Remaking Of An American:

The Remaking of an American Elizabeth L. Banks,1928 Remaking American Communities David C. Soule,2007-11-01

Urban sprawl has gained much national attention in recent years Sprawl involves not only land use issues but also legal political and social concerns It affects our schools the environment and race relations Comprehensive enough for high school students and also appropriate for college undergraduates Remaking American Communities delves into the challenges of urban sprawl by turning to some of America s top thinkers on the problem including Robert Yaro president of the Regional Plan Association Other cutting edge essays include a foreword about the emergence of sprawl by nationally syndicated columnist Neal Peirce views about race and class by former mayor of Albuquerque David Rusk and a discussion of transportation dynamics by Curtis Johnson president of the Citistates Group The essays in this collection explore the core issues of sprawl and the agenda for dealing with it Complete with a glossary resources and contact information for smart growth alliances this book is extremely user friendly David C Soule offers an unbiased viewpoint of this national phenomenon in a way that will be accessible to students and those with little background in the issue Remaking American Theater Scott T. Cummings,2006-08-17 Publisher description The Making of an American Jacob August Riis,1901

Autobiography of Jacob Riis photographer journalist and author of How the other half lives studies among the tenements of New York The Remaking of a Mind Hendrik de Man,1919 A World Remaking Clarence Walker Barron,1920 I Change Worlds Anna Louise Strong,1979 The Making of U.S. Foreign Policy John Dumbrell,1997 Fully revised and updated this new edition analyses the relationship between the process and substance of US foreign policy since the mid 1960s Race and American Political Development Joseph E. Lowndes,Julie Novkov,Dorian T. Warren,2012-11-12 Race has been present at every critical moment in American political development shaping political institutions political discourse public policy and its denizens political identities But because of the nature of race its evolving and dynamic status as a structure of inequality a political organizing principle an ideology and a system of power we must study the politics of race historically institutionally and discursively Covering more than three hundred years of American political history from the founding to the contemporary moment the contributors in this volume make this extended argument Together they provide an understanding of American politics that challenges our conventional disciplinary tools of studying politics and our conservative political moment s dominant narrative of racial progress This volume the first to collect essays on the role of race in American political history and development resituates race in American politics as an issue for sustained and broadened critical attention Publications of Members and Graduates of the Department of History, Political Economy and Political Science, 1915 Johns Hopkins University,1915
