Proud Of Me Speaking Out Against Sexual Violence And Hiv:

New Directions in Sexual Violence Scholarship Kate Gleeson, Yvette Russell, 2023-05-30 This edited collection brings together leading and emerging scholars in the important field of sexual violence scholarship The last ten years have witnessed an international reckoning on sexual violence typified in the mainstream imagination by the MeToo movement acknowledgement of the violence of university campus life and the overdue recognition of the enduring harms of child sexual abuse While the state has been forced to respond through law and other political processes at times revealing its agility and at other times its archaic investment in the past much of the real work responding to sexual violence and abuse has taken place within communities and in the personal responses of the individuals writing the scripts of their experiences This volume explores the nuances of these individual experiences and considers how they are shaped and reflected by intersecting axes of power including gender race class age and able bodied status It reflects on law and law reform in the area and suggests new modes and frames through which to explain and understand sexual violence and institutional responses to it Debates within this contested personal and political arena do not map onto longstanding binaries of liberal and radical feminism nor conservative and progressive politics This interdisciplinary volume traces that murky terrain and features some of the leading international scholars writing on sexual violence in English today This book will appeal to scholars and students across the broad disciplines of law and legal studies criminology gender studies political science and sociology

Speaking Out Tanya Serisier, 2018-11-19 This is the first critical study of feminist practices of speaking out in response to rape This book argues that feminist anti rape politics are characterised by a belief in the transformative potential of women s personal narratives of sexual violence The political mobilisation of these narratives has been an incredibly successful strategy but one with unresolved ethical questions and political limitations The book explores both the successes and the unresolved questions through feminist archival materials published narratives of sexual violence and mass media and internet sources It argues that that a rethinking of the role and place of women s stories and the politics of speaking out is vital for a rethinking of feminist politics around sexual violence and key to fresh approaches to combating this violence A

Philosophical Investigation of Rape Louise du Toit, 2009-05-07 Du Toit examines the phenomenon of rape using a feminist philosophical discourse concerning women s subjectivity and selfhood The book provides a critique of the dominant understanding of rape and its associated damage and suggests alternatives Readings in Sexualities from Africa Rachel

