Mondo Bizarro ,1966 Docufictions Gary D. Rhodes, John Parris Springer, 2014-10-01 Through most of the 20th century the distinction between the fictional narrative film and the documentary was vigorously maintained The documentary tradition developed side by side with but in the shadow of the more commercially successful feature film In the latter part of the century however the two forms merged on occasion and mockumentaries fictional works in a documentary format and docudramas reality based works in a fictional format became part of the film and television landscape The 18 essays here examine the relationships between narrative fiction films and documentary filmmaking focusing on how each influenced the other and how the two were merged in such diverse films and shows as Citizen Kane M A S H This Is Spinal Tap and Destination Moon Topics include the docudrama in early cinema the industrial film as faux documentary the fear evoked in 1950s science fiction films the selling of reality in mockumentaries and reality television and documentary forms The essays provide a foundation for significant rethinking of film history and criticism offering the first significant discussion of two emerging and increasingly important genres Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Performing New Orleans Stuart Andrews, Patrick Duggan, 2025-08-20 Performing New Orleans examines the value of arts and culture in managing complex urban challenges offering new perspectives on how artistic and everyday performances can be pivotal modes of practicing resilience Through an exploration of understudied forms of performance in New Orleans Stuart Andrews and Patrick Duggan highlight the centrality of the city's arts ecosystems as a vital aspect of its ability to perform resiliency Performing New Orleans resists conventional definitions of arts practice instead it uses a diverse array of case studies to illustrate what arts practices are what they do and how they can enhance our understanding of people place and resilience The case studies in this volume range from playing in the streets to painting murals from tourist flourishes to the performative effect of infrastructure projects from the design and leadership of arts centers to the unfolding of festivals theater performances art installations and even public health messaging The authors also review critique and rethink resilience theory and the often problematic idea of being resilient Andrews and Duggan bring together ideas from art and architecture cultural geography hazard mitigation resilience theory sustainability theater and water management to explore performances of the city to radically expand our understanding of urban adaptability Performing New Orleans argues that a truly resilient city is one that recognizes arts and culture professionals as crucial critical innovators Mondo Bizarro Dan Piraro, 1989 Do you ever get the feeling that there's something odd going on If so then Dan Piraro is the cartoonist for you The remarkable peculiarity of the world the strange the stranger and the strangest

all make appearances in Mondo Bizarro Piraro's third collection of cartoons which follows close on the heels of the successful Bizarro and Too Bizarro

The Horror of It All Adam Rockoff, 2015-05-19 Pop culture history meets blood soaked memoir as Adam Rockoff a passionate fan of the horror genre in all its forms The New York Times recalls a life spent watching blockbuster slasher films cult classics and everything in between Horror films have simultaneously captivated and terrified audiences for generations racking up millions of dollars at the box office and infusing our nightmares with chainsaws goblins and blood spattered machetes Today's hottest television shows feature classic horror elements from marauding zombies and sexy vampires to myriad incarnations of the devil himself Yet the horror genre and its controversial offshoots continue to occupy a nebulous space in our critical dialogue The Horror of It All is a memoir from the front lines of the horror industry that dissects and occasionally defends the massively popular phenomenon of scary movies Author Adam Rockoff delivers the sharpest pop culture criticism you'll find in any medium today Rue Morgue as he traces the highs and lows of the genre through the lens of his own obsessive fandom which began in the horror aisles of his childhood video store and continued with a steady diet of cable trash From the convergence of horror and heavy metal to Siskel and Ebert's crusade against the slasher flick to the legacy of the Scream franchise and the behind the scenes work of horror directors and make up artists Rockoff mines the rich history of the genre braiding critical analysis with his own firsthand experiences as a horror writer and producer Filled with mordant wit and sharp insight The Horror of It All is an amiable and often amusing guide Kirkus Reviews that explains why horror films not only endure but continue to prosper Be afraid Be very afraid

Sleaze Artists Jeffrey Sconce, 2007-10-24 Collection of essays on the impact that non mainstream and middlebrow film genres have had on popular culture including sexploitation horror cult XXX and indie films

