The Ashgate Research Companion to Religion and Conflict Resolution Lee Marsden, 2016-03-23 A comprehensive overview of the latest research in religion and conflict resolution this collection of twenty three essays brings together leading scholars in the field examining the contribution religious actors have made and are making towards peace and resolving The Ashgate Research Companion to Religion and Conflict Resolution is primarily aimed at readerships with special interest in conflict resolution international security and religion and international relations and will also serve as a valuable resource for policy makers and conflict resolution practitioners The collection comprises five thematic sections each with chapters on vital and mainly contemporary topics in the field of religion and conflict resolution The principal themes include Islam, Authoritarianism, and Underdevelopment Ahmet T.

Kuru, 2019-08-01 Why do Muslim majority countries exhibit high levels of authoritarianism and low levels of socio economic development in comparison to world averages Ahmet T Kuru criticizes explanations which point to Islam as the cause of this disparity because Muslims were philosophically and socio economically more developed than Western Europeans between the ninth and twelfth centuries Nor was Western colonialism the cause Muslims had already suffered political and socio economic problems when colonization began Kuru argues that Muslims had influential thinkers and merchants in their early history when religious orthodoxy and military rule were prevalent in Europe However in the eleventh century an alliance between orthodox Islamic scholars the ulema and military states began to emerge This alliance gradually hindered intellectual and economic creativity by marginalizing intellectual and bourgeois classes in the Muslim world This important study links its historical explanation to contemporary politics by showing that to this day ulema state alliance still prevents creativity and competition in Muslim countries Muslim Subjectivities in Global Modernity, 2020-03-09 With critical reference to Eisenstadt s theory of multiple modernities Muslim Subjectivities in Global Modernity discusses the role of religion in the modern world The case studies all provide examples illustrating the ambition to understand how Islamic traditions have contributed to the construction of practices and expressions of modern Muslim selfhoods In doing so they underpin Eisenstadt s argument that religious traditions can play a pivotal role in the construction of historically different interpretations of modernity At the same time however they point to a void in Eisenstadt s approach that does not problematize the multiplicity of forms in which this role of religious traditions plays out historically Consequently the authors of the present volume focus on the multiple modernities within Islam which Eisenstadt s theory hardly takes into account Contributors are Philipp Bruckmayr Neslihan Kevser Cevik Dietrich Jung Jakob Kraus Mex J rgensen Kamaludeen Nasir Zacharias Pieri Mark Sedgwick Kirstine Sinclair Fabio Vicini and Ahmed al Zalaf
