Nineteenth-Century Religion, Literature and Society Naomi Hetherington, Rebecca Styler, Angharad Eyre, Richa Dwor, Clare Stainthorp, 2021-11-09 This four volume historical resource provides new opportunities for investigating the relationship between religion literature and society in Britain and its imperial territories by making accessible a diverse selection of harder to find primary sources These include religious fiction poetry essays memoirs sermons travel writing religious ephemera unpublished notebooks and pamphlet literature Spanning the long nineteenth century c 1789 1914 the resource departs from older models of the Victorian crisis of faith in order to open up new ways of conceptualising religion A key concern of the resource is to integrate non Christian religions into our understanding and representations of religious life in this period Each volume is framed around a different meaning of the term religion Volume one on Traditions offers an overview of the different religious traditions and denominations present in Britain in this period Volume two on Mission and Reform considers the social and political importance of religious faith and practice as expressed through foreign and domestic mission and philanthropic and political movements at home and abroad Volume three turns to Religious Feeling as an important and distinct category for understanding the ways in which religion is embodied and expressed in culture Volume four on Disbelief and New Beliefs explores the transformation of the religious landscape of Britain and its imperial territories during the nineteenth century as a result of key cultural and intellectual forces The resource is aimed primarily at researchers and students working within the fields of literature and social and religious history It supplies an interpretative context for sources in the form of explanatory headnotes to each source or group of sources and volume introductions that explore overarching themes Each volume can be read independently but they work together to elucidate the complex and multi faceted nature of nineteenth century religious life

National Identity in Great Britain and British North America, 1815-1851 Dr Linda E Connors, Dr Mary Lu MacDonald, 2013-05-28 Examining the complex and rapidly expanding world of print culture and reading in the nineteenth century Linda E Connors and Mary Lu MacDonald show how periodicals in the United Kingdom and British North America shaped and promoted ideals about national identity In the wake of the Napoleonic wars periodicals instilled in readers an awareness of cultures places and ways of living outside their own experience while also proffering messages about what it meant to be British The authors cast a wide net showing the importance of periodicals for understanding political and economic life faith and religion the world of women and children the idea of progress as a transcendent ideology and the relationships between the parts for example Scotland or Nova Scotia and the whole Great Britain Analyzing the British identity of expatriate nineteenth century Britons in North America alongside their counterparts in Great Britain enables insights into whether residents were encouraged to identify themselves by country of residence by country of birth or by their newly acquired understanding of a broader whole Enhanced by a succinct and informative catalogue of data including editorship and price about the periodicals analyzed this study provides a striking history of the era and brings clarity to the perception of British transcendence and progress that emerged with such force and appeal after 1815

W. T. Stead as New Journalist and Nonconformist, 1870-1912 Philip March, 2025-10-03 This book is an in depth study of the influence of evangelical Nonconformity on the evolving journalism of W T Stead one of the leading British newspaper editors of the late nineteenth century While Stead s Christian beliefs have been examined alongside and complementary to his journalism no long study has yet interrogated the way in which Protestant Dissent helped to shape the development of his press practice This study explores the stimulating interconnections in Stead s New Journalism between late nineteenth century evangelicalism radical politics and social reform and the modes and formats of his writing

Suscribing to Faith? The Anglican Parish Magazine 1859-1929 Jane Platt, 2016-01-12 This book reveals the huge sales and propagandist potential of Anglican parish magazines while demonstrating the Anglican Church's misunderstanding of the real issues at its heart and its collective collapse of confidence as it contemplated social change

A Victorian Dissenter David E. Seip, 2018-04-24 This book introduces the reader to Robert Govett 1813-1901 dissenting clergyman and author who wrote as a scholar of biblical prophecy primarily on the subject of the exclusion of believers in the Millennial Kingdom an idea of which he conceived The purpose of the book is threefold 1 to describe Govett his life and his printed work 2 to analyze Govett's eschatological beliefs especially those he originated and 3 to investigate why a respected theologian in England who had published over 180 books and tracts disappeared from dissenting print culture early in the twentieth century Govett's doctrine of exclusion was heavily intertwined with most of his writings It was a topic that he developed throughout his career Yet as the center of dispensationalism shifted to America Govett's views of the Rapture began to be seen as extreme The book explains why Govett was eclipsed as the center of the evangelical movement shifted and its theology ossified Since his death Govett has been occasionally remembered in scholarship but with increasing inaccuracies and skepticism This book seeks to remove the mystery
