystery touches a shocking incident in his own past. And behind it lies an unspeakable evil that Alex Delaware must expose before it claims another innocent victim.

Isaiah'S Many Hats Camisha Montgomery, 2017-04-25 When Isaiah left for school the air was cold and the sky was gray. His blue hat was on his head where his mommy wanted it to stay. But when he was in school he had to take his hat off. Uh oh thought Mommy I hope it does not get lost. When Isaiah came home she said Where is your hat? Isaiah looked around his eyes wide as a bat. Then his mommy said Do you know where it is? at His coat, mittens, and scarf were also not on the coat rack.

Passion And Social Constraint Ernest Van Den Haag, In intellectual and academic circles Ernest van den Haag is respected for his brilliant mind his outspoken and often highly controversial assertions and a very unacademic sharp biting style Passion and Social Constraint before its adaptation into a book for the general reader was part of an enormous textbook which Dr van den Haag wrote with Professor Ralph Ross called The Fabric of Society It received an unprecedented rave review in the New Yorker this book is everything a text book should not be cynical witty up to date and shamelessly opinionated Altogether a rare treat It attracted the attention of the experts in psychology and sociology and the devotion of students and will now have enormous appeal to the layman who wants insight into who he is sexually psychologically and individually In Passion and Social Constraint Ernest van den Haag is deeply concerned with the necessity and difficulty of being an individual in a society which tends more and more to standardize every facet of life He deals with anxiety sex and the problem of who is normal the status of women the authority of parents the family as an industry in present day America conflict and power and who gets what the furnished souls of popular culture and why it is that science cannot give us a measure for happiness or for despair Van den Haag's style will delight you some of his phrases are destined for Bartlett though his judgments will sometimes stir you to anger Ernest van den Haag taught at New York University and the New School for Social Research and the New York Law School he was also a practicing psychoanalyst He was born in The Hague and was educated In France Germany Italy Iowa and New York He was an associate of the National Review for forty five years Ralph Ross his collaborator on the original The Fabric of Society was professor of philosophy and chairman of the Humanities Program at the University of Minnesota
