Chapter five God in revelation The Visitor, 1890 The Stars of Earth - new and selected poems Emily Grosholz, 2017-10-16 Emily Grosholz weaves elements of philosophy mathematics and the sciences into her experience of the social and natural world to produce wise and cosmopolitan poetry of high lyricism The Stars of Earth starts with new poems chronicling the months of a year lived and observed followed by selections from Grosholz s previous volumes in chronological order This rare treasury spans four decades of Grosholz s acclaimed poetry PRAISE FOR THE STARS OF EARTH Emily Grosholz is a poet of radiant intelligence patient lyricism and meticulous craft She has a gifted naturalist s regard for the living world and wherever she looks that world for its part offers her its poetry With a philosopher s wit and a mathematician s eye for beauty she can link geometry and physics to the apricot color of a robin s breast She also writes with great empathy for her subjects The Stars of Earth collects four decades of her elegant and excellent work We are lucky to have it Mark Jarman author of The Heronry Compressed on the page then wafting ever outward on wings of imagination fine poetry and fine theorems are first cousins Or more rarely in poems like Emily Grosholz s twins Timid and fluid rainbows Over the nacreous surfaces Of shells on peacock feathers And soap bubbles appear Whenever incident light Reflects off nether and upper Laminae of films one wave train Tagging after another Like a younger sister Read this book Marjorie Senechal author of Shaping Space I admire Emily Grosholz because of the sounds her poems make She is always experimenting even when the results seem effortless The cunning irregularities are what most compel the reader is never allowed to relax The general readers among us are admitted courteously to the civilizing company The heart not as a hackneyed valentine but as a living muscle is always present as pulse and passion The overwhelming sense these poems give is of affirmation Michael Schmidt author of New and Collected Poems The Stars of Earth is that rarest of books Emily Grosholz chronicles everything from love to loss childhood to marriage to parenthood She explores two continents and the minds of scientists artists friends long lost family And as befits a poet philosopher whose pursuits include the philosophy of mathematics she achieves potent mixes of the daily and the deep Nietzschean thought served up in a deli a toddler's first steps along the frail parabolas of love Melissa Balmain author of Walking in on People

Douglas MacArthur Arthur Herman, 2017-03-28 A new definitive life of an American icon the visionary general who led American forces through three wars and foresaw his nation's great geopolitical shift toward the Pacific Rim from the Pulitzer Prize finalist and bestselling author of Gandhi Churchill Douglas MacArthur was arguably the last American public figure to be worshipped unreservedly as a national hero the last military figure to conjure up the romantic stirrings once evoked by George Armstrong Custer and Robert E Lee But he was also one of America's most divisive figures a man whose entire career was steeped in controversy Was he an avatar or an anachronism a brilliant strategist or a vainglorious mountebank Drawing on a wealth of new sources Arthur Herman delivers a powerhouse biography that peels back the layers of myth both good and bad and exposes the marrow of the man beneath MacArthur's life spans the emergence of the United States Army as a global fighting force Its history is to a great degree his story The son of a Civil War hero he led American troops in three monumental conflicts World War I World War II and the Korean War Born four years after Little Bighorn he died just as American forces began deploying in Vietnam Herman's magisterial book spans the full arc of MacArthur's journey from his elevation to major general at thirty eight through his tenure as superintendent of West Point field marshal of the Philippines supreme ruler of postwar Japan and beyond More than any previous biographer Herman shows how MacArthur's strategic vision helped shape several decades of U S foreign policy Alone among his peers he foresaw the shift away from Europe becoming the prophet of America's destiny in the Pacific Rim Here too is a vivid portrait of a man whose grandiose vision of his own destiny won him enemies as well as acolytes MacArthur was one of the first military heroes to cultivate his own public persona the swashbuckling commander outfitted with Ray Ban sunglasses riding crop and corncob pipe Repeatedly spared from being killed in battle his soldiers nicknamed him Bullet Proof he had a strong sense of divine mission Mac was a man possessed in the words of one of his contemporaries of a supreme and almost mystical faith that he could not fail Yet when he did it was on an epic scale His willingness to defy both civilian and military authority was Herman shows a lifelong trait and it would become his undoing Tellingly MacArthur once observed Sometimes it is the order one disobeys that makes one famous To capture the life of such an outsize figure in one volume is no small achievement With Douglas MacArthur Arthur Herman has set a new standard for untangling the legacy of this American legend Praise for Douglas MacArthur This is revisionist history at its best and hopefully will reopen a debate about the judgment of history and MacArthur's place in history New York Journal of Books Unfailingly evocative close to an epic More than a biography it is a tale of a time in the past almost impossible to contemplate today as having taken place with MacArthur himself as a figure perhaps too remote to understand but all the more important to encounter The New Criterion With Douglas MacArthur American Warrior the prolific and talented historian Arthur Herman has delivered an expertly rendered compulsively readable account that does full justice to MacArthur's monumental achievements without slighting his equally monumental flaws Commentary English Mechanic and World of Science ,1878 Ebony ,1980-02 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Normal Instructor and Teachers World ,1908 Rationale Apocalypticum: Or, a Systematic Exposition of the Apocalypse.
