Religious And Anti Religious Thought In Russia:

Religious and Anti-religious Thought in Russia George Louis Kline,1968 Religious and Anti-religious Thought in Russia George Louis Kline,1968 Religion and Politics in Russia: A Reader Marjorie Mandelstam Balzer,2015-01-28 Russia is not only vast it is also culturally diverse the core of an empire that spanned Eurasia In addition to the majority Russian Orthodox and various other Christian groups the Russian Federation includes large communities of Muslims Jews Buddhists and members of other religious groups some with ancient historical roots All are in a state of ferment and securing formal state recognition for specific communities is often daunting This collection provides entry into the diversity of Russia s religious communities Marjorie Mandelstam Balzer s introduction to the volume illuminates major political social and cultural anthropological trends The book is organized by religious tradition or identity with further thematic perspectives on each set of readings The authors include ethnologists sociologists political analysts and religious leaders from many regions of the Federation They analyze the changing dynamics of religion and politics within each community and in the context of the current drive to recentralize both political and religious authority in Moscow Topical coverage extends from reassertions of Russian Orthodoxy to activities of Christian and Muslim missionaries to the revival of many other religions including indigenous shamanic ones Religion and Secular Modernity in Russian Christianity, Judaism, and Atheism Ana Siljak,2024-11-15 Religion and Secular Modernity in Russian Christianity Judaism and Atheism is a multifaceted account of the engagement between religion and the secular in Russia s Christian Jewish and atheist traditions Ana Siljak brings together an interdisciplinary group of leading scholars to present unique perspectives on the secularization dynamic in Russia and the Soviet Union telling stories about theologians sects churches poets and artists From the Jewish Christian priest Alexander Men to the cross dressing poet Zinaida Gippius to the Soviet promoter of Yiddish theater Solomon Mikhoels Religion and Secular Modernity in Russian Christianity Judaism and Atheism gives a voice to a variety of actors who have grappled with the possibilities of faith and unbelief in an industrialized modern and seemingly secular world Now more than ever as one narrative of Russia s religious history dominates official Russian accounts alternative perspectives of the relationship between Russian religion and secularism should be highlighted and emphasized Political Ideologies in Contemporary Russia Elena Chebankova,2020-11-18 In the realm of political discourse there is a distinct gap in understanding between Russia and the West To an outsider the ideas that animate the actions of Russia s ruling elite opposition and civil society from the motivations driving Russia s political actors to the class structure and international and domestic constraints that shape Russia s political thinking remain shrouded in mystery Contrary to the view that a bleak discursive uniformity reigns in Vladimir Putin s Russia Political Ideologies in Contemporary Russia shows that the country is engaging in serious theoretical debates across a wide spectrum of modern ideologies including liberalism nationalism feminism and multiculturalism Elena Chebankova argues that the nation is fragmented and the state seeks to balance the various ideological movements to ensure that none dominates She shows that each of the main ideological trends is far from uniform but the major opposition is between liberalism and traditionalism The pluralistic picture she describes contests many current portrayals of Russia as an authoritarian or even totalitarian state Offering an alternative to the Western lens through which to view global politics Political Ideologies in Contemporary Russia is a major contribution to our understanding of this world power Philosophical Sovietology Helmut Dahm,J.E. Blakeley,George L. Kline,2012-12-06

On February 24 25 1956 in a closed session of the 20th Congress of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union Nikita S Khrushchev made his now famous speech on the crimes of the Stalin era That speech marked a break with the past and it marked the end of what J M Bochenski dubbed the dead period of Soviet philosophy Soviet philosophy changed abruptly after 1956 especially in the area of dialectical materialism Yet most philosophers in the West neither noticed nor cared For them the resurrection of Soviet philosophy even if believable was of little interest The reasons for the lack of belief and interest were multiple Soviet philosophy had been dull for so long that subtle differences made little difference The Cold War was in a frigid period and reinforced the attitude of avoiding anything Soviet Phenomenology and existentialism were booming in Europe and analytic philosophy was king on the Anglo American philosophical scene Moreover not many philosophers in the West knew or could read Russian or were motivated to learn it to be able to read Soviet philosophical works The launching of Sputnik awakened the West from its self complacent slumbers Academic interest in the Soviet Union grew The Russian Cosmists George M. Young,2012-08-16 The ideas of the Cosmists have in recent decades been rediscovered and embraced by many Russian intellectuals Here Young offers a dynamic and wide ranging examination of the lives and ideas of the Russian Cosmists

The Classical Marxist Critiques of Religion: Marx, Engels, Lenin, Kautsky D.B. McKown,2012-12-06 In view of the enormous number of works on Marxism in general and in light of the many books and articles touching on the relationship of Marxism to religion in particular it may fairly be asked why yet another such work should be produced My reply is that in eliciting answers to the kinds of questions posed by the methodology I have used it was necessary to go to the primary sources almost exclusively This is not to bemoan a sad fate but to affirm that there are notable deficiencies in the secondary sources relevant to my topic By way of general indictment I contend that the major difficulty with existing studies of the Marxist critique of religion is that their authors whether expositors or critics have failed both to specify their own presuppositions concerning religion and to approach the subject with an adequate comprehension of its many dimensions Since in most cases the reader is equally unprepared anthropologically sociologically psychologically and historically for clear and informed thought in this vast and nebulous area the result has been widespread confusion As if this were not enough numerous writers with little more than polemical interests have compounded the confusion by failing to distinguish between religion in general and their own brands of faith in particular Others have not discriminated between the concepts of metaphysics and the supernatural items of religious belief Literary Biographies in The Lives of Remarkable People

Series in Russia , Ludmilla A. Trigos,Carol Ueland,2022-03-14 The legendary Russian biography series The Lives of Remarkable People has played a significant role in Russian culture from its inception in 1890 until today The longest running biography series in world literature it spans three centuries and widely divergent political and cultural epochs Imperial Soviet and Post Soviet Russia The authors argue that the treatment of biographical figures in the series is a case study for continuities and changes in Russian national identity over time Biography in Russia and elsewhere remains a most influential literary genre and the distinctive approach and branding of the series has made it the economic engine of its publisher Molodaia gvardiia The centrality of biographies of major literary figures in the series reflects their heightened importance in Russian culture The contributors examine the ways that biographies of Russia s foremost writers shaped the literary canon while mirroring the political and social realities of both the subjects and their biographers times Starting with Alexander Pushkin and ending with Joseph Brodsky the authors analyze the interplay of research and imagination in biographical narrative the changing perceptions of what constitutes literary greatness and the subversive possibilities of biography during eras of political censorship

Marx and Education in Russia and China R. F. Price,2011-12-08 To many education students Russian and or Chinese education is at the same time their introduction to Marxism and many students go no further This book sets the record straight by giving a thorough introduction to the writings of Marx himself as they relate to education It shows what Marxism implies for education as aim method and content It then proceeds to compare educational developments in the former USSR and China in the light of this analysis attempting to answer the question as to how Marxist this has been in the schools and outside them
