Novellas Of Martha Gellhorn:

The Novellas of Martha Gellhorn Martha Gellhorn, 1991 The View from the Ground Martha Gellhorn, 2016 If you want to know about writing about how to make others share the horror and intensity of an experience try the first piece in this collection Justice at Night Martha Gellhorn wrote it as a 28 year old having just returned home to the States after four years in Europe in 1936 What follows is a selection of fifty years of peacetime journalism history caught at the moment of its unfolding as it looked and felt to those who experienced it It s about revolutions in the making guilty acts of state terrorism poverty injustice and recovery It vividly captures the range and intensity of Gellhorn s courageous work and is also a passionate call to arms not only to remember the wronged and to bear witness to evil but to stand your ground in the face of it The Short Novels of Martha Gellhorn Martha Gellhorn, 1991 Women and War Bernard A. Cook, 2006-05-19 In this unique encyclopedia 120 leading scholars from around the world provide comprehensive treatment of the role of women in war from the first written history to the present This authoritative encyclopedia presents the work of leading scholars from all over the world to give the first detailed coverage of the role of women in wars throughout history Histories of war are typically histories of men great leaders and heroic fighters Yet the roles of women often receive only limited coverage Except for such notables as Joan of Arc traditional histories give short shrift to women as leaders and fighters Similarly the direct victimization particularly sexual abuse as a weapon of terror and domination and cultural dislocations women suffer in war float as background without detailed coverage This work represents a first devoted in its entirety to thorough examination of all aspects of women in war For the first time readers have a single source for information on the scope of women s role in war and war s effects on them Uneasy Alliance Hans Bak, 2004 Uneasy Alliance illuminates the recent search in literary studies for a new interface between textual and contextual readings Written in tribute to G A M Janssens the twenty one essays in the volume exemplify a renewed awareness of the paradoxical nature of literary texts both as works of literary art and as documents embedded in and functioning within a writer s life and culture Together they offer fresh and often interdisciplinary perspectives on twentieth century American writers of more or less established status Henry James Edna St Vincent Millay E E Cummings Vladimir Nabokov Flannery O Connor Saul Bellow Michael Ondaatje Toni Morrison and Sandra Cisneros as well as on those who for reasons of fashion politics ideology or gender have been unduly neglected Booth Tarkington Julia Peterkin Robert Coates Martha Gellhorn Isabella Gardner Karl Shapiro the young Jewish American writers Julia Alvarez and writers of popular crime and detective fiction Exploring the fruitful interactions and uneasy alliance between literature and ethics film biography gender studies popular culture avant garde art urban studies anthropology and multicultural studies together these essays testify to the ongoing pertinence of an approach to literature that is undogmatic sensitive and sophisticated and that seeks to do justice to the complex interweavings of literature culture and biography in twentieth century American writing Between the Sheets Lesley McDowell, 2012-02-28 The literary critic examines the love lives and career ambitions of some of the twentieth century's greatest female authors from Sylvia Plath to Anaïs Nin. Why did a gifted writer like Sylvia Plath stumble into a marriage that drove her to suicide? Why did Hilda Doolittle (H.D.) want to marry Ezra Pound when she was far more attracted to women? Why did Simone de Beauvoir pimp for Jean-Paul Sartre? In Between the Sheets, author and feminist scholar Lesley McDowell examines nine famously troubled literary romances to arrive at a provocative insight into the motivations of these and other great female writers. The list of the damages done in each of these sexual relationships is long, but each provokes the same question: would these women have become the writers they became without these relationships? Delving into their diaries, letters, and journals, McDowell examines the extent to which each woman was prepared to put artistic ambition before personal happiness and how dependent on their male writing partners they felt themselves to be. McDowell has culled incredibly juicy details. With so many affairs and broken hearts, the most surprising thing may be that anything got written in the last 100 years.

The New York Times Book Review Hotel Florida Amanda Vaill, 2024-03-26 An utterly compelling account of the intrepid and sometimes crazy journalists who risked everything to report on the Spanish Civil War. Amanda Foreman, New York Times bestselling author, Madrid 1936. In a city blasted by a civil war that many fear will cross borders and engulf Europe, a conflict one writer will call the decisive thing of the century, six people meet and find their lives changed forever. Ernest Hemingway's career stalled, his marriage sour, he hopes that this war will give him fresh material and new romance. Martha Gellhorn, an ambitious novice journalist hungry for love and experience, thinks she will find both with Hemingway in Spain. Robert Capa and Gerda Taro, idealistic young photographers based in Paris, want to capture history in the making and are inventing modern photojournalism in the process. And Arturo Barea, chief of the Spanish government's foreign press office, and Ilse Kulcsar, his Austrian deputy, are struggling to balance truth-telling with loyalty to their sometimes-compromised cause. A struggle that places both of them in peril. Beginning with the cloak-and-dagger plot that precipitated the first gunshots of the war and moving forward month by month to the end of the conflict, Hotel Florida traces the tangled and disparate wartime destinies of these three couples against the backdrop of a critical moment in history, a moment that called forth both the best and the worst of those caught up in it. In this noir landscape of spies, soldiers, revolutionaries, and artists, the shadow line between truth and falsehood sometimes became faint; indeed, your friend could be your enemy, and honesty could get you or someone else killed. Includes 16 pages of black and white photographs.

The Face of War Martha Gellhorn, 2016 James Cameron admired Martha Gellhorn above all other war reporters because she combined a cold eye with a warm heart. The Chicago Times described her writing as wide-ranging and provocative, a blend of cool lyricism and fiery emotion, alternately prickly and welcoming, funny and stern. But make your own judgements and in the process find yourself plunged straight back into Madrid during the Spanish Civil War, feel the frozen ground of the Finno-Russian war, the continent-wide Japanese invasion of China, the massacres in Java, the murderously naive intervention in Vietnam, and the USA's dirty little wars in Central America. You will also experience the
