Remember To Feed The Kittens:

Planning to Remember Fiona McPherson, 2011-06-01 Do you have problems remembering birthdays and anniversaries appointments and errands Do you sometimes find yourself in a room and wonder why you re there Do you end up doing things twice because you ve forgotten you ve already done them Of all the memory failures that plague us forgetting our intentions birthdays appointments errands we mean to do is the greatest closely followed by those moments of absentmindedness when we lose track of what we re doing The special problem of these common memory failures is that they are failures that are often very obvious to others More than any other memory failure forgetting the future makes others feel hurt and annoyed causing us regret and embarrassment And absentmindedness can not simply be irritating but dangerous Many people think that these sorts of problems are inevitable a natural consequence of getting older or going through menopause or because of some natural personality flaw But remembering future events and remembering what you re doing or have just done are memory tasks that like any other memory task are subject to your skills Skills can be learned To learn or improve a skill you need to know effective strategies and how to practice them This book helps you understand these memory and attention failures and shows you how to overcome them As always with the Mempowered books this fully referenced book based on the work of cognitive researchers helps you permanently improve your memory skills by explaining what you need to know to use these strategies effectively and appropriately Keywords remembering intentions remembering appointments how to overcome absent minded how to overcome forgetfulness absentmindedness short term memory problems action slips prospective memory

Remembering A Coal Miner's Son, 2011-05-31 I want to thank my Mother and Father for engraining in me the values I have always tried to live by Honesty Truth and to help others when they need help My brothers and sister for all of the memories I have of growing up in what I think were the best of times The many friends I had at that time and the adventure we embarked on each day The teachers who instilled in me the virtues I lived by later in life The soldiers who fought and died to insure that this country remain strong for generations to come I also want to thank God for the many blessings I receive each day I feel I am the luckiest man in the world to have grown up in the time period that I did With that I will leave you and pray that all of you have enjoyed life as much as I have A coal miners son The Spy Test
