Palmer, 2011-03-15 Recent events from strife in Tibet and the rapid growth of Christianity in China to the spectacular expansion of Chinese Buddhist organizations around the globe vividly demonstrate that one cannot understand the modern Chinese world without attending closely to the question of religion The Religious Question in Modern China highlights parallels and contrasts between historical events political regimes and cultural movements to explore how religion has challenged and responded to secular Chinese modernity from 1898 to the present Vincent Goossaert and David A Palmer piece together the puzzle of religion in China not by looking separately at different religions in different contexts but by writing a unified story of how religion has shaped and in turn been shaped by modern Chinese society From Chinese medicine and the martial arts to communal temple cults and revivalist redemptive societies the authors demonstrate that from the nineteenth century onward as the Chinese state shifted the religious landscape consistently resurfaced in a bewildering variety of old and new forms The Religious Question in Modern China integrates historical anthropological and sociological perspectives in a comprehensive overview of China's religious history that is certain to become an indispensable reference for specialists and students alike

Buddhism In Late Ch'ing Political Thought Sin-wai Chan, 2019-03-05 This book is a revised version of the doctoral thesis I presented to the School of Oriental and African Studies University of London in 1977 It is basically an attempt to study the religious cultural and political significance of Buddhism in late Ch'ing intellectual thought through an examination of the writings of a few influential figures like Liang Ch'i-ch'ao Kang Yu-wei Chang Ping-lin and particularly T'an Ssu-t'ung My findings reveal that Buddhism came to play a part in these reformers' thought as a result of several factors the rekindled interest in Buddhism brought about through the efforts of laymen such as Yang Wen-hui the need to find a counter balance to Christianity the search for a new unifying ideology for China as Confucianism crumbled before the challenge from the West and the immense potentiality of Buddhism to cater for the intellectuals' diverse cultural and political purposes The masterpiece of T'an Ssu-t'ung entitled An Exposition of Benevolence Jen hsiieh is chosen here to exemplify the use of Buddhism in late Ch'ing political thought Buddhism not only served as the all embracing school of his eclectic synthesis it also formed the foundation of the major concepts in the treatise and was closely related to his radical thinking World Christian Trends Ad30-ad2200 (hb) , 2001 Contemporary China - An Introduction Michael Dillon, 2008-11-19 This book presents an up to date and clear guide to the often bewildering changes which have taken place in China in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries
