Radical History Review: Volume 65 Rhr Collective,1996-04-26 Radical History Review presents innovative scholarship and commentary that looks critically at the past and its history from a non sectarian left perspective Radical History Review: Volume 69 ,1998-04-02 Radical History Review presents innovative scholarship and commentary that looks critically at the past and its history from a non sectarian left perspective The Praxis of Anthropology and History ,1996 Made in India S. Bhaskaran,2004-11-26 Made in India examines seemingly disparate and high profile events in postcolonial India that captured national and transnational diasporic interest since the 1990s The emergence of the Indian homosexual the new trans national heterosexual woman lesbian suicides marriage and kinship contracts in small towns around India and the simultaneous evolution of the modern homophobia and lesbian NGOs These events demonstrate the material political and cultural contexts within which postcolonial subjects negotiate their lived experiences within moments of decolonization and recolonization The Ethnographic Experiment Edvard Hviding,Cato Berg,2014-06-01 In 1908 Arthur Maurice Hocart and William Halse Rivers Rivers conducted fieldwork in the Solomon Islands and elsewhere in Island Melanesia that served as the turning point in the development of modern anthropology The work of these two anthropological pioneers on the small island of Simbo brought about the development of participant observation as a methodological hallmark of social anthropology This would have implications for Rivers later work in psychiatry and psychology and Hocart s work as a comparativist for which both would largely be remembered despite the novelty of that independent fieldwork on remote Pacific islands in the early years of the 20th Century Contributors to this volume who have all carried out fieldwork in those Melanesian locations where Hocart and Rivers worked give a critical examination of the research that took place in 1908 situating those efforts in the broadest possible contexts of colonial history imperialism the history of ideas and scholarly practice within and beyond anthropology HOW TO ACQUIRE BOOKS LISTED IN CURRENT CONTENTS ,1996 Decline and Revival in Higher Education Herbert I. London,2018-02-06 This is an analysis of higher education in the past half century a period of dramatic change and democratization But it is more than that The author has been a participant in the struggle to stem the decline in higher education as it moved from an emphasis on classical liberal values toward relativism and ideological extremism This volume reflects an awareness of what has been lost but sees hope for a revival of traditional values as technological change and awareness of failure forces institutions to examine their premise Herbert I London has provided here fuel for fundamental redirection in American college and university affairs Decline and Revival in Higher Education is uncompromising in its concerns but points the way toward a future linked to the best of the past The work follows the personal evolution of the author while at the same time describes the devolution of university standards in such institutions as Columbia Duke the University of California at Berkeley and New York University While seeing optimistic trends in oases of traditional programming that can serve as a counterweight to campus orthodoxies London argues that the dramatic transformation of the academy cannot be denied The social sciences and humanities in particular have become isolated from mainstream requirements in the nation London deals with concrete concerns such as the collapse of classic book programs in the contemporary curriculum the decline and even vigilante raids on opposition in campus publications the collapse of moral judgment in favor of pure relativism the transformation of many museums into a storage houses of debris and the confusion of coarse language with democratization These developments lead the author to write this book for if the culture wars are over the American people may be the losers The Politics of the Past in an Argentine Working-Class Neighbourhood Lindsay DuBois,2008-01-01 DuBois traces how state repression and community militancy are remembered in a neighborhood in Buenos Aires and how the tangled and ambiguous legacies of the past continued to shape ordinary people s lives years after the collapse of the military regime Confronting Capital Pauline Gardiner Barber,Belinda Leach,Winnie Lem,2012 This volume is an exploration of the ways in which political economy as a mode of analysis moves anthropology toward a vital politically engaged form of scholarship It advances the understanding of the struggles of ordinary people in the face of capitalist change In the current economic moment when such changes are tumultuous and the instabilities of capitalism are starkly revealed this book responds to the urgent need for theoretical and methodological approaches for understanding the forces that shape our contemporary world Through ethnographic investigations of the quotidian and through the thematic of politics history and livelihoods which distinguish Marxist political economy in the field of anthropology the authors here reveal the increasing complexity of everyday lives Using examples derived from fieldwork carried out across diverse geographical locations the authors pay particular attention to historical conditions shaping the peoples life trajectories In so doing the authors engage critically and with differing emphases with political economy and Marxism as a mode of inquiry This book illustrates the productive tension between observations emerging from the field and theoretical debates that is generated by anthropological ethnography Made in India? Dimple Suparna Bhaskaran,1998
