Religion, Ethnicity and Xenophobia in the Bible Brian Rainey, 2018-11-21 Religion Ethnicity and Xenophobia in the Bible looks at some of the Bible's most hostile and violent anti foreigner texts and raises critical questions about how students of the Bible and ancient Near East should grapple with ethnicity and foreignness conceptually hermeneutically and theologically The author uses insights from social psychology cognitive psychology anthropology sociology and ethnic studies to develop his own perspective on ethnicity and foreignness Starting with legends about Mesopotamian kings from the third millennium BCE then navigating the Deuteronomistic and Holiness traditions of the Hebrew Bible and finally turning to Deuterocanonicals and the Apostle Paul the book assesses the diverse and often inconsistent portrayals of foreigners in these ancient texts This examination of the negative portrayal of foreigners in biblical and Mesopotamian texts also leads to a broader discussion about how to theorize ethnicity in biblical studies ancient studies and the humanities This volume will be invaluable to students of ethnicity and society in the Bible at all levels

Ethnicity and Religion Joseph Ruane, Jennifer Todd, 2014-06-11 Religion has regained political prominence in the twenty first century and not least for the manner in which it intersects with ethnicity Many ethnic conflicts have a strong religious dimension and religion appears as a powerful force for mobilisation solidarity and violence Religion and ethnicity can each act as a powerful base of identity group formation and communal conflict They can also overlap with ethnic and religious boundaries coinciding partially or completely internally nested or intersecting This volume maps the different forms of intersection cases where religion is prioritised in private life and ethnicity in public where each coexists in tension in political life and where the distinctions reinforce each other with dynamic effects It maps the different patterns with case studies and comparisons from Ireland Northern Ireland France Zimbabwe Ghana and Malaysia It shows how ordinary people construct their solidarities and identities using both ethnic and religious resources This opens up analysis of the socially transformative as well as politically antagonistic potential of religion in situations of ethnic division This book was published as a special issue of Ethnopolitics Religion, Ethnicity and Social Change L. Fawcett, 2000-03-02 In Religion Ethnicity and Social Change the author argues that the recent focus on religious fundamentalism in ethnic conflict has obscured the ambiguous role of mainstream Western religion The book examines the relationship between the religious and secular spheres at a time of rapid transition in South Africa and Northern Ireland Ethnicity, Race, Religion Katherine M. Hockey, David G. Horrell, 2018-06-28 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched Religion ethnicity and race are facets of human identity that have become increasingly contested in the study of the Bible largely due to the modern discipline of biblical studies having developed in the context of Western Europe concurrent with the emergence of various racial and imperial ideologies The essays in this volume address Western domination by focusing on historical facets of ethnicity and race in antiquity the identities of Jews and Christians and the critique of scholarly ideologies and racial assumptions which have shaped this branch of study The contributors critique various Western European and North American contexts and bring fresh perspectives from other global contexts providing insights into how biblical studies can escape its enmeshment in often racist notions of ethnicity race empire nationhood and religion Covering issues ranging from translation and racial stereotyping to analysing the significance of race in Genesis and the problems of an imperialist perspective this volume is vital not only for biblical scholars but those invested in Christian Jewish and Muslim identity Religion, Ethnicity, and Identity in Ancient Galilee Jürgen Zangenberg, Harold W. Attridge, Dale B. Martin, 2007 What is a Galilean What were the criteria of defining a person as a Galilean archaeologically or with respect to literary sources such as Josephus or the rabbis What role did religion play in the process of identity formation Twenty two articles based on papers read at conferences at Cambridge Wuppertal and Yale by experts from 7 countries shed light on a complex region the pivotal geographic and cultural context of both earliest Christianity and rabbinic Judaism In these papers ancient Galilee emerges as a dynamic region of continuous change in which religion ethnicity and identity were not static monoliths but had to be negotiated in the context of a multiform environment subject to different influences

Preserving Ethnicity Through Religion in America Pyong Gap Min, 2010-04-05 Preserving ethnicity through religion in America explores the factors that may lead to greater success in ethnic preservation Pyong Gap Min compares Indian Americans and Korean Americans two of the most significant ethnic groups in New York and examines the different ways in which they preserve their ethnicity through their faith Religion, Ethnicity and Transnational Migration between West Africa and Europe, 2014-05-15 Religion Ethnicity and Transnational Migration between West Africa and Europe focuses on the West African migrants presence in Europe and the way they negotiate religion and ethnicity in a new context

Special attention is given to the diversity of religious background of the migrants and to exploration of interreligious especially Christian Muslim relations These dimensions of transnational migration have not been widely researched yet After introducing the new African religious diaspora the situation of the Senegalese Ghanaian and Fulbe migrants both Christian and Muslim in France Spain the Netherlands Germany and Switzerland is analysed The impact the migrants make on their communities of origin in Africa is also taken into account Contributors are Afe Adogame Martha Frederiks Stanis aw Grod Tilmann Heil Monika Salzbrunn Jos C M van Santen Miriam Schader Etienne Smith and Gina Gertrud Smith This Side of Heaven Robert J.
