On The Song Of Songs Iii Sermons 47 66:

On the Song of Songs, III, Sermons 47-66 Saint Bernard (of Clairvaux), 1979 Lovers of the Place Francis Kline, 2012-05-01 In Lovers of the Place Abbot Francis Kline provided a fresh vision of the monastic life as one form of the Christian vocation that must find its place alongside other expressions of Christian life He firmly believed that as monasticism renews itself for the church it will in turn renew the church Kline invites all the baptized to a participation in the monastic charism loose in the church at large Francis Kline OCSO was the third abbot of Mepkin Abbey a Cistercian Trappist monastery near Charleston South Carolina until his death in 2006 He studied at The Julliard School in New York and at Sant Anselmo in Rome Walking the Compassionate Road Rev. Peter Devenish-Meares, 2012-06-11 Walking the Compassionate Road is a deeply invitational book that calls us to stop examine and adjust what we do so as to be more aware mindful and caring of ourselves so as to be more compassionate towards others Drawing on monastic life and psychology the book offers practical tips and examples that urge us to reflect on what we do and perhaps more importantly who we are The author long experienced in walking alongside people who are busy or disaffected and who seek healing and meaning in their lives offers a unique perspective on a much sought after virtue compassion Self care humility and compassion are aged old steps towards wholeness The author offers an experiential approach that draws the best from psychology and spirituality in a way that the searcher the busy manager or the tired worker can all use what they need as they go Saving Fear in Christian Spirituality Ann W. Astell, 2019-11-30 Hailed in Sacred Scripture as the beginning of wisdom Ps 111 10 the fear of the Lord is seldom mentioned and little understood today A gift of the Spirit and a moral virtue or disposition the fear of the Lord also frequently entails emotional experiences of differing kinds compunction dread reverence wonderment and awe Starting with the Bible itself this collection of seventeen essays explores the place of holy fear in Christian spirituality from the early church to the present and argues that this fear is paradoxically linked in various ways to fear s seeming opposite love Indeed the charged dynamic of love and fear accounts for different experiences and expressions of Christian life in response to changing historical circumstances and events The writings of the theologians mystics philosophers saints and artists studied here reveal the relationship between the fear and the love of God to be profoundly challenging and mysterious its elements paradoxically conjoined in a creative tension with each other but also tending to oscillate back and forth in the history of Christian spirituality as first one then the other comes to the fore sometimes to correct a perceived imbalance sometimes at the risk of losing its companion altogether Given this historical pattern clearly evident in these chronologically arranged essays the palpable absence of a discourse of holy fear from the mainstream theological landscape should give us pause and invite us to consider if and how under what aspect in which contexts a holy fear inseparable from love might be regained or discovered anew within Christian spirituality as a remedy both for a crippling anxiety and for a presumptive recklessness This book will be of interest to students and scholars of Christian spirituality theology biblical studies religious studies and religion and literature Contributors Ann W Astell Pieter G R de Villiers Donna R Hawk Reinhard John Sehorn Catherine Rose Cavadini Joseph Wawrykow Robert Boenig Ralph Keen Wendy M Wright Ephraim Radner Julia A Lamm Cyril O Regan Brenna Moore Maj Britt Frenze and Todd Walatka Bernard of Clairvaux On the Life of the Mind John R. Sommerfeldt, 2004 Bernard of Clairvaux on the Spirituality of Relationship John R. Sommerfeldt, 2004 This study argues that Bernard impacted Europe politically ecclesiastically and spiritually because his own life embodied so many of the ideals and values of his age some of which had not crystallized until his coming Bernard saw the Church as the sum of all those pursuing however feebly the path to perfection For him Noah Daniel and Job signified the three orders of church and society prelates monks and laypeople His enthusiasm for church and society was matched by his confidence that people throughout Europe could respond positively to God's invitation to perfection and thus could reach the goal of happiness no matter the social order to which they belonged or the pilgrim's path they followed BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Meditation as Spiritual Therapy Matthew McWhorter, Matthew R. McWhorter, 2024 Christian persons today might seek spiritual development and ponder the benefit of mindfulness exercises but also maintain concerns if they perceive such exercises to originate from other religious traditions Such persons may not be aware of a long tradition of meditation practice in Christianity that promotes personal growth This spiritual tradition receives a careful formulation by Christian monastic authors in the twelfth century One such teaching on meditation is found in the treatise De consideratione written by St Bernard of Clairvaux d 1153 to Pope Eugene III d 1153 In textual passages where St Bernard exhibits a clear concern for the mental health of the Pope due to numerous ongoing ecclesial political and military problems St Bernard reminds Eugene III of his original monastic vocation and the meditation exercises associated with that vocation The advice that St Bernard gives to Eugene III can be received today in a way that provides a structure for Christian meditation practice which is relevant for personal development spiritual direction and civil psychotherapy that integrates a client's spirituality into the course of treatment St Bernard thus might be interpreted as a teacher of a kind of Christian mindfulness that can benefit both a person's mental health as well as a person's relationship with God Meditation as Spiritual Therapy examines the historical context of Bernard's work his purpose for writing it as well as the numerous Christian sources he drew upon to formulate his teaching Bernard's teaching on the course of meditation itself is explored in depth and in dialogue with his other treatises letters and sermons Lastly a contemporary summary of Bernard's teaching is provided with reflections concerning the relationship of this teaching to contemporary spiritual direction and spiritually integrated civil psychotherapy Courtly Pastimes Gloria Allaire, Julie Human, 2022-11-25 The modern concept of passing leisure hours pleasantly would in the Middle Ages have fallen under the rubric of Sloth a deadly sin Yet aristocrats of past centuries were not always absorbed in affairs of state or warfare What did they do in moments of peace downtime as we might call it today In this collection of essays scholars from various disciplines investigate courtly modes of entertainment

