Nuclear Deterrence Ethics And Strategy:

Nuclear Deterrence Russell Hardin, 1985-01 Ethics and Strategic Defense Douglas P. Lackey, 1989 Energy Abstracts for Policy Analysis, 1987 Desiring the Bomb Calum Lister Matheson, 2018-11-13 A timely interdisciplinary study that applies psychoanalysis and the rhetorical tradition of the sublime to examine the cultural aftermath of the Atomic Age Every culture throughout history has obsessed over various end of the world scenarios The dawn of the Atomic Age marked a new twist in this tale For the first time our species became aware of its capacity to deliberately destroy itself Since that time the Bomb has served as an organizing metaphor a symbol of human annihilation a stand in for the unspeakable void of extinction and a discursive construct that challenges the limits of communication itself The parallel fascination with and abhorrence of nuclear weapons has metastasized into a host of other end of the world scenarios from global pandemics and climate change to zombie uprisings and asteroid collisions Desiring the Bomb Communication Psychoanalysis and the Atomic Age explores these world ending fantasies through the lens of psychoanalysis to reveal their implications for both contemporary apocalyptic culture and the operations of language itself What accounts for the enduring power of the Bomb as a symbol What does the prospect of annihilation suggest about language and its limits Thoroughly researched and accessibly written this study expands on the theories of Kenneth Burke Jacques Lacan Sigmund Freud and many others from a variety of disciplines to arrive at some answers to these questions Calum L Matheson undertakes a series of case studies including the Trinity test site nuclear war games urban shelter schemes and contemporary survivalism and argues that contending with the anxieties individual social cultural and political born of the Atomic Age depends on rhetorical conceptions of the real an order of experience that cannot be easily negotiated in language Using aspects of media studies rhetorical theory and psychoanalysis the author deftly engages the topics of Atomic Age survival extinction religion and fantasy along with their enduring cultural legacies to develop an account of the Bomb as a signifier and to explore why some Americans have become fascinated with fantasies of nuclear warfare and narratives of postapocalyptic rebirth The Ethics of War and Nuclear Deterrence James P. Sterba, 1985 Ecoviolence and the Law: Supranational Normative Foundation of Ecocrime Laura Westra, 2021-11-22 Exploring such acts of environmental violence as ecocrimes the author builds the case that the international law principles of jus cogens and erga omnes justify characterizing ecocrime as a just crime requiring action to curb their occurrence and punishment to deter them The book discusses the obstacles that defining environmental assaults as ecocrimes will face both in national and international circumstances The author concludes by proposing the creation of an International Environmental Court that would adjudicate ecocrime issues This forward thinking work will be of great interest to all involved in the human rights issues of environmental threats Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint The Logic of Internationalism Kjell Goldmann, 2002-11 Is internationalism plausible in today's world or must global relations be characterised by tension and war The author analyses internationalism's coercive and accommodative dimensions and considers practical problems Perspectives on Strategy Colin S. Gray, 2013-03-28 Perspectives on Strategy examines in depth five aspects of strategy from the perspectives of intellect morality culture geography and technology The author asks and answers the most challenging and rewarding questions that can be posed in order to reveal the persisting universal nature but ever changing character of strategy WAR, PEACE AND VICTORY: STRATEGY AND STATECRAFT FOR THE NEXT CENTURY Colin S. Gray, 1991-06-15 From Simon Schuster War Peace and Victory is Colin S Gray s exploration of strategy and statecraft for the next century In War Peace and Victory Colin S Gray shows how geography technology history and national culture shape government policy and explains how nations pursue their strategic interests in times of peace

Farrell, 2013-06-20 Contributions to Illuminations A Scarecrow Press Series of Guides to Research in Religion provide students and scholars lay readers and clergy with a road map to research in key areas of religious study All commonly constructed with introductions to the topic and reviews of key thinkers concepts and events each volume includes surveys of the primary and secondary sources with critical evaluations of their places in the canon of thought and research on the topic Focusing primarily on the knowledge required by today s students and scholars each guide is a must have for any student of religion The twentieth century saw an explosion of wars and an accompanying explosion of literature on the morality of war Thinking among Christian clerics and scholars on the idea of just war shifted with developments on the battlefield Alternatives to just war theory such as pacifism and realism found new proponents in the published work of the neo Anabaptists and Niebhurians Meanwhile proponents of Christian just war theory had to address challenges from competing ideologies as well as ththose presented by the changing nature of warfare Modern Just War Theory A Guide to Research by scholar and librarian Michael Farrell serves as a manual for students and scholars studying Christian just war theory helping them navigate the wealth of just war literature produced in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Farrell s guide provides an introduction to the major developments of just war theory in the twentieth century including sections on how to research just war theory an overview of some of the most important theorists and developments of the twentieth century and discussions of key search terms and related topics Farrell then surveys and evaluates key primary and secondary sources for researchers on just war theory as well as related sources on Christian realism and the responses of just war theorists to proponents of pacifism and secular just war theories Modern Just War Theory will appeal to students and scholars of theology military history international law and Christian ethics Strategy and Ethnic Conflict Laure Paquette, 2002-02-28 Ethnic conflict now presents the thorniest problems for military and civilian strategists of all stripes This book presents a new general theory of strategy encompassing studies of the relationship between values interest and strategy as these relate to ethnic conflicts It focuses on the relationship between values and strategy building a theory on the hypothesis that national values influence national strategy Paquette s research reveals that national values influence national strategy through three mechanisms cognition appreciation and evaluation Each mechanism and indeed the whole value focused approach to strategic thinking is described using a network of interrelated statements Paquette develops a methodology specific to the issues of international security and ethnic considerations She tests this theory extensively for internal consistency before applying it to a single historical case French decision making on national strategy between 1955 and 1970 however because of its generality this same theory could easily be applied to other cases As with any theory it is possible to vary successively or simultaneously assumptions or conditions and to derive new predictions This process of deriving variations has the potential to help in the training of strategists both military and civilian

