Radical Choice And Moral Theory Through Communicative Argumentation To Phenomological Subjectivity:

The Radical Choice and Moral Theory Zhenming Zhai, 2012-12-06 In a crisp original style the author approaches the crucial question of moral theory the is ought problem via communicative argumentation Moving to the end of Habermas's conception of the communicative action he introduces the concept of radical choice as the key to the transition from the descriptive to the normative Phenomenological subjectivity of the intersubjective life world is being vindicated as the arch value of all derivative values or the first principle for all normative precepts With exceptional acumen and mastery of the philosophical argument the author a young native Chinese lately trained in a Western university delineates a fascinating route along which the philosophical question of justification raised in the analytic tradition can be answered on the basis of phenomenology A noteworthy contribution to the interplay between the Anglo American and Continental schools of philosophy Realism and Anti-Realism in the Philosophy of Science Robert S. The Enigma of Good and Evil: The Moral Sentiment in Literature Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2006-08-27 Striking toward peace and harmony the human being is ceaselessly torn apart in personal social national life by wars feuds inequities and intimate personal conflicts for which there seems to be no respite Does the human condition in interaction with others imply a constant adversity Or is this conflict owing to an interior or external factor of evil governing our attitudes and conduct toward the other person To what criteria should I refer for appreciation judgment direction concerning my attitudes and my actions as they bear on the well being of others At the roots of these questions lies human experience which ought to be appropriately clarified before entering into speculative abstractions of the ethical theories and precepts Literature which in its very gist dwells upon disentangling in multiple perspective the peripeteia of our life experience offers us a unique field of source material for moral and ethical investigations Literature brings preeminently to light the Moral Sentiment which pervades our life with others our existence tout court Being modulated through the course of our experiences the Moral Sentiment sustains the very sense of literature and of personal human life Tymieniecka Ontopoietic Expansion in Human Self-Interpretation-in-Existence

Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06 The societal web of life is underpinned by one concept that of Self and Other which emerged earlier in this century The concept has received a new formulation within the field of the phenomenology of life and the human creative condition finding a foothold a point of reference that radiates novel seminal insights It is nothing other than the creative fulcrum of human functioning The self individualisation of the human being as revealed in the present collection is existentially and vitally intertwined with that of the Other Tymieniecka's seminal idea of the trans actional is explored in this collection of essays which reveals a variety of significant perspectives weaving the cycles of the human universe of existence in an essential oscillation between the Self and the Other In this oscillation we throw out our existential tentacles trying to gain a living space with respect to each other all the while engaging in a mutual creative prompting and attunement Does the World Exist? Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2004 Does the World exist There would be no reason to resurrect this question of modernity from its historical oblivion were it not for the fact that recent evolution in science and technology impregnating culture makes us wonder about the nature of reality of the world we are living in and of our status as living beings within it Thus great metaphysical subjacent queries are forcefully revived calling for new investigations to proceed in the light of the innumerable novel insights of science This collection presents a wealth of material toward an elaboration of a new metaphysical groundwork of the onto-poiesis phenomenology of life sought to effect such investigations The classic postulates of the metaphysics of reality those of necessity and certainty here find a new formulation Away from sclerotized ontological and cognitive assumptions and congenial with the views of contemporary science the understanding of reality of our world of life and of ourselves within it is to be sought in the existential onto-poietic ciphering of life Tymieniecka

Logos of Phenomenology and Phenomenology of the Logos. Book Five Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2006-02-06 Having established in the onto-poiesis phenomenology of life the creative function of the human being as the fulcrum of our beingness in becoming let us now turn to investigate the creative logos In this collection the momentum of a gathering creative brainstorm leads to the vertiginous imaginative transformability of the creative logos as it ciphers through the aesthetic sense the elements of experience sensing feeling emotions forming in works of art thus lifting human experience into spirit and culture Papers by Ellen J Burns Mao Chen J C Couceiro Bueno David Brubaker Madalina Diaconu Michel Dion Antonio Dominguez Rey Elga Freiberga Jennifer Anna Gosetti Ferencei Brian Grassom Calley Hornbuckle Lawrence Kimmel Ljudmila Molodkina Chiedozie Okoro Rebecca M Painter Aleksandra Pawliszyn Osvaldo Rossi Jadwiga Smith Piero Trupia Patricia Trutty Coohill Anna Teresa Tymieniecka James Werner Raymond J Wilson III Logos of Phenomenology and

Phenomenology of the Logos. Book One Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2006-06-30 During its century long unfolding spreading in numerous directions Husserlian phenomenology while loosening inner articulations has nevertheless maintained a somewhat consistent profile As we see in this collection the numerous conceptions and theories advanced in the various phases of reinterpretations have remained identifiable with phenomenology What conveys this consistency in virtue of which innumerable types of inquiry scientific social artistic literary may consider themselves phenomenological Is it not the quintessence of the phenomenological quest namely our seeking to reach the very foundations of reality at all its constitutive levels by pursuing its logos Inquiring into the logos of the phenomenological quest we discover indeed all the main constitutive spheres of reality and of the human subject involved in it and concurrently the logos itself comes to light in the radiation of its force Tymieniecka Human Creation Between Reality and Illusion Anna-Teresa

Tymieniecka, 2006-06-30 Identifying quickly illusion with deception we tend to oppose it to the reality of life However investigating in this collection of essays illusion's functions in the Arts which thrives upon illusion and yet maintains its existential roots and meaningfulness in the real we might wonder about the nature of reality itself Does not illusion open the seeming confines of factual reality into horizons of imagination which transform it Does it not like art belong essentially to the makeup of human reality Papers by Lanfranco Aceti John Baldacchino Maria Avelina Cecilia Lafuente Jo Ann Circosta Madalina Diaconu Jennifer Anna Gosetti Ferencei Brian Grassom Marguerite Harris Andrew E Hershberger James Carlton Hughes Lawrence Kimmel Jung In Kwon Ruth Ronen Scott A Sherer Joanne Snow Smith Max Statkiewicz Patricia Trutty Coohill Daniel Unger James Werner Education in Human Creative Existential Planning Anna-Teresa

Tymieniecka, 2007-11-14 Education is the transmission of knowledge and skill from one generation to another and is vitally significant for the growth and unfolding of the living individual It manifests the quintessential ability of the logos to differentiate life in self individualization from within and in its spread through inter generative networks Without reaching the evolutive phase of the human creative condition the human being establishes a unique creative platform on which to conduct its co existence On this platform the progress of life is being transformed from a natural ontopoietic accomplishment into an autonomous achievement of the creative planning of the human mind Specifically human education focuses upon creative planning moving like a pendulum between nature and freedom The present collection of papers focuses on the underpinnings of the creative workings of the human strategies of reason Beauty's Appeal International Society for Phenomenology, Fine Arts, and Aesthetics. Conference, 2008 Beauty fulfils human existence As it registers in our aesthetic experience beauty enhances nature s enchantment around us and our inward experience lifting our soul toward moral elevation This collection of art explorations seeks the elemental ties of the Human Condition It endeavors to explain the relation of beauty and human existence and explores the various aspects of beauty
