Tuskegee's Truths Susan M. Reverby,2012-12-01 Between 1932 and 1972 approximately six hundred African American men in Alabama served as unwitting guinea pigs in what is now considered one of the worst examples of arrogance racism and duplicity in American medical research the Tuskegee syphilis study Told they were being treated for bad blood the nearly four hundred men with late stage syphilis and two hundred disease free men who served as controls were kept away from appropriate treatment and plied instead with placebos nursing visits and the promise of decent burials Despite the publication of more than a dozen reports in respected medical and public health journals the study continued for forty years until extensive media coverage finally brought the experiment to wider public knowledge and forced its end This edited volume gathers articles contemporary newspaper accounts selections from reports and letters reconsiderations of the study by many of its principal actors and works of fiction drama and poetry to tell the Tuskegee story as never before Together these pieces illuminate the ethical issues at play from a remarkable breadth of perspectives and offer an unparalleled look at how the study has been understood over time Black Men on Race, Gender, and Sexuality Devon Carbado,1999-07 A groundbreaking anthology of essays providing commentary on gender and sexuality inclusion in the antiracist movement In late 1995 the Million Man March drew hundreds of thousands of black men to Washington DC and seemed even to skeptics a powerful sign not only of black male solidarity but also of black racial solidarity Yet while generating a sense of community and common purpose the Million Man March with its deliberate exclusion of women and implicit rejection of black gay men also highlighted one of the central faultlines in African American politics the role of gender and sexuality in antiracist agenda In this groundbreaking anthology a companion to the highly successful Critical Race Feminism Devon Carbado changes the terms of the debate over racism gender and sexuality in black America The essays cover such topics as the legal construction of black male identity domestic abuse in the black community the enduring power of black machismo the politics of black male white female relationships racial essentialism the role of black men in black women's quest for racial equality and the heterosexual nature of black political engagement Featuring work by Cornel West Huey Newton Henry Louis Gates Jr A Leon Higginbotham Jr Houston Baker Marlon T Riggs Dwight McBride Michael Awkward Ishmael Reed Derrick Bell and many others Devon Carbado's anthology stakes out new territory in the American racial landscape Critical America A series edited by Richard Delgado and Jean Stephancic

The Metal of the Dead Concha Espina, 2003-05 The human dimension in the novel revolves around the romantic entanglements of three youthful women whose different personalities reflect their regional provenance in a somewhat stereotypical manner Aurora is a sweet blond woman from Spain's northern highlands Rosario is a professional newspaper reporter from Madrid and Casilda is a dark haired and passionate Andalusian beauty

Anna Julia Cooper, Visionary Black Feminist Vivian M. May, 2012-08-21 Vivian M May explores the theoretical and political contributions of Anna Julia Cooper a renowned Black feminist scholar educator and activist whose ideas deserve far more attention than they have received Drawing on Africana and feminist theory May places Cooper's theorizing in its historical contexts and offers new ways to interpret the evolution of Cooper's visionary politics subversive methodology and defiant philosophical outlook Rejecting notions that Cooper was an elitist duped by dominant ideologies May contends that Cooper's ambiguity code switching and irony should be understood as strategies of a radical methodology of dissent May shows how across six decades of work Cooper traced history's silences and delineated the workings of power and inequality in an array of contexts from science to literature economics to popular culture religion to the law education to social work and from the political to the personal May emphasizes that Cooper eschewed all forms of mastery and called for critical consciousness and collective action on the part of marginalized people at home and abroad She concludes that in using a border crossing intersectional approach Cooper successfully argues for theorizing from experience develops inclusive methods of liberation and crafts a vision of a fundamentally egalitarian social imaginary
