Religious Discrimination United States Commission on Civil Rights, 1980 Sponsored by the United States Commission on Civil Rights Washington D C April 9 10 1979 Religious Discrimination United States Commission on Civil Rights, Notes See Notes, 2001-12-01 The United States Commission on Civil Rights sponsored a consultation on Religious Discrimination A Neglected Issue on April 9 10 1979 in Washington D C The focus of the consultation was on the civil rights issues rather than the civil liberties issue involved in religious discrimination As was noted in the briefing paper for this consultation Religious civil liberties issues cluster around the first amendment right to individual freedom of religion including such issues as the right to hold or not to hold a religious faith and the prohibition against the establishment of a religion by the government Religious civil rights on the other hand cluster around the equal protection and due process clauses of the 14th amendment which prohibit discrimination against individuals which deny them equal protection of the laws equality of status under the law equal treatment in the administration of justice and equality of opportunity and access to employment education housing public services and facilities and public accommodations because of their exercise of their right to religious freedom

Religious Discrimination United States Commission on Civil Rights, 1980 Religious Discrimination and Cultural Context Kerry O'Halloran, 2017-11-23 Generations of festering culture wars compounded by actual wars in predominantly Muslim countries the terrorism of Isis and the ongoing migrant crisis have all combined to make religious discrimination the most pressing challenge now facing many governments For the leading common law nations with their shared Christian cultural heritage balanced by a growing secularism the threat presented by this toxic mix has the potential to destabilise civil society This book suggests that the instances of religious discrimination as currently legally defined are constrained by that cultural context exacerbated by a policy of multiculturalism and in practice conflated with racial ethnic or other forms of discrimination Kerry O'Halloran argues that many culture war issues such as those that surround the pro choice pro life debate and the rights of the LGBT community can be viewed as rooted in the same Christian morality that underpins the law relating to religious discrimination Religious Discrimination, 1980 The State of Civil Rights United States Commission on Civil Rights, 1979 Civil Rights Issues of Euro-ethnic Americans in the United States United States Commission on Civil Rights, 1979 Catalog of Publications, 1999 U.S. Commission on Civil Rights Fiscal Year 1981 Authorization United States.