Eating Beauty Ann W. Astell, 2016-02-09 The enigmatic link between the natural and artistic beauty that is to be contemplated but not eaten on the one hand and the eucharistic beauty that is both seen with the eyes of faith and eaten on the other intrigues me and inspires this book One cannot ask theological aesthetic questions about the Eucharist without engaging fundamental questions about the relationship between beauty art broadly defined and eating from Eating Beauty In a remarkable book that is at once learned startlingly original and highly personal Ann W Astell explores the ambiguity of the phrase eating beauty The phrase evokes the destruction of beauty the devouring mouth of the grave the mouth of hell To eat beauty is to destroy it Yet in the case of the Eucharist the person of faith who eats the Host is transformed into beauty itself literally incorporated into Christ In this sense Astell explains the Eucharist was productive of an entire way of life a virtuous life form an artwork with Christ himself as the principal artist The Eucharist established for the people of the Middle Ages distinctive schools of sanctity Cistercian Franciscan Dominican and Ignatian whose members were united by the eucharistic sacrament that they received Reading the lives of the saints not primarily as historical documents but as iconic expressions of original artworks fashioned by the eucharistic Christ Astell puts the faceless Host in a dynamic relationship with these icons With the advent of each new spirituality the Christian idea of beauty expanded to include first the marred beauty of the saint and finally that of the church torn by division an anti aesthetic beauty embracing process suffering deformity and disappearance as well as the radiant lightness of the resurrected body This astonishing work of intellectual and religious history is illustrated with telling artistic examples ranging from medieval manuscript illuminations to sculptures by Michelangelo and paintings by Salvador Dal Astell puts the lives of medieval saints in conversation with modern philosophers as disparate as Simone Weil and G W F Hegel

A Companion to Bernard of Clairvaux Brian Patrick McGuire, 2011-03-21 Bernard of Clairvaux emerges from these studies as a vibrant challenging and illuminating representative of the monastic culture of the twelfth century In taking on Peter Abelard and the new scholasticism he helped define the very world he opposed and thus contributed to the renaissance of the twelfth century

Cistercian Mysticism Aage Rydstrøm-Poulsen, Daniel Marcel La Corte, Rose Marie Tillisch, 2025-05-05 Since mysticism deals with the ultimate ideals and purposes of human existence it is one of the most significant phenomena in Western cultural history Mysticism had a significant role in the medieval monastic environment and along with many other things had a profound impact on Western intellectual culture The history of mysticism in the West is a history of the greatest and most significant aspirations and potentialities of the individual regarding the understanding of oneself and the divine Cistercian Mysticism is an outstanding example The anthology s chapters explore key aspects of Cistercian spirituality including William of Saint Thierry s visio Dei the vision of God a transformative encounter with the divine that is central to his mysticism as well as the concept of sensus amoris Cistercian Mysticism also explores Bernard of Clairvaux s writings on the Song of Songs and the relation between contemplation and action demonstrating how action service and contemplative love can coexist Tradition is further enhanced by Aelred of Rievaulx s thoughts on spiritual friendship which highlight how human relationships based on love and introspection mirror the soul s path toward divine union By examining the writings of these influential figures this volume offers a way to comprehend the close connection between the divine and the human soul highlighting the importance of their contributions to the mystical and theological landscape of the Middle Ages A book which will undoubtedly be highly enjoyed by scholars and students of all ages and religious communities On the Song of Songs Saint Bernard (of Clairvaux),1979 These eighty six sermons are among the most famous and most beautiful examples of medieval scriptural exegesis In them the modern reader can catch a glimpse of the genius an entire generation found irresistible This volume contains sermons 47 through 66 Bernard of Clairvaux towered over the society of twelfth century Europe A brilliant preacher and a polished writer he counselled kings and rebuked popes He moved in the complicated affairs of men with a dexterity which brought him acclaim and adversaries yet he exhorted Christians to turn from worldly affairs to serve God He remains a man of paradoxes He crisscrossed Europe while insisting that monks have no place outside their monasteries He inveighed against two of the most renowned scholars of his day yet he helped support the education of numerous students He persuaded two kings to take up a crusade against the Moslems yet he preached that persuasion and not force should be used against unbelievers A profound mystic Bernard sought above all and in all to be with God and to bring all persons to the experience of God His Sermons on the Song of Songs are among the most famous and most beautiful examples of medieval scriptural exegesis In them the modern reader can catch a glimpse of the genius which an entire generation found irresistible

Reading Christian Theology in the Protestant Tradition Kelly Kapic,Hans Madueme,2018-01-25 Reading Christian Theology in the Protestant Tradition offers a distinctive approach to the value of classic works through the lens of Protestantism While it is anachronistic to speak of Christian theology prior to the Reformation as Protestant it is wholly appropriate to recognize how certain common Protestant concerns can be discerned in the earliest traditions of Christianity The resonances between the ages became both informative and inspiring for Protestants who looked back to pre reformation sources for confirmation challenge and insight Thus this book begins with the first Christian theologians covering nearly 2000 years of theological writing from the Didache Justin Martyr and Origen to James Cone Jos M guez Bonino and Sallie McFague Five major periods of church history are represented in 12 key works each carefully explained and interpreted by an expert in the field
