Policymaking And Democracy A Multinational Anthology:

Policymaking and Democracy Stuart S. Nagel, 2003-01-01 Policymaking and Democracy is the first volume of a three volume set that examines the multi dimensional role of policy in the development and promotion of democracy prosperity and peace The democracy volume brings together international contributions on the policy challenges faced by national and multinational bodies to promote a democratic political culture and encourage the growth and development of civil society The work includes chapters on integration and representation within the European Union the expanding role of NGOs and IGOs international parliamentary organs the future of the nation state in a pluralistic world and the mportance of global consensus building

Equity in the Workplace Heidi Gottfried, Laura Reese, 2008-01-01 This edited collection assembles cutting edge comparative policy research on contemporary policies relevant to gender Contributors analyze gender related employment policies including parental leave maternity programs sexual harassment work life balance and gender mainstreaming Equity in the Workplace thoroughly illustrates how the juxtaposition of a variety of research methodologies focused on a common theme can lead to a richer multilayered understanding of a complex issue

Foreign Policy Toward Cuba Michele Zebich-Knos, Heather Nora Nicol, 2005-01-01 Foreign Policy Toward Cuba is a timely exploration of the ways in which Cuba is understood in the Western Hemisphere The book examines the depth of disagreement between different foreign policy making communities and the potential impacts of diverse national approaches not just for Cuba but for the whole Carribean region

Higher Education and Equality of Opportunity Fred A. Lazin, N. Jayaram, Matt Evans, 2012-07-10 The movement to broaden access to public universities the dominant strategy during the 1970s and 1980s has largely shifted to enable the marketplace rather than the government to shape the contours of higher education Government funding is being reduced affirmative action and other programs designed to insure broader access are in decline and personal fulfillment is replacing a public good designed to insure greater equality of opportunities This book explores the impact of diminishing government resources and expanding market forces in developing and developed countries to either foster or lessen equality of opportunities in higher education for different racial ethnic religious and gender groupings What are the consequences of a market driven higher education for student access teaching and scholarship Through case studies this book explores issues such as access of minority groups within the larger societies the place of foreign students in a national system and access for students with mental health difficulties and evaluates the success of funding schemes designed to expand opportunities and access The research provides an interesting contrast of the diversity and uniqueness of higher education in the United States France Australia India Israel South Korea The Netherlands Ghana and several other countries while at the same time revealing surprising commonalities These studies reveal world wide trends in higher education including a cutback in government financing a decline in access and a receding of affirmative action This book is an important addition to the literature on higher education during the age of globalization and the decline of government funding of higher education The studies provide important data about the current situation in higher education in countries around the world

The Politics of Biotechnology in North America and Europe Éric Montpetit, Frédéric Varone, Christine Rothmayr, 2006-12-19 Biotechnology is one of the most important new issues to emerge in the knowledge economy The Politics of Biotechnology in North America and Europe provides analysts with a perspective on policy making in scientifically advanced countries that integrate the insights of several approaches and that display a particular sensitivity to the complexity of policy making conjectures This perspective allows going beyond the simplistic understandings of biotechnology policy currently prevailing This volume provides a rigorous analysis and detailed information on biotechnology policy in nine countries The essays included here present the results of in depth empirical research in the area of biomedicine and agro food biotechnology The book is therefore not only of interest to policy makers and policy analysts but also to anyone with an interest in biotechnology

Beyond Realism Rekha Datta, 2010-04-20 Focusing on India and Pakistan this book adopts an innovative combination of realist analysis with a human security approach It will be a valuable resource for a wide variety of scholars practitioners and analysts who focus on policy analysis in South Asia Graduate students and advanced undergraduates studying comparative politics and human security issues in South Asia will find useful perspectives in the volume's fresh focus on including human security as a policy priority

The Struggle for Soviet Jewry in American Politics Fred A. Lazin, 2005-04-19 Until 1989 most Soviet Jews wanting to immigrate to the United States left on visas for Israel via Vienna In Vienna with the assistance of American aid organizations thousands of Soviet Jews transferred to Rome and applied for refugee entry into the United States The Struggle for Soviet Jewry in American Politics examines the conflict between the Israeli government and the organized American Jewish community over the final destination of Soviet Jewish migrants between 1967 and 1989 A generation after the Holocaust a battle surrounded the thousands of Soviet Jewish migrants fleeing persecution by choosing to resettle in the United States instead of Israel Exploring the changing ethnic identity and politics of the United States Fred A Lazin engages history ethical dilemma and diplomacy to uncover the events surrounding this conflict This book is essential reading for students and scholars of public policy immigration studies and Jewish history

Afghanistan, Iraq and Post-conflict Governance A. Imtiaz Hussain, 2010-01-01 A comparative study is made of how conflict terminating negotiations led to maiden democratic elections in Afghanistan and Iraq pointing various thresholds out through specific chapters invoking negotiations theories stages to deepen interpretations and prospecting the Bush Doctrine's future mileage in democratizing the Middle East

Innovation and Entrepreneurship in State and Local Government Michael Harris, Rhonda Kinney, 2004-01-01 Americans today recognize and celebrate leadership genius in the management of private companies At the same time the American public remains deeply skeptical of government's ability to address real economic and social challenges The contributors to this timely and important volume increase our understanding of the potential incentives for and barriers to creative problem solving in the public sector Drawing on case studies of state and local government as well as theoretical literature on private sector management these scholars reveal both the problems and the possibilities in governmental decision making Cities, Networks, and Global Environmental Governance Sofie Bouteligier, 2013 As a result of global dynamics the increasing interconnection of people and places innovations in global environmental governance have altered the role of cities in shaping the future of the planet This book is a timely study of the importance of these social transformations in our increasingly global and increasingly urban world Through analysis of transnational municipal networks such as Metropolis and the C40 Cities Climate Leadership Group Sofie Bouteligier's innovative study examines theories of the network society and global cities from a global ecology perspective Through direct observation and interviews and using two types of city networks that have been treated separately in the literature she discovers the structure and logic pertaining to office networks of environmental non governmental organizations and environmental consultancy firms In doing so she incisively demonstrates the ways in which cities fulfill the role of strategic sites of global environmental governance concentrating knowledge infrastructure and institutions vital to the function of transnational actors
