Remembering the Future Robert C. Lodwick, 1995 Designed as a regional study this book offers a survey of church situations in the British Isles Latin Europe Scandinavia and the Baltics Central Europe the Balkans and the Commonwealth of Independent States Writers from all parts of Europe share their conviction that while we cannot forget the past our salvation lies in remembering the future To live in the future is a sign of faith and hope that overcomes doubt and despair says editor Robert C Lodwick For there to be a future people must think plan and work for it That is the challenge of the churches in Europe and the challenge for people of faith everywhere Remembering the Future illuminates many fascinating subjects including complex ethno religious conflict in the Balkans signs of hope in Northern Ireland challenges of the Russian Orthodox Church in the postcommunist era ongoing pilgrimages by Christians seeking renewal reflections on issues of church and state in the former East Germany Major overviews by church leaders lay activists seminary professors and journalists are supplemented by news articles interviews and ecumenical statements Maps photos and a glossary enhance the material Back cover

The Ecumenical Movement and the Making of the European Community Lucian Leuștean, 2014 A study that assesses the political history of religious dialogue in the European Community detailing close relations between churchmen and high ranking officials in European institutions immediately after the 1950 Schuman Declaration

North American Churches and the Cold War Paul B. Mojzes, 2018-08-23 History textbooks typically list 1945 1990 as the Cold War years but it is clear that tensions from that period are still influencing world politics today While much attention is given to political and social responses to those first nuclear threats none has been given to the reactions of Christian churches North American Churches and the Cold War offers the first systematic reflection on the diverse responses of Canadian and American churches to potential nuclear disaster A mix of scholars and church leaders the contributors analyze the anxieties dilemmas and hopes that Christian churches felt as World War II gave way to the nuclear age As they faced either nuclear annihilation or peaceful reconciliation Christians were forced to take stands on such issues as war communism and their relationship to Christians in Eastern Europe As we continue to navigate the nuclear era this book provides insight into Christian responses to future adversities and conflicts

Remember the Future Robert Schnase, 2012-05-01 Explore together how congregations can change to become more fruitful for the purposes of Christ Remember the Future Praying for the Church and Change prepares leaders of congregations and conferences for courageous new conversations with readings that draw us toward renewed vision cultivate hope and keep us attentive to the mission of Christ Read together as leadership teams boards and covenant groups to understand more clearly the why of congregational ministry and the internal resistances and external challenges to the mission of the church Call to Mission and Perceptions of Proselytism John

Baxter-Brown,2022-04-13 Proselytism remains one of the most divisive issues in global Christianity jeopardizing many ecumenical initiatives and projects Almost all traditions accuse others of proselytism but none readily confess to it as one tradition s mission and evangelism is another s proselytism This work brings together for the first time significant formal statements from Christian bodies and churches alongside articles from leading commentators in this hotly contested issue It gives clergy academics and students a vital resource in understanding the perspectives of different traditions and therefore the opportunity to study and understand viewpoints and opinions from competing perspectives The volume originates in a process of work commissioned by the World Pentecostal Fellowship the World Council of Churches the World Evangelical Alliance and the Roman Catholic Church under the auspices of the Global Christian Forum We discovered that there are no easy answers that resolve the tensions and debates about proselytism but through listening and understanding different voices new opportunities for establishing constructive relationships can and do emerge A History of the Ecumenical
