Sin No More John Dombink, Daniel Hillyard, 2007-11 Sin No More offers a vivid examination of some of the most morally and politically disputed issues of our time: abortion, gay rights, assisted suicide, stem cell research, and legalized gambling. These are moral values issues, all of which are hotly, sometimes violently, contested in America. The authors cover these issues in depth, looking at the nature of efforts to initiate reforms, to define constituencies, to mobilize resources, to frame debates, and to shape public opinion, all in an effort to achieve social change, create or re-write legislation. Of the issues under scrutiny, only legalized gambling has managed to achieve widespread acceptance, despite moral qualms from some.

Publisher description: The Social Life of Financial Derivatives Edward LiPuma, 2017-10-19 In The Social Life of Financial Derivatives, Edward LiPuma theorizes the profound social dimensions of derivatives markets and the processes, rituals, and belief systems that drive them. In response to the 2008 financial crisis and drawing on his experience trading derivatives, LiPuma outlines how they function as complex devices that organize speculative capital, as well as the ways derivative-driven capitalism not only produces the conditions for its own existence but also penetrates the fabric of everyday life. Framing finance as a form of social life and highlighting the intrinsically social character of financial derivatives, LiPuma deepens our understanding of derivatives so that we may someday use them to serve the public well.

Few look beyond to unpick the games, their players, and their communities. The Casino, Card and Betting Game Reader offers 25 chapters studying the communities playing these games, the distinctive cultures and practices that have emerged around them, their activities and beliefs, and interpersonal relationships, and how these games influence both positively and negatively the lives and careers of millions of game players around the world.
