Religious Education in German Schools Ernst Christian Helmreich, 1959 No detailed description available for Religious Education in German Schools Innovative Approaches to Religious Education Manfred L. Pirner, Thomas Schlag, Silke Leonhard, Ilona Nord, Karlo Meyer, Bernhard Grümme, Hans Mendl, Norbert Brieden, Hanna Roose, Claudia Gärtner, Rita Burrichter, Martin Rothgangel, Michael Domsgen, Henrik Simojoki, Katrin Bederna, Stefan Altmeyer, Wolfhard Schweiker, Ulrike Witten, David Käbisch, Jan Woppowa, Elisabeth Naurath, Jan-Hendrik Herbst, Georg Bucher, 2025 Global Perspectives on Catholic Religious Education in Schools Michael T. Buchanan, Adrian-Mario Gellel, 2019-03-01 This book shares global perspectives on Catholic religious education in schools chiefly focusing on educational and curriculum issues that take into account the theology and the pedagogy which support learning in connection with Catholic religious education Further it offers insights into the distinctive contribution that Catholic religious education makes to religious education and education in general across diverse schooling contexts Bringing together insights from leading scholars and experts on Catholic religious education around the globe the book offers an essential reference guide for all those involved in researching planning and designing curricula for Catholic religious education as well as developing related theories in the field Religious Education in a Mediatized World Ilona Nord, Hanna Zipernovszky, 2017-05-10 In religious education digitization and mediatization processes result in the transformation of conventional media formats This leads to the development of new media formats which in turn necessitates a redefinition of the relationship between religious education and the media Keeping this in mind this volume first examines the importance of media for specific theological disciplines and then discusses current media pedagogical and media didactic approaches Later in the book the authors develop didactic perspectives on various methods these include internet based archive work and the use of digital teaching materials They also deal with current questions regarding religious education such as inclusion and cyber bullying etc Finally they identify some of the main didactic challenges for religious instruction in a mediatized world This volume is a plea for a wider understanding of education and is based in part on a German Swedish teaching and research cooperation Following this example it focuses on a future oriented networking of plural forms of education This resource is designed for students of theology and religious sciences as well as for religious education teachers The Politics of Religion in Soviet-occupied Germany Sean Philip Brennan, 2011-01-01 This book analyzes the relationship between Soviet military authorities the East German Communists and the leadership of the Protestant and Catholic Churches in the Soviet zone of Germany especially its central province of Berlin Brandenburg It discusses how relations worsened between communist and church authorities as the Soviet zone was rebuilt as a German state on the Stalinist model from 1945 to 1949 Religious Schools in Europe Marcel Maussen, Floris Vermeulen, Michael Merry, Veit Bader, 2017-10-02 The European Convention on Human Rights guarantees freedom of education including the opportunities to create and operate faith based schools However as European societies become more religiously diverse and less religious at the same time the role of faith based schools is increasingly being contested Serious tensions have emerged between those who ardently support religious schools in their various forms and those who oppose them Given that faith based schools enjoy basic constitutional guarantees in Europe the controversy around them often surrounds issues of public financing degrees of organisational and pedagogical autonomy and educational practices and management This volume is about the controversies surrounding religious schools in a number of Western European countries The introductory chapter briefly analyses the structural pressures that affect the position of religious schools outlining the relevant institutional arrangements in countries such as Denmark Germany France Ireland the Netherlands and Scotland The following chapters provide a detailed analysis of the discussions and controversies surrounding faith based schools in each country Finally the two concluding chapters aim to provide a bigger comparative picture with regard to these debates about religious education in liberal democratic states and culturally pluralist societies This book was originally published as a special issue of Comparative Education Religion and Politics in the United States and Germany Dagmar Pruin, Rolf Schieder, Johannes Zachhuber, 2007 Current interest in the relation of religion and politics is intense in both the US and Germany Yet observers are regularly struck by fundamental divergences between approaches to and conceptualisations of this field on either side of the Atlantic This volume containing contributions by German and US authors from various disciplinary backgrounds seeks to offer some clarification by elucidating traditional and newly emerging differences between but also common challenges to these societies in issues such as pluralism of values religious education the role of religious minorities the relation of religion and elite formation and religious aspects of voting patterns

Religion in Secular Education Cathy Byrne, 2014-01-09 Cathy Byrne presents the secular principle as a guiding compass for religion in government schools in plural democracies Using in depth case studies historical and contextual research from Australia and comparisons with other developed nations Religion in Secular Education provides a comprehensive at times confronting analysis of the ideologies policies pedagogies and practices for state school religion In the context of rising demands for students to develop intercultural competence and interreligious literacy and alongside increasing Christian evangelism in the public arena this book highlights risks and implications as education develops religious identity in individual children and in nation states Byrne proposes a best practice framework for nations attempting to navigate towards socially inclusive outcomes and critical thinking in religions education policy Encountering Religious Pluralism in School and Society Thorsten Knauth, The Myth about Global Civil Society D. Tepe, 2011-12-02 In order to help the understanding of international campaigning activities of Non Governmental Organisations Tepe analyses the domestic politics of the International Campaign to Ban Landmines and provides a theoretical framework through which to access these
