Reluctant Angels:

Reluctant Death Briony Heneberry, 2012-08-26 Micaela Godfrey's life is thrown into disarray after the death of her unborn child she loses faith in her God and her marriage falls to apathy and emptiness What she finds however is that her world is not limited to the personal tragedy she has suffered and that whispers of the past draw her to a future of endless possibility Lines between right and wrong begin to blur and Micaela learns that that the will alone can shape reality if it is strong enough For her darkness now moved in the form of corrupted magic that would seek in her a secret that she does not remember Good guys and bad guys light and dark the mundane and the magical traditional roles are tested in a world like our own but where truly opening your eyes may mean you see something that you wish you hadn't Atonement Eleonore Stump, 2018-11-15 The concept of the atonement is one of the defining doctrine of Christianity Over the course of many centuries theologians church forefathers philosophers and more have proposed a huge expanse of interpretations of Christ's sacrifice for humanity each different to the next In this ambitious study Eleonore Stump uses the context of this history of interpretation to reconsider the doctrine afresh with philosophical care Whatever exactly the atonement is it is supposed to include a solution to the problems of the human condition especially its guilt and shame Stump canvasses the major interpretations of the doctrine highlighting their shortcomings as an explanation for this solution In their place she argues for an interpretation that is both novel whilst still using traditional theology including Anselm's well known account of the doctrine Atonement is a rich exploration of the doctrine and all that it covers love union guilt shame forgiveness retribution punishment shared attention mind reading empathy and various other issues in moral psychology and ethics Be Brave. Lose the Beige! Liz Kitchens, 2025-07-30 Meet Beige Beige is reliable practical sensible and safe Beige doesn't put up a fuss it follows the rules blends in doesn't want to stand out Now meet Magenta Magenta is rich dynamic loud sometimes garish and not easily overlooked Society has decidedly beige expectations when it comes to aging and the intrinsic danger of beige and its many practical aspects is that it precludes creative thinking Creative thinking is critical in avoiding a beige aging journey Be Brave Lose the Beige Finding Your Sass after Sixty encourages women to trot out their inner magenta and defy those beige expectations Be Brave Lose the Beige started as a blog and morphed into a movement This movement gently pokes fun at ageist rules and expectations It says yes when the rest of the world keeps saying no In these pages Liz Kitchens chronicles how creative thinking helped her cope with empty nest syndrome navigate sex over sixty transition from being out of sight to literally being out of sight and so much more The stories and creative techniques outlined in this book are guaranteed to introduce color sass and a lightness of spirit into your later years Are you ready to start coloring outside the lines even if a few pesky rules get trampled in the process Parallel Universe Keith Caravaggio, 2016-09-24 The USS George Washington while undergoing its preflight check down in orbit over Earth for its scheduled mission to Titan is struck by a strange energy vortex It causes the ship to crash land in the inner sea off the coast of Denmark All computers and communication are dead and two of the crew members must surface to get aid. Instead of rescuers they find Waffen SS soldiers who take them prisoner. Such an occurrence long speculated by physicists has never happened before or so it was believed. Time travel was just fanciful theory unlikely to leave the realm of flashy science fiction novels or so they thought. The baffled crew members trying to make sense of it all miraculously escape to England worrying all along about incidental contact and the effect it would have. They run to the one person who has the power and they believe the will to help them Winston Churchill. Churchill however is not who they think he is and they are not where they think they are or when. They must save themselves with the assistance of Churchill and his crippled friend and neighbor Franklin Roosevelt who have their own agenda and axe to grind here on their Earth. Here there is no landmass above the Yucatan and here the British are cowards and the French brave. They must go to the one place on this Earth that is truly hell to be saved. In that place they will redeem their integrity by throwing off the shackles they attached to themselves in the dishonorable world they come from. Their destination: Auschwitz.
