Polin Vol 15 Studies In Polish Jewry:

Polin: Studies in Polish Jewry Volume 6 Antony Polonsky, 2004 Now in its sixth year of publication Polin is rapidly emerging as a leading forum for authoritative historical and cultural material on Polish and east European Jewry Each volume contains articles representing original research often including previously unpublished documents Each issue also features an extensive review essay section and a forum for the exchange of ideas and views between authors Polin is essential reading not only for all those working in Jewish studies but also for those involved in Slavonic and Eastern European studies This year's volume traces the history of the Jews in Lodz 1820-1939 The Journal of Jewish Studies, 2005 Polish-Jewish Relations in North America Mieczysław B. Biskupski, Antony Polonsky, 2007 A bold examination of the issues shaping Polish Jewish relations in North America and particularly of how the Holocaust continues to distort the structure of mutual perceptions Stereotyping on both sides is confronted head on with a number of chapters describing attempts to go beyond stereotypes and past conflicts and to concentrate instead on what has linked Poles and Jews in their long history Holocaust in Rovno: The Massacre at Sosenki Forest, November 1941 J. Burds, 2013-12-01 In November 1941 near the city of Rovno Ukraine German death squads murdered over 23 000 Jews in what has been described as the second Babi Yar This meticulous and methodologically innovative study reconstructs the events at Rovno and in the process exemplifies efforts to form a genuinely transnational history of the Holocaust The Messianic Secret of Hasidism Mor Altshuler, 2006-11-01 This book describes a circle of Eastern European Kabbalists that established Hasidism an important movement that has influenced Jewish Mysticism Yiddish culture and Hebrew literature It uncovers the messianic motivation concealed in Hasidic writings after the failure of their 1740-1781 attempts to hurry redemption The book opens with the Besht the legendary founder of Hasidism and continues with the first Hasidic court founded by one of his prominent disciples the preacher of Zlotshov The group's redemptive activities are revealed through their mystical rituals their self image as representatives of the ten Sefirot and the status of their leader the Righteous One as a vivid symbol of the divine influx The book is especially important for scholars and students of Judaism as well as scholars of mysticism and messianism seeking to comprehend the transformation of a messianic circle of devotees into a mass movement that changes the culture of an entire nation Polish Jewish Culture Beyond the Capital Halina Goldberg, Nancy Sinkoff, 2023-09-15 Polish Jewish Culture beyond the Capital Centering the Periphery is a path breaking exploration of the diversity and vitality of urban Jewish identity and culture in Polish lands from the second half of the nineteenth century to the outbreak of the Second World War 1899-1939 In this multidisciplinary essay collection a cohort of international scholars provides an integrated history of the arts and humanities in Poland by illuminating the complex roles Jews in urban centers other than Warsaw played in the creation of Polish and Polish Jewish culture Each essay presents readers with the extraordinary production and consumption of culture by Polish Jews in literature film cabaret theater the visual arts architecture and music They show how this process was defined by a reciprocal cultural exchange that flourished between cities at the periphery from Lwów and Wilno to Kraków and international centers like Warsaw thereby illuminating the place of Polish Jews within urban European cultures Companion website <https://polishjewishmusic.iu.edu> An Ordinary Life? Anna Müller, 2023-03-07 One woman's national political ethnic social and personal identities impart an extraordinary perspective on the histories of Europe Polish Jews Communism activism and survival during the twentieth century Tonia Lechtman was a Jew a loving mother and wife a Polish patriot a committed Communist and a Holocaust survivor Throughout her life these identities brought her to multiple countries Poland Palestine Spain France Germany Switzerland and Israel during some of the most pivotal and cataclysmic decades of the twentieth century In most of those places she lived on the margins of society while working to promote Communism and trying to create a safe space for her small children Born in Łódź in 1918 Lechtman became fascinated with Communism in her early youth In 1935 to avoid the consequences of her political activism during an increasingly antisemitic and hostile political environment the family