Duran,2017-07-05 The first English language monograph on Il Fronte Nuovo delle Arti this study explores the rise and fall of this postwar Italian artists group as a representative instance of the tensions facing Italian painting during the transition out of two decades of Fascism and into the global divisions of the Cold War Adrian Duran argues that the binary structures of the era realism vs abstraction Communism vs democracy conformism vs freedom have monopolized the discourse surrounding the Fronte Nuovo and with it the historiography of Italian painting during this period 1944 50 Beginning with the dialogues that framed the formation of the Fronte Nuovo this book reconsiders artists works correspondence critical writings and manifestos These are married to examinations of specific exhibitions the most important of which are the group s 1947 inaugural exhibition and the 1948 and 1950 Venice Biennali The critical responses to these exhibitions are reconsidered in light of their groundings in the heated political debates of the period In total these diverse sources reveal the vast divide between the internal discourse of the arts generated by the participant artists and their works and the surrounding politics of Cold War Italy

Curating Fascism Sharon Hecker, Raffaele Bedarida, 2022-11-17 On the centenary of the fascist party's ascent to power in Italy Curating Fascism examines the ways in which exhibitions organized from the fall of Benito Mussolini's regime to the present day have shaped collective memory historical narratives and political discourse around the Italian ventennio It charts how shows on fascism have evolved since the postwar period in Italy explores representations of Italian fascism in exhibitions across the world and highlights blindspots in art and cultural history as well as in exhibition practices Featuring contributions from an international group of art architectural design and cultural historians as well as journalists and curators this book treats fascism as both a historical moment and as a major paradigm through which critics curators and the public at large have defined the present moment since World War II It interweaves historical perspectives critical theory and direct accounts of exhibitions from the people who conceived them or responded to them most significantly in order to examine the main curatorial strategies cultural relevance and political responsibility of art exhibitions focusing on the Fascist period Through close analysis the chapter authors unpack the multifaceted specificity of art shows including architecture and exhibition design curatorial choices and institutional history cultural diplomacy and political history theories of viewership and constructed collective memory to evaluate current curatorial practice In offering fresh new perspectives on the historiography collective memory and understanding of fascist art and culture from a contemporary standpoint Curating Fascism sheds light on the complex exhibition history of Italian fascism not just within Italy but in such countries as the USA the UK Germany and Brazil It also presents an innovative approach to the growing field of exhibition theory by bringing contributions from curators and exhibition historians who critically reflect upon curatorial strategies with respect to the delicate subject of fascism and fascist art into dialogue with scholars of Italian studies and art historians In doing so the book addresses the physical and cultural legacy of fascism in the context of the current historical moment