Spronk, Thomas Hendriks, 2020-02-04 Images and stories about African sexuality abound in today s globalized media Frequently old stereotypes and popular opinion inform these stories and sex in the media is predominately approached as a problem in need of solutions and intervention The authors gathered here refuse an easy characterization of African sexuality and instead seek to understand the various erotic realities sexual practices and gendered changes taking place across the continent They present a nuanced and comprehensive overview of the field of sex and sexuality in Africa to serve as a guide though the quickly expanding literature This collection offers a set of texts that use sexuality as a prism for studying how communities coalesce against the canvas of larger political and economic contexts and how personal lives evolve therein Scholars working in Africa the U S and Europe reflect on issues of representation health and bio politics same sex relationships and identity transactional economies of sex religion and tradition and the importance of pleasure and agency This multidimensional reader provides a comprehensive view of sexuality from an African perspective Proud of Me Charlene Smith,2001 On 1 April 1999 multi award winning journalist Charlene Smith was raped at knifepoint in her Johannesburg home Severely traumatised she was none the less determined to speak out and her first moving article about her rape and possible HIV infection was published just a week after the ordeal So began an unrelenting campaign giving her a platform from which she has challenged traditional thinking on sexual violence women s liberation trauma management and HIV AIDS Her crusade has seen her endure stalkers death threats and political persecution and has been covered by the world s media from Timemagazine CBS s 60 Minutesand the BBC to the media in Uganda Kenya and Brazil amongst others Drawing on the support of those around her Proud of Meis her account of how rape and fear of HIV infection impacted on her own life the lives of her children and those close to her South African AIDS Activism and Global Health Politics M. Mbali,2013-03-29 South Africa has the world s largest number of people living with HIV This book offers a history of AIDS activism in South Africa from its origins in gay and anti apartheid activism to the formation and consolidation of the Treatment Action Campaign TAC including its central role in the global HIV treatment access movement African Women's Unique Vulnerabilities to HIV/AIDS L. Fuller,2008-10-27 This is an in depth look at the biomedical socio cultural economic legal and political and educational vulnerabilities faced by the population that is most vulnerable to the risk of contracting HIV AIDS African women #MeToo and Literary Studies Mary K. Holland,Heather Hewett,2021-09-23 Literature has always recorded a history of patriarchy sexual violence and resistance Academics have been using literature to expose and critique this violence and domination for half a century But the continued potency of MeToo after its 2017 explosion adds new urgency and wider awareness about these issues while revealing new ways in which rape culture shapes our everyday lives This intersectional guide helps readers students teachers and scholars face and challenge our culture of sexual violence by confronting it through the study of literature MeToo and Literary Studies gathers essays on literature from Ovid to Carmen Maria Machado by academics working across the United States and around the world who offer clear ways of using our reading teaching and critical practices to address rape culture and sexual violence It also examines the promise and limitations of the MeToo movement itself speaking to the productive use of social media as well as to the voices that the movement has so far muted In uniting diverse voices to enable the MeToo movement to reshape literary studies this book is also committed to the idea that the way we read and write about literature can make real change in the world Men Behaving Differently Graeme Reid,Liz Walker,2005 Recent years have seen a growing world wide concern about men and boys Do boys have appropriate role models at home Are girls outperforming boys at school Is men s health under undue pressure Soweto Inside Out Adam Roberts,2012-10-02 This is a book about Soweto from inside and out It is an effort to mark a century since the first forced removals of black Africans from central Johannesburg to the banks of the Klipspruit River It is also in recognition of the limited books available on a world famous city A wide variety of writers have contributed Sowetan experts with views from inside the township as well as interested outsiders who are peering in Contributors include writers from publications as varied as Drum Sowetan Mail Guardian Time magazine The Economist The Independent and New York Times Faith and the Fragility of Justice Meredith Whitnah,2025-04-15 South Africa has repeatedly made international headlines because of its high rates of gender based violence In the midst of a wide range of responses to the problem an important voice has been largely absent Why are the religious groups that had famously protested the racial violence of apartheid faltering in their response to gendered violence in the democracy Faith and the Fragility of Justice answers this question through a deep dive into the public discourse of three Protestant Christian organizations that had been adamant about a theological mandate to challenge apartheid but have varied in their responses to gender based violence in the democracy The central argument of the book is that the organizations theological convictions intersect with their posture toward various social groups to shape their actions In making this argument Meredith Whitnah demonstrates that religious beliefs are a central dimension of institutional processes that sustain or challenge social inequality and violence Human Rights and Narrated Lives K. Schaffer,S. Smith,2004-08-20 Personal narratives have become one of the most potent vehicles for advancing human rights claims across the world These two contemporary domains personal narrative and human rights literature and international politics are commonly understood to operate on separate planes This study however examines the ways these intersecting realms unfold and are enfolded in one another in ways both productive of and problematic for the achievement of social justice Human Rights and Narrated Lives explores what happens when autobiographical narratives are produced received and circulated in the field of human rights It asks how personal narratives emerge in local settings how international rights discourse enables and constrains individual and collective subjectivities in narration how personal narratives circulate and take on new meanings in new contexts and how and under what conditions they feed into affect and are affected by the reorganizations of politics in the post cold war postcolonial globalizing human rights contexts To explore these intersections the authors attend the production circulation reception and affective currents of stories in action across local national transnational and global arenas They do so by looking at five case studies in the context of the Truth and Reconciliation processes in South Africa the National Inquiry into the Forced Removal of Indigenous Children from their Families in Australia activism on behalf of former comfort women from South East Asia U S prison activism and democratic reforms in the aftermath of the Tiananmen Square Massacre in China Law and the Politics of Reconciliation Professor Scott Veitch,2013-01-28 This collection of essays by an international group of authors explores the ways in which law and legal institutions are used in countries coming to terms with traumatic pasts and in some cases traumatic presents In putting to question what is often taken for granted in uncritical calls for reconciliation it critically analyses and frequently challenges the political and legal assumptions underlying discourses of reconciliation Drawing on a broad spectrum of disciplinary and interdisciplinary insights the authors examine how competing conceptions of law time and politics are deployed in social transformations and how pressing demands for reconstruction reconciliation and justice inform and respond to legal categories and their use of time The book is genuinely interdisciplinary drawing on work in politics philosophy theology sociology and law It will appeal to a wide audience of researchers and academics working in these areas

