Bulletin of reprints, 1980 The Source Loretto Dennis Szucs, Sandra Hargreaves Luebking, 1997 Includes record types census records ethnic origins tracking ancestors and more Footprints, 1999 Port Hudson Lawrence Lee Hewitt, 2024-01-12 In 1978 Lawrence Lee Hewitt became the first manager of the Port Hudson State Historic Site There he began collecting photographs related to the Civil War battle Carefully analyzing a vast and remarkable photographic record of Port Hudson Hewitt has now brought his four decades of research and collecting together in this book The quantity diversity and in some cases uniqueness of these photos help widen our perspective not only on Port Hudson and the Civil War s impact on its people and environment but also on the history of photography Together the six cameramen claimed many firsts including the first ever photograph of soldiers engaged in battle first exterior shots at night and first composition print The collection arranged chronologically allows readers to follow the changes in the landscape during and after the siege The sheer range of subjects represented is impressive A cotton gin a grist mill and a Methodist church all showing signs of damage caught the eyes of photographers At the request of a Union soldier s mother there was a photograph taken of his burial site There is even the only known photograph of a Confederate army surrendering Biographies of the photographers and the captions in this volume also brim with fresh information about both the photographs and the campaign attesting to the author s meticulous scholarship and skilled analysis Though Port Hudson may never receive the level of attention of Gettysburg or Vicksburg this well conceived collection of photographs will make those with a serious interest in the conflict or photography not only reexamine Port Hudson but also the importance of the Civil War s photographic record The New England Business Directory and Gazetteer for ..., 1908 The Genealogical Helper, 1996-07 Books in Print Supplement, 1984 The Trouble in Room 519 Thomas Aiello, 2021-08-18 At approximately seven o clock in the evening on May 7 1950 Gordon Malherbe Hillman filled an empty bottle with water capped it and walked into his mother s room in the pair s fifth floor suite at Boston s luxurious Copley Plaza Hotel He then edged up behind the semi invalid woman and bludgeoned her to death Hotel staff had planned to evict the two the following day after several weeks of unpaid rent

Mounting debts had finally broken the fifty year old Hillman a now struggling author of mixed success but it had not always been that way as Thomas Aiello shows in his study of the life and work of this forgotten midcentury figure As a youth Hillman attended the prestigious Noble and Greenough School near Boston Pursuing a career as a writer he published several dozen pieces of short fiction and a critically acclaimed novel Fortune's Cup 1941 Hollywood studios purchased the rights to two of his stories and made them into films The Great Man Votes 1939 and Here I Am a Stranger 1940 But Hillman remained for the most part a middling magazine writer like the majority of fiction authors working during the Depression Although most did not resort to acts of manic violence Hillman's tenuous position in literary circles along with his gradual descent into financial ruin proved a far more common tale than the stories of literary success often pored over by critics and historians of this period In The Trouble in Room 519 Money Matricide and Marginal Fiction in the Early Twentieth Century Aiello weaves a compelling true crime narrative into his exploration of the economics of magazine fiction and the strains placed on authors by the publishing industry prior to World War II Examining Hillman's writing as exemplary of Depression era popular fiction Aiello includes eight stories written by Hillman and originally published in prominent midcentury American magazines including Collier's Liberty and McCall's to provide additional context and insight into this trying time and tragic life

The Trunk Dripped Blood Mark Grossman, 2018-01-12 A trunk dripping blood discovered at a railway station in Stockton in 1906 launched one of the most famous murder investigations in California history still debated by crime historians In 1913 the dismembered body of a young pregnant woman found in the East River was traced back to her killer and husband who remains the only priest ever executed for homicide in the U S In 1916 a successful dentist recently married into a prestigious family poisoned his in laws first with deadly bacteria then with arsenic claiming the real murderer was an Egyptian incubus who took control of his body Drawing on court transcripts newspaper coverage and other contemporary sources this collection of historical American true crime stories chronicles five murder cases that became media sensations of their day making headlines across the country in the decades before radio or television
