Remembrances And Reminiscences:

Reminiscences and Remembrances E. Bruce Heilman, 2019-12-19 This is the continuation and in depth view of my previous book An Interruption That Lasted a Lifetime My First Eighty Years Migration, Memories, and the "Unfinished" Partition Amit Ranjan, 2024-03-29 This book looks at migration through the lens of the Partition of India in 1947 The Partition uprooted millions of people from their homelands This volume examines the initial difficulties faced by the refugees in settling down in their adopted land It analyses the state s efforts in facilitating the movement of refugees the processes it initiated to resettle them after Partition and the extent to which it was successful This book also investigates the links between socio political developments in contemporary India Pakistan and Bangladesh as a result of the Partition Drawing on archival sources oral histories and literary representations the contributing authors discuss and analyse the experiences of the migrated population Part of the Migrations in South Asia series this book will be an important read for scholars and researchers of migration studies refugee studies Partition studies Indian history Indian politics and South Asian studies

Memories of My Town Anna-Maria Åström, Pirjo Korkiakangas, Pia Olsson, 2004-07-07 Memories of My Town is an exploration into how town dwellers experience their environment in a complicated way As people in urban milieus relate themselves to the environment this takes place on many levels where especially the time level becomes problematic The urban buildings and settings can be looked upon as a kind of collective history as carriers or witnesses of times past But it is only the town dwellers that experience urban time itself the time they live in but through their memories also times past In this past some elements take symbolically dense expressions Through reliving and narrating their experiences the symbolically important factors in this urban relationship will be outlined for investigations concerning three towns Helsinki the capital Vyborg the ceded and lost Karelian town and Jyväskylä a town with dense commercial and cultural dimensions in the middle of Finland The aim of the book is to use different theoretical concepts as guidelines in analysing the different narrative texts

Memories of Lincoln and the Splintering of American Political Thought Shawn J. Parry-Giles, David S. Kaufer, 2017-05-15 In the aftermath of the Civil War Republicans and Democrats who advocated conflicting visions of American citizenship could agree on one thing the rhetorical power of Abraham Lincoln s life This volume examines the debates over his legacy and their impact on America s future In the thirty five years following Lincoln s assassination acquaintances of Lincoln published their memories of him in newspapers biographies and edited collections in order to gain fame promote partisan aims champion his hardscrabble past and exalted rise and define his legacy Shawn Parry Giles and David Kaufer explore how style class and character affected these reminiscences They also analyze the ways people used these writings to reinforce their beliefs about citizenship and presidential leadership in the United States with specific attention to the fissure between republicanism and democracy that still exists today Their study employs rhetorical and corpus research methods to assess more than five hundred reminiscences A novel look at how memories of Lincoln became an important form of political rhetoric this book sheds light on how divergent schools of U S political thought came to recruit Lincoln as their standard bearer

Memories of Jesus Robert B. Stewart, Gary R. Habermas, 2010-07-01 A gathering of scholarly essays in response and tribute to James D G Dunn s influential book Jesus Remembered followed by a response from Dunn himself

Memories of My Time George Hodder, 1870

Relocated Memories Marguérite Corporaal, 2017-04-24 The Great Famine radically transformed Ireland nearly one million people of the rural countryside died and the eviction of farmers led to massive emigration The Famine encouraged anti English nationalist sentiments and this trauma is seen as pivotal in the development of an Irish anticolonial consciousness and in the identity formation of transatlantic Irish communities In Relocated Memories Corporaal challenges the persistent assumption that the first decades after the Great Irish Famine were marked by a pervasive silence on the catastrophe Discussing works by well known authors such as William Carleton and Anthony Trollope as well as more obscure texts by among others Dillon O Brien and Susanna Meredith Corporaal charts the reconfigurations of memory in fiction across generations and national borders

Ruin Memories Bjørnar Olsen, Þóra Pétursdóttir, 2014-04-24 Since the nineteenth century mass production consumerism and cycles of material replacement have accelerated increasingly larger amounts of things are increasingly victimized rapidly and made redundant At the same time processes of destruction have immensely intensified although largely overlooked when compared to the research and social significance devoted to consumption and production The outcome is a ruin landscape of derelict factories closed shopping malls overgrown bunkers and redundant mining towns a ghostly world of decaying modern debris normally omitted from academic concerns and conventional histories The archaeology of the recent or contemporary past has grown fast during the last decade This development has been concurrent with a broader popular artistic and scholarly interest in modern ruins in general Ruin Memories explores how the ruins of modernity are conceived and assigned cultural value in contemporary academic and public discourses reassesses the cultural and historical value of modern ruins and suggests possible means for reaffirming their cultural and historic significance Crucial for this reassessment is a concern with decay and ruination and with the role things play in expressing the neglected unsuccessful and ineffable Abandonment and ruination is usually understood negatively through the tropes of loss and deprivation things are degraded and humiliated while the information knowledge and memory embedded in them become lost along the way Without even ignoring its many negative and traumatizing aspects a main question addressed in this book is whether ruination also can be seen as an act of disclosure If ruination disturbs the routinized and ready to hand to what extent can it also be seen as a recovery of memory as exposing meanings and presences that perhaps are only possible to grasp at second hand when no longer immersed in their withdrawn and useful reality Anybody interested in the archaeology of the contemporary past will find Ruin Memories an essential guide to the very latest theoretical research in this emerging field of archaeological thought
