Radical Reflections:

Pedagogies in the Flesh Sarah Travis, Amelia M. Kraehe, Emily J. Hood, Tyson E. Lewis, 2017-09-04 This book presents a collection of vivid theoretically informed descriptions of flashpoints educational moments when the implicit sociocultural knowledge carried in the body becomes a salient feature of experience The flashpoints will ignite critical reflection and dialogue about the formation of the self identity and social inequality on the level of the preconscious body The Learning Portfolio John Zubizarreta, 2009-03-16 The learning portfolio is a powerful complement to traditional measures of student achievement and a widely diverse method of recording intellectual growth This second edition of this important book offers new samples of print and electronic learning portfolios An academic understanding of and rationale for learning portfolios and practical information that can be customized Offers a review of the value of reflective practice in student learning and how learning portfolios support assessment and collaboration Includes revised sample assignment sheets guidelines criteria evaluation rubrics and other material for developing print and electronic portfolios The Husserlian Mind Hanne Jacobs, 2021-07-20 Edmund Husserl 1859 1938 is widely regarded as the principal founder of phenomenology one of the most important movements in twentieth century philosophy His work inspired subsequent figures such as Martin Heidegger his most renowned pupil as well as Jean Paul Sartre and Maurice Merleau Ponty all of whom engaged with and developed his insights in significant ways His work on fundamental problems such as intentionality consciousness and subjectivity continues to animate philosophical research and argument The Husserlian Mind is an outstanding reference source to the full range of Husserl s philosophy Forty chapters by a team of international contributors are divided into seven clear parts covering the following areas major works phenomenological method phenomenology of consciousness epistemology ethics and social and political philosophy philosophy of science metaphysics Contained in these sections are chapters on many of the key aspects of Husserl s thought including intentionality transcendental philosophy reduction perception time self and subjectivity personhood logic psychology ontology and idealism Offering an unparalleled guide to the enormous range of his thought The Husserlian Mind is essential reading for students and scholars of Husserl phenomenology and the history of twentieth century philosophy It will also be of interest to those in related fields in the humanities social sciences and psychology and the cognitive sciences Burning Down The House Rosemary Marangoly George, 2019-04-09 This book views domesticity through multiple frames and surveys the rhetoric and practices of domestication in contemporary cultures It also examines the consequences and costs of homemaking in various geographic and textual locations Moral Triumph Zhibin Xie, 2023 This book examines Christianity in China by building a constructive theology for the distinctive realities of Chinese culture society and politics It proposes Christian public responsibility to identify the moral problems in Chinese public life and proposes a public face of Christianity in China theologically and ethically The Address of the Eye Vivian Sobchack, 2020-05-05 Cinema is a sensuous object but in our presence it becomes also a sensing sensual sense making subject Thus argues Vivian Sobchack as she challenges basic assumptions of current film theory that reduce film to an object of vision and the spectator to a victim of a deterministic cinematic apparatus Maintaining that these premises ignore the material and cultural historical situations of both the spectator and the film the author makes the radical proposal that the cinematic experience depends on two viewers viewing the spectator and the film each existing as both subject and object of vision Drawing on existential and semiotic phenomenology and particularly on the work of Merleau Ponty Sobchack shows how the film experience provides empirical insight into the reversible dialectical and signifying nature of that embodied vision we each live daily as both mine and another s In this attempt to account for cinematic intelligibility and signification the author explores the possibility of human choice and expressive freedom within the bounds of history and culture

Open Brad R. Braxton, 2023 This book boldly articulates an open theology progressive approaches that promote unorthodox theological reflection and the creation of inclusive communities Brad Braxton outlines Christianity s capacity to foster healing hope and restorative justice through embracing pluralism and radically inclusive love

The Culture of Autobiography Robert Folkenflik, 1993 Focusing primarily on the period from the eighteenth century to the present this interdisciplinary volume takes a fresh look at the institutions and practices of autobiography and self portraiture in Europe the United States and other cultures

Husserl John J. Drummond, Otfried Höffe, 2019-06-04 Edmund Husserl generally regarded as the founding figure of phenomenology exerted an enormous influence on the course of twentieth and twenty first century philosophy This volume collects and translates essays written by important German speaking commentators on Husserl ranging from his contemporaries to scholars of today to make available in English some of the best commentary on Husserl and the phenomenological project The essays focus on three problematics within phenomenology the nature and method of phenomenology intentionality with its attendant issues of temporality and subjectivity and intersubjectivity and culture Several essays also deal with Martin Heidegger s phenomenology although in a manner that reveals not only Heidegger s differences with Husserl but also his reliance on and indebtedness to Husserl s phenomenology Taken together the book shows the continuing influence of Husserl s thought demonstrating how such subsequent developments as existentialism hermeneutics and deconstruction were defined in part by how they assimilated and departed from Husserlian insights The course of what has come to be called continental philosophy cannot be described without reference to this assimilation and departure and among the many successor approaches phenomenology remains a viable avenue for contemporary thought In addition problems addressed by Husserl most notably intentionality consciousness the emotions and ethics are of central concern in contemporary non phenomenological philosophy and many contemporary thinkers have turned to Husserl for guidance The essays demonstrate how significant Husserl remains to contemporary philosophy across several traditions and several generations Includes essays by Rudolf Bernet Klaus Held Ludwig Landgrebe Dieter Lohmar Verena Mayer and Christopher Erhard Ullrich Melle Karl Mertens Ernst Wolfgang Orth Jan Pato ka Sonja

Rinofner Kreidl Karl Schuhmann and Elisabeth Str ker Handbook of Anthropology in Business Rita M Denny, Patricia L Sunderland, 2016-06-16 In recent years announcements of the birth of business anthropology have ricocheted around the globe The first major reference work on this field the Handbook of Anthropology in Business is a creative production of more than 60 international scholar practitioners working in universities and corporate settings from high tech to health care Offering broad coverage of theory and practice around the world chapters demonstrate the vibrant tensions and innovation that emerge in intersections between anthropology and business and between corporate worlds and the lives of individual scholar practitioners Breaking from standard attempts to define scholarly fields as products of fixed consensus the authors reveal an evolving mosaic of engagement and innovation offering a paradigm for understanding anthropology in business for years to come
