The Two Vocations; Or, The Sisters of Mercy at Home ... Vocations,1858 Paper Talk Brendan Frederick R. Edwards,2005 The pre 1960 history of print culture and libraries as they relate to the First Peoples of Canada has gone largely untold Paper Talk explores the relationship between the introduction of western print culture to Aboriginal peoples by missionaries the development of libraries in the Indian schools in the nineteenth century and the establishment of community accessible collections in the twentieth century While missionaries and the Department of Indian Affairs envisioned books and libraries as assimilative and civilizing tools Edwards shows that some Aboriginal peoples articulated western ideas of print culture literacy books and libraries as tools to assist their own cultural social and political aspirations This text also serves to illustrate that the contemporary struggle of Aboriginal peoples in Canada to establish libraries in communities has a historical basis and that many of the obstacles faced today are remarkably similar to those encountered by earlier generations ... Aboriginal Wooden Objects from Southern Florida Jesse Walter Fewkes,1928 Morphology and Mechanism of the Insect Thorax Robert E. Snodgrass,1928 Aboriginal People and Other Canadians Martin Thornton,Roy Todd,2001-12-06 In Aboriginal People and Other Canadians leading scholars discuss key issues in Native studies including social exclusion marginalization and identity justice equality and gender self help and empowerment in Aboriginal communities and in the cities and methodological and historiographical representations of social relationships This insightful analysis gauges whether the last decade of the twentieth century was a time of constructive transition and whether new patterns of relations emerged following challenges by First Nations to colonial legacy Published in English Smithsonian Miscellaneous Collections ,1928 The Monthly Literary Advertiser ,1851 Bent's Literary Advertiser and Register of Engravings, Works on the Fine Arts ,1851 Bibliotheca Americana ,1852 Defining Métis Timothy P. Foran,2017-05-10 Defining Métis examines categories used in the latter half of the nineteenth century by Catholic missionaries to describe Indigenous people in what is now northwestern Saskatchewan It argues that the construction and evolution of these categories reflected missionaries changing interests and agendas Defining Métis sheds light on the earliest phases of Catholic missionary work among Indigenous peoples in western and northern Canada It examines various interrelated aspects of this work including the beginnings of residential schooling transportation and communications and relations between the Church the Hudson's Bay Company and the federal government While focusing on the Oblates of Mary Immaculate and their central mission at le la Crosse this study illuminates broad processes that informed Catholic missionary perceptions and impelled their evolution over a fifty three year period In particular this study illuminates processes that shaped Oblate conceptions of sauvage and métis It does this through a qualitative analysis of documents that were produced within the Oblates institutional apparatus official correspondence mission journals registers and published reports Foran challenges the orthodox notion that Oblate commentators simply discovered and described a singular empirically existing and readily identifiable M tis population Rather he contends that Oblates played an important role in the conceptual production of les m tis