(Un)thinking Citizenship Amanda Gouws, 2017-03-02 The study of citizenship in the context of South Africa implicitly challenges the rights based democracy in South Africa while literature regarding women and citizenship has greatly contributed to a new understanding of citizenship Locally many global processes are reproduced in the discourse of rights claiming issues of institutional representation bodily integrity in the face of violence and care in the face of a lack of care This volume takes the debate of citizenship in South Africa in a more theoretical and empirical direction while engaging with knowledge produced elsewhere in the world As part of the Gender in a Local Global World series it investigates the making of gendered citizenship institutionalization of gender politics the state of gendered policy making local citizenship rights the women s movement gendered violence as well as citizenship and the body

Entanglement Sarah Nuttall, 2009-08-01 This original book is a much needed and far reaching exploration of post apartheid South African life worlds Entanglement aims to capture the contradictory mixture of innovation and inertia of loss violence and xenophobia as well as experimentation and desegregation which characterises the present The author explores the concept of entanglement in relation to readings of literature new media forms and painting In the process she moves away from a persistent apartheid optic drawing on ideas of sameness and difference and their limits in order to elicit ways of living and imagining that are just starting to take shape and for which we might not yet have a name In the background of her investigations lies a preoccupation with a future oriented politics one that builds on largely unexplored terrains of mutuality while being attentive to a historical experience of confrontation and injury

Handbook of Research on Connecting Philosophy, Media, and Development in Developing Countries Okocha, Desmond Onyemечи, Onobe, Melchizedec J., Alike, Mirian Ngozi, 2022-05-13 Developing nations have been experimenting with different models and theories in their quest for development for decades but are missing some critical elements when mirrored or judged via a Westernized lens In order for these countries to successfully establish their identity and address issues that have held them back in the past further study on the use of media and philosophy in correlation with development must be conducted The Handbook of Research on Connecting Philosophy Media and Development in Developing Countries examines how media can be utilized to bridge the gap between the past and the future for developing countries and drive sustainable development The book also seeks to reimagine development within developing regions through the prism of their unique cultures religions media and philosophies so they can take hold of their identity and portrayals within the international arena Covering topics such as human development new media language and culture this major reference work is ideal for government officials policymakers scholars researchers academicians practitioners instructors and students Textual Ethos Studies, or: Locating Ethics ,2016-08-01 What is the relationship between texts and ethics Who decides the ethics of a text the writer or the reader What happens to ethics in texts that portray dreams or psychoses Is violence always inherently unethical In dealing with others is violence to both them and oneself ever completely avoidable Textual Ethos Studies does not attempt to provide definitive answers to these questions so much as to be a springboard to the further discussion of ethics in relation to specific texts The essays illustrate varying perspectives ranging from the philosophical to the psychoanalytical to the linguistic that can be used to localize how texts engage or invite an engagement with ethics Twenty scholars representing Asia Europe Israel North America and South Africa highlight the complex relationship between cultural context and ethics and between the ethical and the unethical Several essays deal with the study of atypical texts that represent different attitudes toward the violent the disordered the traumatized the psychotic and the sentimental in order to encourage or provoke further discussion of the relevance of these types of texts to ethics Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf,2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers Women's Rights in Democratizing States Denise M. Walsh,2010-11-15 This study offers an explanation for why advances in women s rights rarely occur in democratizing states Drawing on deliberative theory Denise Walsh argues that the leading institutions in the public sphere are highly gendered meaning women s ability to shape the content of public debate and put pressure on the state to advance their rights is limited She tests this claim by measuring the openness and inclusiveness of debate conditions in the public sphere during select time periods in Poland Chile and South Africa Through a series of structured focused comparisons the book confirms the importance of just debate for securing gender justice The comparisons also reveal that counter publics in the leading institutions in the public sphere are crucial for expanding debate conditions The book concludes with an analysis of counter publics and suggests an active role for the state in the public sphere