moved to Palestine where Tonia met her future husband Sioma In 1937 the couple traveled to Spain to participate in the Spanish Civil War After discovering she was pregnant Lechtman relocated to France while Sioma joined the International Brigades She spent the Second World War in Europe traveling with two small children between France Germany and Switzerland at times only miraculously avoiding arrest and being transported east to Nazi camps After the war she returned to Poland where she planned to rebuild Communist Poland However soon after her arrival she was imprisoned for six years In 1971 under pressure from her children Lechtman emigrated from Poland to Israel where she died in 1996 In writing Lechtman's biography Anna Müller has consulted a rich collection of primary source material including archival documentation private documents and photographs interviews from different periods of Lechtman's life and personal correspondence Despite this intimacy Müller also acknowledges key historiographical questions arising from the lacunae of lost materials the selective preservation of others and her own interpretive work translating a life into a life story Polish Film and the Holocaust Marek Haltof, 2012 During World War II Poland lost more than six million people including about three million Polish Jews who perished in the ghettos and extermination camps built by Nazi Germany in occupied Polish territories This book is the first to address the representation of the Holocaust in Polish film and does so through a detailed treatment of several films which the author frames in relation to the political ideological and cultural contexts of the times in which they were created Following the chronological development of Polish Holocaust films the book begins with two early classics Wanda Jakubowska's The Last Stage 1948 and Aleksander Ford's Border Street 1949 and next explores the Polish School period represented by Andrzej Wajda's A Generation 1955 and Andrzej Munk's The Passenger 1963 Between 1965 and 1980 there was an organized silence regarding sensitive Polish Jewish relations resulting in only a few relevant films until the return of democracy in 1989 when an increasing number were made among them Krzysztof Kieślowski's Decalogue 8 1988 Andrzej Wajda's Korczak 1990 Jan Jakub Kolski's Keep Away from the Window 2000 and Roman

Pola ski s The Pianist 2002 An important contribution to film studies this book has wider relevance in addressing the issue of Poland s national memory The Nighttime Butterfly Karen Auerbach,2025-07-08 A dynamic history of life in turn of the century Warsaw through the eyes of a young woman and her Jewish family who converted to Catholicism When Alicja Lewental s parents came of age in the middle of the nineteenth century they believed they did not have to choose between two communities one Polish and the other Jewish But by the time Alicja was growing up in the 1890s it seemed that for some Polish nationalists there was little Jews could do to be accepted unequivocally as Poles As Alicja entered young womanhood and her father a prominent publisher became the target of polemics casting him as an outsider in Polish culture her mother came to believe that only through her daughters conversion to Catholicism and marriage to Catholic men could their family achieve acceptance in Polish society The Lewentals lives and their aspirations for belonging played out in Warsaw s homes salons and bookstores in a modernizing city Drawing on Alicja Lewental s diary and other sources historian Karen Auerbach provides a unique window onto how the Lewentals and their circle navigated a time of increasing ambivalence about the possibility for Jewish belonging to the Polish nation As exclusionary notions of what it meant to be Polish gained traction in politics Alicja and her family encountered these ideas in their private lives The Pessimist's Son Alexander Kimel,Martin Kimel,2025-06-23 A personal depiction of life in Poland set against the Nazi and Soviet takeovers of Europe and their cataclysmic aftermaths It is the compelling memoir of Alexander Kimel taking him from a shtetl in the Polish Ukraine to a Nazi ghetto to liberation It is also the harrowing story of his wife Eva whose father is murdered in the Holocaust by Bullets A dialog across generations with narrative written by their son the book is a rare portrayal of Jewish survivors who remained in Communist Poland after the war It is a story of the many challenges they faced and the life they built together after quitting Poland in 1956 for Israel ultimately emigrating to America By including the stories of other family members the book also provides a panoramic view of Polish Jewry before during and after the war
