Religion Of Hands Prose Poems And Flash Fictions:

The Religion of Hands Ray Gonzalez, 2005 A man doesn't sleep with the moon He sleeps with his hunger gathers bowls of avocados and wipes his lips with his sins The Religion of Hands does not foster sleep Look quickly and you will catch the hint of a fox streaking in front of your car's headlights at night Look more carefully out your bedroom window and you may see your life going by lost loved ones waving hello Who were you when the stars were misinterpreted as the fingertips of God Ray Gonzalez blends symbolic play with lyrical beauty as he works from a vast and complex palette to infuse popular culture with myth The Religion of Hands is imbued with magic realism a suffocating dream of tamales mysterious reptilian allusions a man who finds God walking down the stairs to hand him an old tattered phonebook from the year he was born It offers strange prophecies A steady vegetation will grow across the empire as more homeboys are killed in drive-bys Microscopic scratches on an old vinyl record will form a message discovered in twenty more years when the album is bought at a garage sale And in 14 flash fictions it tells of a tiny old man kept in a glass jar an accordion stored in an old family trunk tales of sharks and bandits The religion of hands has its own unspoken sacraments The fingers take over teaching whoever holds the moment that the rapid weight of the open hands is a dangerous way to live Seamlessly effortlessly multi-dexterously Ray Gonzalez spins words that speak our very dreams

Camino del Sol Rigoberto González, 2022-09-20 Since 1994 the Camino del Sol series has been one of the premier vehicles for Latina/o literary voices Launched under the auspices of Chicana/o luminary Ray Gonzalez it quickly established itself in both the Latino community and the publishing world as it garnered awards for its outstanding writing. Featuring both established writers and first-time authors, Camino del Sol has published poetry and prose that convey something about the Latino experience: works that tap into universal truths through a distinct cultural lens. This volume celebrates fifteen years of books by bringing together some of the series' best work, such as poetry from Francisco X Alarcón, fiction from Christine Granados, and nonfiction from Luis Alberto Urrea. These voices echo the entire spectrum of Latino writing, from Chicana to Puerto Rican to Brazilian American, and take in themes ranging from migration to gender. Awards bestowed upon Camino del Sol titles include the PEN Beyond Margins Award to Richard Blanco's Directions to the Beach, the Dead Before Columbus Foundation American Book Awards to Diana García's When Living Was a Labor Camp, and Luis Alberto Urrea's Nobody's Son. International Latino Book Awards to Pat Mora's Adobe Odes and Kathleen Alcalá's The Desert Remembers My Name, the Premio Aztlán literary prize to Sergio Troncoso's The Last Tortilla, and the PEN Oakland Josephine Miles National Literary Award to Kathleen de Azevedo's Samba Dreamers. All of these works are represented in this outstanding collection. In a short span of time, Camino del Sol has cultivated an admirable and sizeable list of distinguished contemporary authors and even garnered the first National Book Critics Circle Award for a Chicana, for Juan Felipe Herrera's Half of the World in Light. Camino del Sol: Fifteen Years of Latino and Latin American Writing is a benchmark for the series and a wonderful introduction to the world of Latino literature.

Chicano and Chicana Literature Charles M. Tatum, 2022-07-26 The literary culture of the Spanish-speaking Southwest has its origins in a harsh frontier environment marked by episodes of intense cultural conflict, and much of the literature seeks to capture the epic experiences of conquest and settlement. The Chicano literary canon has evolved rapidly over four centuries to become one of the most dynamic, growing, and vital parts of what we know as contemporary U.S. literature. In this comprehensive examination of Chicano and Chicana literature, Charles M. Tatum brings a new and refreshing perspective to the ethnic identity of Mexican Americans. From the earliest sixteenth-century chronicles of the Spanish Period to the poetry and narrative fiction of the second half of the nineteenth century and the first half of the twentieth century, and then to the flowering of all literary genres in the post-Chicano Movement years, Chicano literature amply reflects the hopes and aspirations as well as the frustrations and disillusionments of an often marginalized population. Exploring the work of Rudolfo Anaya, Sandra Cisneros, Luis Alberto Urrea, and many more, Tatum examines the important social, historical, and cultural contexts in which the writing evolved, paying special attention to the Chicano Movement and the flourishing of literary texts during the 1960s and early 1970s. Chapters provide an overview of the most important theoretical and critical approaches employed by scholars over the past forty years and survey the major trends and themes in contemporary autobiography, memoir, fiction, and poetry. The most complete and up-to-date introduction to Chicana literature available, this book will be an ideal reference for scholars of Hispanic and American literature. Discussion questions and suggested reading included at the end of each chapter are especially suited for classroom use. MultiCultural Review
