Kronos, 2001 European-language Writing in Sub-Saharan Africa Albert S. Gérard, 1986-01-01 The first major comparative study of African writing in western languages European language Writing in Sub Saharan Africa edited by Albert S G rard falls into four wide ranging sections an overview of early contacts and colonial developments Under Western Eyes chapters on Black Consciousness manifest in the debates over Panafricanism and Negritude a group of essays on mental decolonization expressed in Black Power texts at the time of independence struggles and finally Comparative Vistas sketching directions that future comparative study might explore An introductory essay stresses the millennia of writing in Africa side by side with a richly eloquent and artistic set of vernacular oral traditions written and oral traditions have become interwoven in adaptations of imported forms and linguistic innovations that challenge traditional high literary norms G rard uses the mathematical concept of fuzzy sets to explain why the focus on Black Africa has led him to set aside for future analysis the literatures produced in North Africa which fall under the influence of Muslim civilization as well as the diasporic literatures of the New World Over sixty scholars from twenty two countries contribute specialized studies of creative writing by leading authors in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries such as Achebe Mphahlele Ngugi Senghor Soyinka and Tutuola Critical analyses are organized primarily around regions reflecting different colonial languages imposed through schools and other social institutions Some authors trace the adaptation of western genres others identify syncretism with folktales or myths The volumes are attentive to the heterogeneity of national literatures addressed to polyethnic and multilingual populations and they note the instrumental politics of language in newly independent states A closing chapter Tasks Ahead identifies areas for future scholars to explore Excursions in World Music Timothy Rommen, Bruno Nettl, 2020-09-17

Excursions in World Music is a comprehensive introductory textbook to the musics of the world creating a panoramic experience for students by engaging the many cultures around the globe and highlighting the sheer diversity to be experienced in the world of music. At the same time the text illustrates the often profound ways through which a deeper exploration of these many different communities can reveal overlaps, shared horizons and common concerns in spite of and because of this very diversity. The new eighth edition features six brand new chapters including chapters on Japan, Sub-Saharan Africa, China and Taiwan, Europe, Maritime Southeast Asia and Indigenous Peoples. General updates have been made to other chapters replacing visuals and updating charts and statistics. Another major addition to the eighth edition is the publication of a companion Reader entitled Critical Themes in World Music. Each chapter in the Reader is designed to introduce students to a theoretical concept or thematic area within ethnomusicology and illustrate its possibilities by pointing to case studies drawn from at least three chapters in Excursions in World Music. Chapters include the following topics: Music, Gender and Sexuality, Music and Ritual, Coloniality and World Music, Music and Space, Music and Diaspora, Communication Technology, Media, Musical Labor, Musical Value and Music and Memory. Instructors can use this resource as a primary or secondary path through the materials either assigning chapters from the textbook and then digging deeper by exploring a chapter from the Reader or starting with a Reader chapter and then moving into the musical specifics offered in the textbook chapters. Having available both an area studies and a thematic approach to the materials offers important flexibility to instructors and also provides students with additional means of engaging with the musics of the world. A companion website with a new test bank and fully updated instructor's manual is available for instructors. Numerous resources are posted for students including streamed audio listening, additional resources such as links to YouTube videos or websites, a musical fundamentals essay introducing concepts such as meter, melody, harmony, form, etc., interactive quizzes and flashcards.
