Policy Aspects Of Land Use Planning In Ireland:

Policy Aspects of Land-use Planning in Ireland Frank J. Convery, Alfred Allan Schmid, 1983 Family, Economy, and Government in Ireland Finola Kennedy, Economic and Social Research Institute, 1989 Town and Country Planning in the UK Simin Davoudi, David Webb, Geoff Vigar, John Pendlebury, Tim Townshend, Trevor Hart, Vincent Nadin, 2014-12-05

Town and country planning has never been more important to the UK nor more prominent in national debate Planning generates great controversy whether it s spending 80m and four years inquiry into Heathrow s Terminal 5 or the 200 proposed wind turbines in the Shetland Isles On a smaller scale telecoms masts take aways house extensions and even fences are often the cause of local conflict Town and Country Planning in the UK has been extensively revised by a new author group This 15th Edition incorporates the major changes to planning introduced by the coalition government elected in 2010 particularly through the National Planning Policy Framework and associated practice guidance and the Localism Act It provides a critical discussion of the systems of planning the procedures for managing development and land use change and the mechanisms for implementing policy and proposals It reviews current policy for sustainable development and the associated economic social and environmental themes relevant to planning in both urban and rural contexts Contemporary arrangements are explained with reference to their historical development the influence of the European Union the roles of central and local government and developing social and economic demands for land use change Detailed consideration is given to the nature of planning and its historical evolution the role of the EU central regional and local government mechanisms for developing policy and managing these changes policies for guiding and delivering housing and economic development sustainable development principles for planning including pollution control the importance of design in planning conserving the heritage community engagement in planning The many recent changes to the system are explained in detail the new national planning policy framework the impact of the loss of the regional tier in planning and of the insertion of neighbourhood level planning the transition from development control to development management the continued and growing importance of environmental matters in planning community engagement partnership working changes to planning gain and the introduction of the Community Infrastructure Levy and new initiatives across a number of other themes Notes on further reading are provided and at the end of the book there is an extensive bibliography maintaining its reputation as the bible of British planning Sustainable Development Policy Directory W. Alan Strong, Lesley Hemphill, 2008-04-15 This Directory means that a whole range of built environment professionals need never be caught out by the perversities of policy in its formulation or on its journey into the real life of you and me To have in one place the means of not only burrowing down into any one policy but also of exploring the interconnections is a precious resource for any professional sustainability literate or not Today nobody who delivers our built environment can be excused from taking responsibility for the future Armed with this Directory their contribution can only be made more effective Sara Parkin OBE

Forum for the Future This desk top reference on sustainable development provides essential information for all who need to be up to date and familiar with the implications of the legal fiscal and planning frameworks around the global and local sustainability agenda It is relevant to a range of organisations and individuals from national and local authorities professional bodies built environment professions academia environmental consultancies non governmental organisations and others Carefully designed to facilitate access for a diverse range of stakeholders it covers international European British and local policies in key built environment themes and develops their inter relationship to sustainable development The Directory addresses each theme in a series of tables which summarise the policy purpose and also provide web links to view the specific policy documents The themes covered are Biodiversity Climate Change Construction Energy Environment Planning Pollution Social Issues Sustainable Development Policy and Practice Transport Urban Development Waste Management Water Other books of interest The Green Guide to Specification Anderson ISBN 1405119616 Smart Sustainable Built Environments Yang Hardback ISBN 1405124229 Sustainable Property Development Keeping Paperback ISBN 0632058048 Previously Developed Land Syms Paperback 1405106972 Evaluating Sustainable Development Brandon 0632064862 Cover design by Garth Stewart www.thatconstructionsite.com Strategic Environmental Assessment and Land Use Planning Michael Short, Mark Baker, Jeremy Carter, Stephen Jay, Carys Jones, 2013-06-17 A wonderfully international and up to date perspective on strategic environmental assessment of land use plans by leading experts in the field Strategic Environmental Assessment and Land Use Planning covers not only how much such SEAs are carried out and in what context but whether they are effective and why It provides invaluable insights for practitioners and researchers in this rapidly evolving field Riki Therivel author of Strategic Environmental Assessment in Action Strategic Environmental Assessment and Land Use Planning provides an authoritative international evaluation of the SEA of land use plans The editors place the SEA of land use plans in context and uniquely qualified contributors then evaluate systems in Canada Denmark Germany Hong Kong Hungary Ireland The Netherlands New Zealand Portugal South Africa Sweden the United Kingdom the United States and the World Bank These chapters provide a description of the context in each country a case study of the use of SEA in land use planning and an evaluation of each SEA system against a set of generic criteria specially designed to analyse different aspects of SEA The contributors critically review each SEA system SEA process and SEA outcome and conclude by summarizing their findings The editors draw the various national perspectives together in a final chapter and derive widely applicable conclusions about SEA and land use planning This book is a core text for all students in environmental assessment land use planning environmental science environmental management development studies geography landscape design and law and engineering It is also essential reading for all governments and environmental regulators academics researchers and environmental and planning consultants worldwide who are involved in SEA research practice and training Energy Policy and Land-Use Planning D. R. Cope, P. Hills, P. James, 2013-10-22 This book fills a gap in the available literature on energy policy by dealing with the relationship between energy and land use planning It considers in a systematic way energy developments in national regional and local planning policy contexts concentrating particularly on energy supply issues in Europe

The Strategic Environmental Assessment Directive Gregory Jones KC,Eloise Scotford,2017-02-23 The Strategic Environmental Assessment Directive Directive 2001 42 EC SEA Directive has been a lurking legal presence in EU and UK environmental law Now just over a decade since its implementation the impacts of the SEA Directive are beginning to be felt throughout the UK and more broadly throughout the European Union as a whole These developments have been driven both by the expansive interpretation of the Directive s scope by the Court of Justice of the European Union and by a slow learning process about how this new type of regulation should be legally interpreted and applied This edited collection is the first volume to reflect comprehensively on the emerging legal identity of SEA in the EU and UK With contributions addressing the impact of the SEA Directive on the fields of town and country planning and European environmental law the book is a comprehensive analysis of all aspects of the Directive from its history and scope to its impact on governmental policy and its implications in practice The volume both reflects on key cases such as Case C 567 10 Inter Environnement Bruxelles and HS2 and looks forward as it considers and projects future legal implications of the SEA Directive Written by a blend of distinguished academics and leading practitioners it provides an in depth critique and rounded appreciation of both the immediate practical effects of SEA and its wider impact on European and UK environmental law
