Salmond, 1905 Scotland's Gift, Golf: Reminiscences by Charles Blair Macdonald C.B. Macdonald, 2020-03-20 Scotland's Gift Golf is a masterpiece of early golf literature written by the Father of American Golf Course Architecture C B Macdonald Considered by historians to be the most important book ever written on early American golf this book details the birth of golf in the United States in the late nineteenth century and the formation of the U S G A in 1894 In addition to a detailed summary of the characteristics of an ideal golf course this guide provides rare insight into the methods and philosophies that Macdonald used to design some of the world's most renowned courses including the National Golf Links of America Mid Ocean Club Lido and Yale Golf Club It also includes personal anecdotes and correspondence describing the development of the rules of golf as well as the evolution of the modern golf ball and golf club Written in 1928 this book features 56 black and white photographs from the author's personal collection including rare photos of Bobby Jones Young Tom Morris and Francis Ouimet Also included is an appendix which highlights the oldest surviving rules of golf from 1754 as well as the amended version from 1858 Storying Later Life Gary Kenyon, Ernst Bohlmeijer, William L. Randall, 2010-12-20 In its brief but vigorous history gerontology has spawned a broadening range of specializations One of the newest of such specializations is narrative gerontology so named for its emphasis on the biographical or inside dimensions of the experience of aging Telling stories about our world our relationships and ourselves is fundamental to how we make meaning Everything from our history to our religion and our memories to our emotions is linked to the tales we tell ourselves and others about where we have come from and where we are going They are central to who we are The biographical side of human life is every bit as critical to fathom as the biological side if we seek a more balanced positive and optimistic perspective on what aging is about if we would honor the dignity and complexity the humanity and uniqueness of the lives of older persons no matter what their health or economic standing In this respect a narrative approach is particularly suited to the exploration of such topics as meaning spirituality and wisdom and the connections they share This volume reflects a selection of new directions and insights and constitutes a general broadening and deepening of narrative gerontology exploring its implications for theory and research in the field of aging and for the quality of life of older adults themselves Such deepening indicates a greater refinement of thought method and intervention The evolution of narrative gerontology is also evidenced by a significant increase in the number of faculty and graduate students engaged in research in this area as well as by increasing collaboration among researchers practitioners and administrators in applying narrative insights to contexts such as long term care indeed healthcare in general These initiatives have given rise to the phrase narrative care as core care Reminiscences of the Impressionist Painters George Moore, 1906 Reminiscences of Manchester, and Some of Its Local Surroundings from the Year

1840 Louis M. Hayes, 1905 Collections & Recollections George William Erskine Russell, 1898 John Cruickshank, a memoir Joseph Ogilvie, 1896 International Perspectives on Reminiscence, Life Review and Life Story Work Faith Gibson, 2018-11-21 This book collates the latest research developments and evidence base for reminiscence life review and life story work in a single volume Charting the wide applications for narrative therapeutic methods the book emphasises the effectiveness of these approaches with varied people from different cultural backgrounds
