Teaching Tenets of Faith in Worship James Akerson, 2019-04-02 Western culture no longer has a broad Christian understanding In fact much of what American media dishes out is pantheistic or anti religious Sociological research indicates that a multitude of beliefs have crept into Christian understandings of faith This situation is not new As early as the fifteenth century Erasmus asserted that the greatest concern of his time was that Christians were most often rank heathens when it came to their orthodoxy It is also apparent that attendance at Sunday school Vacation Bible School and other gatherings has fallen at a great rate The author believes providing Christian education in the context of worship is therefore the best opportunity for reaching believers with historical elements of faith A twenty four part lectionary based catechetical curriculum is provided for worship With it congregations can dwell in a sermon series that is surrounded by supportive full bodied worship

Innovative Approaches to Religious Education Bernhard Grümme,Manfred L. Pirner,2025-07-16 A superb collection of contemporary research on German language religious education Professor Julian Stern Bishop Grosseteste University Lincoln UK Although specific contexts differ between and within countries the issues and challenges regarding religious education in schools are essentially the same worldwide It is therefore very valuable and relevant that this volume makes the rich insights and approaches to religious education developed and brought together by German scholars available to a wider audience Professor Gerdien Bertram Troost Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam The Netherlands This volume can function as a toolkit for teachers aiming to equip the younger generations with skills and competences needed in navigating their paths to good life Professor Arniika Kuusisto Faculty of Educational Sciences University of Helsinki Finland These reflections speak directly to the difficulties of teaching religious education both in Germany and internationally Professor Robyn Horner School of Theology Australian Catholic University

Charting the Faith of Australians Philip Hughes,2016-05 The last 50 years have seen more rapid change than at any time in human history Changes in technology have changed every aspect of life from contraception to computation from communication to community formation These changes have affected the ways in which Australians have sought meaning in their lives from the fulfilment of duty to the maximisation of subjective wellbeing They have affected deeply the role that religion has played in life with the focus moving from the preservation of tradition to personal spirituality Over the past 30 years the Christian Research Association has charted these changes It has done so through the examination of census and survey data and through interviews with thousands of individuals It has examined these changes in youth culture and rural culture and has explored the impact of migration and the rise of the Pentecostal and charismatic movements It has suggested ways in which churches and schools might respond to these changes Part 1 of this book tells the story of these changes and how the Christian Research Association has charted them Part 2 contains contributions from various researchers discussing how the Christian Research Association has served the churches Part 3 explores some extensions of and parallels to the work of the Christian Research Association in relation to religious institutions migration and other research The story told in this book is a personal story for Dr Philip Hughes the senior research officer of the Christian Research Association from 1985 to 2016 But it is also a story of global significance as Christian and other religious institutions grapple with changes to their place in society and their roles in changing perceptions of life
