Religion Learning And Science In The Abbasid Period:

Religion, Learning and Science in the 'Abbasid Period M. J. L. Young, J. D. Latham, R. B. Serjeant, 2006-11-02 The five centuries of the Abbasid period eighth to thirteenth centuries AD were the golden age of Arabic literature They saw the appearance not only of poetry and belles lettres which are covered in a previous volume but also of an extensive body of writings concerned with subjects ranging from theology and law to history and the natural sciences This volume of The Cambridge History of Arabic Literature surveys the most important of these writings including the literature of Sunnism and Shi'ism Arabic philosophy Sufism Islamic law grammar lexicography administration historiography mathematics astronomy astrology geography alchemy and medicine It contains separate chapters on six of the greatest scholars of the Middle Ages as well as on the Arabic literature of the Christians and Jews who lived under the rule of the Abbasid caliphate and includes a study of one of the great cultural movements of the period the translations from Greek into Arabic Spiritual Purification in Islam Gavin Picken, 2011-03-21 Purification of the soul is a principle that is central to understanding Islamic spirituality but despite this relatively little has been written explicitly in the Islamic tradition regarding this discrete method of spiritual purification This book examines the work of a scholar of this discipline al-Harith al-Muhasibi who lived and worked during the classical Islamic period under the Abbasids Although al-Muhasibi was well known for his skills in many disciplines including the Qur'anic Prophetic narration and scholastic theology it is his mastery in the field of Islamic spirituality and moral psychology for which he is best remembered Assessing the extent to which the political social and economic factors played a part in his life and work Gavin Picken provides a comprehensive overview of his work and its great significance in the development of Islamic spirituality Reconstructing his life in chronological order and providing the most comprehensive appraisal of his works to date it explores a facet of al-Muhasibi's teaching which as yet has not been studied namely his understanding concept and methodology regarding the purification of the soul within the Islamic paradigm As such it will be of great interest not only to researchers and students of Sufism but also to scholars of comparative spirituality and mysticism

Al-Mu'ayyad al-Shirāzī and Fatimid Da'wa Poetry Tahera Qutbuddin, 2005-05-01 Al-Mu'ayyad al-Shirāzī was a medieval Arabic Islamic scholar and poet committed to the Fatimid religious political ideology Chief missionary for their Caliph Imams he founded the dynamic tradition of Fatimid da'wa religious mission poetry that flourished after him for a thousand years through the succeeding ayyib da'wa and continues to thrive today This study examines the manner in which al-Mu'ayyad's mission informed the aesthetic rules motifs structures genres motives addressees and aspirations of his poetry It analyzes the characteristics of al-Mu'ayyad's verse that render it distinctive above all its use of a unique form of esoteric twil-based religious symbolism metaphor in fact as manifestation where what appears to be metaphor is the theological reality of the Imam This book features a large number of original translations Entre mémoire et pouvoir Antoine Borrut, 2010-11-11 Cet ouvrage entend démontrer qu'une solide culture de l'écriture de l'histoire existait dans la Syrie du 2^e au 8^e siècle et propose de nouvelles approches méthodologiques afin d'offrir un accès vers cette historiographie perdue tiraillée entre mémoire et oubli. En étudiant la fabrication des héros omeyyades ou des mythes d'origines abbassides, cette étude s'efforce de mettre au jour les significations successives données à l'histoire syrienne et d'identifier les différentes strates d'écritures et de réécritures de l'histoire au cours des premiers siècles de l'islam. L'ensemble de ces éléments conduit à proposer une histoire du sens de l'espace syrien articulée autour de la thématique du pouvoir qui donne une profonde cohérence à la période par-delà la césure dynastique de 132-750. This book intends to demonstrate that a robust culture of historical writing existed in 2nd-8th century Syria and to offer new methodological approaches to access this now lost history torn between memory and oblivion. By studying the making of Umayyad heroes or Abbasid origins myths, this study aims to reveal the successive meanings granted to Syrian history and to identify the various layers of historical writing and rewriting during the first centuries of Islam. Taken together, these elements make possible a history of the meaning of the very space of Syria articulated around power and its expression, which grants a clear coherence to the period extending well beyond the dynastic caesura of 132-750.

A Companion to Muslim Cultures Aryn Sajoo, 2011-11-22. I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies. Culture shapes every aspect of the relationship between God and the believer in Islam as well as among believers and with those beyond the fold. Fasts, prayers and pilgrimages are attuned to social rhythms old and new, no less than the designs of mosques and public gardens, the making of religious music and ways of thinking about technology and wellbeing. Ancient deserts and modern urban landscapes may echo with the same call for transcendence but in voices that emerge from very different everyday realities. Scripture itself as the Prophet Muhammad knew it is ever seen through a cultural lens, both language and what it communicates are intimately tied to context. And the cosmopolitanism that runs through Muslim history from the outset recalls T. S. Eliot's remark that culture is that which makes life worth living. It frames how the deepest religious values are understood and practiced, from modesty in adornment and solidarity with the underprivileged to integrity and accountability in political life. Muslims have never been content with a passive separation of faith from their daily lives, whether public or private. What are the implications of this holistic view in a diverse world of Muslims and non-Muslims? How do core ethical values interface with the particulars of local cultures in all their complexity, especially when it comes to matters like the status of women and the scope of individual religious freedom? The answers, at a time when secular and Muslim identities appear to be locked in conflict, are explored in this Companion by some of today's finest scholars.

Al-Ghazālī's Unspeakable Doctrine of the Soul Timothy J. Gianotti, 2001-08-16. This text marks a radical rethinking of the soul and the afterlife in the writings of al-Ghazālī d. 505/1111, particularly within his magnum opus Reviving Religious Knowledge (Ihyā' ul-māl dīn). Attending closely to variations of genre and discourse mode within his works, it attempts to resolve some of the major ambiguities that have vexed al-Ghazālī's readers for nearly nine hundred years. Beginning with his theory of multi-level, multi-genre writing and working through his theological, philosophical and mystical positions on the soul's true nature, the study culminates in an exploration of al Ghazal's mystical psycho cosmology where some startling conclusions are drawn regarding his most intimate thoughts on the secrets of the soul and the Hereafter Meticulously researched and yet engagingly written this study speaks to both the specialist and the amateur intellectual historian

Studies in the Medieval History of the Yemen and South Arabia G. Rex Smith, 2024-12-11 This volume brings together a set of widely scattered articles spanning some thirty years of research on early and medieval Yemen and South Arabia They cover the political and military history of the area from the beginning of Islam to the Ottoman conquest in 1517 with the establishment of the Zaydis and then the Ayyubids as key events Particular attention is given to the 13th century and questions of trade and historical geography The work of the traveller Ibn al Mujawir the subject of a series of studies also provides much information on the society and beliefs of the period including magic and sexual practices