The Ramones Brian J. Bowe, 2018-12-15 The Ramones logo T shirts and Hey Ho Let's go chant are familiar around the world but a lot of people might not know the degree to which the Ramones reshaped pop music Striking photographs fascinating personal facts and an engaging narrative will show readers how the band unleashed punk rock on the world with two minute bursts of energy combining bubblegum pop sensibilities with teenage boredom and pop culture references that created a wall of sound unlike anything audiences had heard before This book reveals how the Ramones helped create a style of music that continues to resonate from sweaty clubs to baseball stadiums

Meeting the Moment Jan Cohen-Cruz, Rad Pereira, 2022-06-14 The experiences of a diverse range of progressive theater and performance makers in their own words Curated stories from over 75 interviews and informal exchanges offer insight into the field and point out limitations due to discrimination and unequal opportunity for performance artists in the United States over the past 55 years In this work performers often unknown beyond their immediate audience articulate diverse influences They also reflect on how artists are educated and supported what content is deemed valuable and how it is brought to bear as well as which audiences are welcome and whether cross community exchange is encouraged The book's voices bring the reader from 1965 through the first wave of the covid 19 pandemic in 2020 They point to more diverse and inclusive practices and give hope for the future of the art "Bold! Daring! Shocking! True!" Eric Schaefer,1999

A social and cultural history of exploitation films which were produced on the fringes of Hollywood and often dealt with subjects forbidden by the Production Code The World We Need Audrea Lim,2021-05-04 The inspiring people and grassroots organizations that are on the front lines of the battle to save the planet As the world s scientists have come together and declared a climate emergency the fight to protect our planet s ecological resources and the people that depend on them is more urgent than ever But the real battles for our future are taking place far from the headlines and international conferences in mostly forgotten American communities where the brutal realities of industrial pollution and environmental degradation have long been playing out The World We Need provides a vivid introduction to America s largely unsung grassroots environmental groups often led by activists of color and the poor valiantly fighting back in America s so called sacrifice zones against industries poisoning our skies and waterways and heating our planet Through original reporting profiles artwork and interviews we learn how these activist groups almost always working on shoestring budgets are devising creative new tactics building sustainable projects to transform local economies and organizing people long overlooked by the environmental movement changing its face along the way Capturing the riveting stories and hard won strategies from a broad cross section of pivotal environmental actions from Standing Rock to Puerto Rico The World We Need offers a powerful new model for the larger environmental movement and inspiration for concerned citizens everywhere Perverse Titillation Danny Shipka,2011-07-25 The exploitation film industry of Italy Spain and France during the height of its popularity from 1960 to 1980 is the focus of this entertaining history With subject matter running the gamut from Italian zombies to Spanish werewolves to French lesbian vampires the shocking and profoundly entertaining motion pictures of the Eurocult genre are discussed from the standpoint of the films and the filmmakers including such internationally celebrated auteurs as Mario Bava Jess Franco Jean Rollin and Paul Naschy The Eurocult phenomenon is also examined in relation to the influences that European culture and environment have had on the world of exploitation cinema The author s insight and expertise contribute to a greater understanding of what made these films special and why they have remained so popular to later generations Cultural Sustainabilities Timothy J Cooley,2019-04-30 Environmental sustainability and human cultural sustainability are inextricably linked Reversing damaging human impact on the global environment is ultimately a cultural question and as with politics the answers are often profoundly local Cultural Sustainabilities presents twenty three essays by musicologists and ethnomusicologists anthropologists folklorists ethnographers documentary filmmakers musicians artists and activists each asking a particular question or presenting a specific local case study about cultural and environmental sustainability Contributing to the environmental humanities the authors embrace and even celebrate human engagement with ecosystems though with a profound sense of collective responsibility created by the emergence of the Anthropocene Contributors Aaron S Allen Michael B Bakan Robert Baron Daniel Cavicchi Timothy J Cooley Mark F DeWitt Barry Dornfeld