Ethics, Nuclear Deterrence, and War Jack N. Barkenbus,1992 The War That Must Not Occur Jean-Pierre Dupuy,2023-09-19 The possibility of a nuclear war that could destroy civilization has influenced the course of international affairs since 1945 suspended like a sword of Damocles above the heads of the world s leaders The fact that we have escaped a third world war involving strategic nuclear weapons indeed that no atomic weapon of limited power has yet been used under battlefield conditions seems nothing short of a miracle Revisiting debates on the effectiveness and ethics of nuclear deterrence Jean Pierre Dupuy is led to reformulate some of the most difficult questions in philosophy He develops a counterintuitive but powerful theory of apocalyptic prophecy once a major catastrophe appears to be possible one must assume that it will in fact occur Dupuy shows that the contradictions and paradoxes riddling discussions of deterrence arise from the tension between two opposite conceptions of time one in which the future depends on decisions and strategy and another in which every occurring event is one that could not have failed to occur Considering the immense destructive power of nuclear warheads and the almost unimaginable ruin they are bound to cause Dupuy reaches a provocative conclusion whether they bring about good or evil does not depend on the present or future intentions of those who are in a position to use them The mere possession of nuclear weapons is a moral abomination

On the Eve of the 21st Century William Gay,T. A. Alekseeva,1994 Presents a collection of essays by both Russian and American philosophers responding to the dissolution of the Soviet Union Included are a liberal feminist critique of political realism a view of Hobbes political philosophy and a view of the Marxian legacy and world security

Ballistic Missile Defense In The Post-cold War Era David B H Denoon,2021-11-28 With the end of the Cold War and the visibility of U S Patriot missile defenses during the 1991 Gulf War the cost and benefits of ballistic missile defense systems BMD need to be re evaluated In this detailed and balanced study David Denoon assesses new types of short range and intercontinental missile defenses In the post Cold War era two fundamental changes have made missile defense for the United States and its military forces more compelling The United States and Russia no longer see each other as direct threats and there has been a dramatic proliferation of ballistic missile capability in the Third World Consequently U S forces deployed overseas are more likely to be at risk and eventually the United States itself could become vulnerable to missile threats With these changes in mind David Denoon analyzes the current BMD dilemma arguing that active defenses against missiles should be seen as a form of insurance against catastrophe He assesses the likelihood of missile attacks and the appropriate level of investment for the United States to defend against such attacks The book provides an assessment of deterrence and the performance of the Patriot missiles during the 1991 Gulf War critiques the Strategic Defense Initiative and analyzes the prospects for new types of short range and intercontinental missile defenses Practical Pacifism

Andrew Fiala,2004 The United States has a unique responsibility and opportunity to use democracy to end war but after 9 11 many can no longer imagine pacifism in any form Practical Pacifism argues for an approach to peace that aims toward a moral consensus that is developed pragmatically through dialogue aimed at overlapping consensus Andrew Fiala is an Associate Professor of Philosophy and Humanistic Studies at the University of Wisconsin He has written many articles for Philosophy in the Contemporary World Metaphilosophy Res Publica the Internet Encyclopedia of Philosophy and The Humanist Fighting to the End C. Christine Fair,2014-04-25 The Pakistan army is poised for perpetual conflict with India which it cannot win militarily or politically What explains Pakistan s persistent revisionism despite increasing costs and decreasing likelihood of success This book argues that an understanding of the army s strategic culture explains its willingness to fight to the end Special Bibliography Series ,1957 Special Bibliography Series United States Air Force Academy. Library,1990 Rethinking National Security Frances Scott,1990
