Faith, Reason, and Political Life Today Dale McConkey, 2001-03-21 This rich and varied collection of essays addresses some of the most fundamental human questions through the lenses of philosophy literature religion politics and theology Peter Augustine Lawler and Dale McConkey have fashioned an interdisciplinary consideration of such perennial and enduring issues as the relationship between nature and history nature and grace reason and revelation classical philosophy and Christianity modernity and postmodernity repentance and self limitation and philosophy and politics These tensions are explored through the works of such eminent thinkers as Aristotle Augustine and Tocqueville but the contributors engage a wide variety of texts from popular culture American literature Flannery O Connor receives notable attention and social theory to create a remarkably comprehensive if far from harmonious introduction to political philosophy today

The Poetics of Literary Transfer in Early Modern France and England Hassan Melehy, 2016-02-24 Examining both familiar and underappreciated texts Hassan Melehy foregrounds the relationships that early modern French and English writers conceived with both their classical predecessors and authors from flourishing literary traditions in neighboring countries In order to present their own avowedly national literatures as successfully surpassing others they engaged in a paradoxical strategy of presenting other traditions as both inspiring and dead Each of the book's four sections focuses on one early modern author Joachim Du Bellay Edmund Spenser Michel de Montaigne and William Shakespeare Melehy details the elaborate strategies that each author uses to rewrite and overcome the work of predecessors His book touches on issues highly pertinent to current early modern studies among these are translation the relationship between classicism and writing in the vernacular the role of literature in the consolidation of the state attitudes toward colonial expansion and the New World and definitions of modernity and the past
