God's Mirror Katherine Davies, Toby Garfitt, 2014-12-01 Gathering in one place a cohesive selection of articles that deepen our sense of the vitality and controversy within the Catholic renewal of the mid twentieth century God's Mirror offers historical analysis of French Catholic intellectuals This volume highlights the work of writers thinkers and creative artists who have not always drawn the attention given to such luminaries as Maritain Mounier and Marcel Organized around the typologies of renewal and engagement editors Katherine Davies and Toby Garfitt provide a revisionist and interdisciplinary reading of the narrative of twentieth century French Catholicism Renewal and engagement are both manifestations of how the Catholic intellectual reflects and takes position on the relationship between the Church personal faith and the world and on the increasingly problematic relationship between intellectuals and the Magisterium A majority of the writings are based on extensive research into published texts with some occasional archival references and they give critical insights into the tensions that characterized the theological and political concerns of their subjects French Joseph Lemaître, 2012-10-17

Probably the most delightful useful and comprehensive elementary book available for learning spoken and written French either with or without a teacher Working on the principle that a person learns more quickly by example than by rule Lemaître has assembled colloquial French conversations on a variety of subjects as well as grammar vocabulary and idiom studies Index The Ground of the Image Jean-Luc Nancy, 2009-08-25 If anything marks the image it is a deep ambivalence Denounced as superficial illusory and groundless images are at the same time attributed with exorbitant power and assigned a privileged relation to truth Mistrusted by philosophy forbidden and embraced by religions manipulated as spectacle and proliferated in the media images never cease to present their multiple aspects their paradoxes their flat but receding spaces

What is this power that lies in the depths and recesses of an image which is always only an impenetrable surface What secrets are concealed in the ground or in the figures of an image which never does anything but show just exactly what it is and nothing else How does the immanence of images open onto their unimaginable others their imageless origin In this collection of writings on images and visual art Jean Luc Nancy explores such questions through an extraordinary range of references From Renaissance painting and landscape to photography and video from the image of Roman death masks to the language of silent film from Cleopatra to Kant and Heidegger Nancy pursues a reflection on visibility that goes far beyond the many disciplines with which it intersects He offers insights into the religious cultural political art historical and philosophical aspects of the visual relation treating such vexed problems as the connection between image and violence the sacred status of images and in a profound and important essay the forbidden representation of the Shoah In the background of all these investigations lies a preoccupation with finitude the unsettling forces envisaged by the images that confront us the limits that bind us to them the death that stares back at us from their frozen traits and distant intimacies In these vibrant and complex essays a central figure in European philosophy continues to work through some of the most important questions of our time
