AIMS AND SCOPE

The journal welcomes contributions which explore the impact of globalization on the Italian film industry, the encounters between cinema and other art forms, the hybridisation of film and media aesthetics, the relationships of multimodal communication and inter-medial practices, and the development of innovative transmedia texts and cross-media narratives.

JICMS also invites submissions that examine experimental cinema, video art, short films, long short feature and documentary animation, original and adapted screenplays, film music (score and scores), issues of stardom and reception studies. The professional contributions of screenplay writers, art directors, cinematographers, film editors, costume designers and make-up artists are also potential subject areas for submissions.

Narratives of Nostalgia and Repair in American Comics and Literature Aanchal Vij, 2025-08-21 Through a study of both novels and comic books of 20th and 21st century this book claims that it is not possible to create any narrative of exceptionalism without also manufacturing a sense of nostalgia for a past that may or may not have existed Acts of personal or historical repair are central to such nostalgia and symptomatic of a desire to both escape and confront difficult pasts The myth of American exceptionalism is one such narrative of nostalgia that in its conception of damage and acts of repair disables histories Through works by Michael Chabon Art Spiegelman Philip Roth Alan Moore and Ta Nehisi Coates this book reframes the idea of heroism and locates it outside of the hegemonic narrative of American exceptionalism This book puts comics studies and literature in dialogue with disability studies to argue that an able history just like an able body is a myth The figure of the superhero or the trope of heroism is central to the moments of historical repair as well as the identity politics of who repairs the damage The corpus illustrates how American escapism and counterfactual conception of a nation's past can prolong the trauma of beleaguered communities cultures bodies and histories This book reveals how prostheticising one version of history can amputate another there is no narrative of exceptionalism that is also not simultaneously a narrative of disability

(Post)apartheid Conditions D. Hook, 2013-08-27 Post apartheid Conditions Psychoanalysis and Social Formation advances a series of psychoanalytic perspectives on contemporary South Africa exploring key psychosocial topics such as space identity social fantasy the body whiteness memory and nostalgia

Narratives of Nostalgia, Gender, and Nationalism Jean Pickering, Suzanne Kehde, 1996 Most Americans think of Betsy Ross as she was depicted in Charles Weisberger's popular painting The Birth of Our Nation's Flag a motherly figure sewing at the hearth In fact as Jo Ann Menezes's analysis in Nostalgia Gender and Nationalism points out Ross was a widowed businesswoman who ran an upholstery shop out of her house In Weisberger's painting all signs of economic industry are erased and Ross's house is transformed into a home rather than the site of cottage industry Ross is constructed as the perfect heroic mother worthy of sacred creation thus our flag was born Ross's transformation into an icon neatly illustrates the conjunction of soaring nationalism and the establishment of woman as a fixed domestic presence and serves as an excellent example of the master narratives revealed in Nostalgia Gender and Nationalism The essays in this provocative anthology explore the connections between nation and gender and the ways in which nostalgia functions to bind these two presumably unrelated constructions together Collectively they suggest that women pay a special fee on behalf of the nation even though it is traditionally represented as an honorarium given to them and that in fact the nation state takes as a foundational principle the subordination of women

Revisiting Loss Wojciech Drąg, 2014-07-03 Loss is the core experience which determines the identity of Kazuo Ishiguro's narrators and shapes their subsequent lives Whether a traumatic ordeal an act of social degradation a failed relationship or a loss of home the painful event serves as a sharp dividing line between the earlier meaningful past and the period afterwards which is infused with a sense of lack dissatisfaction and nostalgia Ishiguro's narrators have been unable to confine their loss to the past and remain preoccupied by its legacy which ranges from suppressed guilt to a keen sense of failure or disappointment Their immersion in the past finds expression in the narratives which they weave in order to articulate justify or merely understand their experiences Their reconstructions of the past are interpreted as exercises in misremembering and self deception which enable them to sustain their illusions and save them from despair Revisiting Loss is the first book length study of memory encompassing Ishiguro's entire novelistic output It adopts a highly interdisciplinary approach combining a selection of philosophical Jacques Derrida Paul Ricoeur and Jean Starobinski and psychological perspectives Sigmund Freud Frederic Bartlett Jacques Lacan and Daniel L Schacter The book offers a thoroughly researched critical survey drawing on all published critical monographs and collections of academic articles on Ishiguro's work

Forensic Memory Johanne Helbo Bøndergaard, 2017-10-14 This book describes and analyses a particular literary mode that challenges the aesthetics of testimony by approaching the past through detection analysis and archaeological digging How does forensic literature narrate the past in terms of plot language narration and use of visual media This volume examines how forensic literature provides an important corrective to the forensic paradigm and a means of exploring the relationship between visual and material evidence and various forms of testimony This literary engagement with the past is investigated in order to challenge a forensic paradigm that aims to eliminate the problems related to human testimony through scientific objectivity resulting in a fresh and original text in which Bøndergaard argues literature's potential to explore the mechanisms of representation interpretation and narration
