The Cultural Construction of London's East End Paul Newland, 2008-01-01 Paul Newland s illuminating study explores the ways in which London s East End has been constituted in a wide variety of texts films novels poetry television shows newspapers and journals Newland argues that an idea or image of the East End which developed during the late nineteenth century continues to function in the twenty first century as an imaginative space in which continuing anxieties continue to be worked through concerning material progress and modernity rationality and irrationality ethnicity and Otherness class and its related systems of behaviour The Cultural Construction of London s East End offers detailed examinations of the ways in which the East End has been constructed in a range of texts including BBC Television s EastEnders Monica Ali s Brick Lane Walter Besant s All Sorts and Conditions of Men Thomas Burke s Limehouse Nights Peter Ackroyd s Hawksmoor films such as Piccadilly Sparrows Can t Sing The Long Good Friday From Hell The Elephant Man and Spider and in the work of Iain Sinclair London Through Russian Eyes, 1896-1914 Anna Vaninskaya, 2022 Translated anthology of London Letters written by Russian foreign correspondents which makes available for the first time in English the Russian perspective on early twentieth century London life This anthology provides a unique window onto Britain s capital city as it existed more than a century ago in the minds of the Russian reading public Russian foreign correspondents produced a substantial body of writing documenting London life in all its infinite variety but their articles published in Russian journals and newspapers have not been accessible to English speakers until today These articles instrumental in forging Russian perceptions of London before the First World War have now acquired a new interest as monuments of a vanished era and as records of the city s history in their own right The selections in this anthology from Isaak Shklovsky Korney Chukovsky Samuil Marshak and Semyon Rapoport give just a taste of the riches that still lie hidden in the pages of old periodicals The anthology is divided into four sections Foreigners in London focusing on the plight of immigrants in the city London Labour and the London Poor documenting the experiences of working class Londoners London at Home and at Leisure depicting the domestic life and amusements of Londoners of all classes and ages and London Streets and Public Life covering elections religious meetings famous trials jingoist celebrations and the funeral of Queen Victoria The articles are accompanied by an in depth introduction illustrations and extensive annotations This anthology will appeal to anyone

Rubinstein, Michael A. Jolles, 2011-01-27 This authoritative and comprehensive guide to key people and events in Anglo Jewish history stretches from Cromwell's re-admittance of the Jews in 1656 to the present day and contains nearly 3000 entries the vast majority of which are not featured in any other sources Black Poor and White Philanthropists Stephen J. Braidwood, 1994-01-01 This book examines the events surrounding the establishment of a settlement in West Africa in 1787 which was later to become Freetown the present day capital of Sierra Leone It outlines the range of ideas and attitudes to Africa which underlay the foundation of the settlement and the part played by the black settlers themselves London's Black Poor Was the settlement based on a racist deportation designed to keep Britain white as some accounts claim or a voluntary emigration in which the
