Reminiscences Of The Civil War:

Reminiscences of the Civil War, 1861-1865 Preston Lafayette Ledford, 2022-08-21 In Reminiscences of the Civil War 1861 1865 Preston Lafayette Ledford offers a poignant and introspective narrative that captures the raw emotional landscape of personal experience during one of America's most tumultuous periods. Written in a reflective and accessible style, Ledford's memoir delves into the complexities of war, capturing not only the harrowing realities of battle but also the profound bonds formed among soldiers. The book stands as a testament to the literary tradition of Civil War memoirs, positioning itself within the context of contemporaneous works by figures such as Walt Whitman and Ambrose Bierce, yet remaining distinctively personal in its approach. Preston Lafayette Ledford, a Civil War veteran himself, draws upon his own experiences as both a soldier and a witness to history. His unique perspective provides readers with an intimate understanding of the emotional and psychological challenges faced by individuals torn from their homes and thrust into conflict. Ledford's commitment to preserving the authenticity of his memories mirrors the broader cultural movements of the late 19th century, where personal narratives were essential to comprehending the national trauma. I highly recommend Reminiscences of the Civil War to readers interested in first-person accounts of the Civil War, as it presents a nuanced portrayal of conflict, camaraderie, and loss. Ledford's engaging prose not only enlightens the modern reader about the era but also imparts timeless lessons about humanity amidst strife, making this book a valuable addition to any historical literature collection. In this enriched edition, we have carefully created added value for your reading experience. Hand-picked Memorable Quotes shine a spotlight on moments of literary brilliance. Interactive footnotes clarify unusual references, historical allusions, and archaic phrases for an effortless, more informed read.

Although many histories have been written and tradition has furnished its part toward the perpetuation of the memory of the exciting times of the civil war, very much occurred that has never been recorded. Monuments may be erected and histories written, but unless the veterans now living get busy and refresh their memories and the memories of their comrades, very much that happened and ought to be preserved in durable form will, with the passing of the main actors, pass into oblivion. The

Confederate Soldiers now living are all old men and each one could and ought to contribute items of information that would be interesting to the children and adults of future generations These scenes anecdotes incidents and historical facts ought to be written by the soldiers themselves for by no other means can a correct history of the war period be handed down to posterity About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Under the Guns: A Woman's Reminiscences of the Civil War Annie Wittenmyer, In preparing this little volume for publication no attempt whatever has been made to record as facts of history the military movements of the army during our recent Civil War The great captains who led the Union forces through the terrible conflict from Fort Sumter to Appomattox have already covered to a large extent the military history of the war My purpose has been simply to bring out in connection with these great military events with which they were so intimately connected a few of the many incidents and heart histories that were crowded into my own life from April 20 1861 to Nov 23 1865 The stories and reminiscences in this book are true to life every one of them They are told just as they occurred without any attempt at literary embellishment and most of them can be substantiated by living witnesses Camps and hospitals were established near my own home in Keokuk Iowa early in April 1861 I began at once my ministrations to the sick in these newly established hospitals and during my daily visits closed the eyes of the first Iowa soldier who died in the war From that time on till the close of the war I was actively engaged all along the lines I was loyally and generously sustained by the women of Iowa was elected by the Iowa Legislature sanitary agent of the State was commissioned by Iowa's grand old war governor Samuel J Kirkwood was furnished by Secretary Stanton with a pass to all parts of the field and government transportation for myself and supplies This official order of Mr Stanton's was supplemented by the following charge It is especially enjoined upon all officers to furnish this lady every facility in carrying out her generous purposes it being shown that she is worthy of great respect I had also the co operation of the Sanitary and Christian Commissions and the chief medical officers and government officials so that I had unusual facilities for doing good I was greatly indebted to General and Mrs Grant for sympathy and aid When Mrs Grant was at her husband's headquarters the place was a haven of rest for me and a welcome always awaited me Indeed Mrs Grant would have joined me in the work but her husband was afraid her strength and sympathies would be overtaxed During these brief visits I learned to appreciate the unselfishness and noble qualities of General Grant and the strength and purity of his character and the loveliness and sterling worth of Mrs Grant and her wifely devotion I was also under great obligations to General John A Logan who was ever ready to aid me When it was almost impossible to get from

Bridgeport to Chattanooga he sent me up in a little steamer which he loaded with my supplies Later I met Mr Orson the president of the United Telegraph Association and General Logan introduced me with such kindly appreciative words that without a hint from either of us he filled out an order allowing me to telegraph free to the end of the war I still have that little order in my possession It is due our brave soldiers that I should say that I felt as safe in their midst as I would have done in my own home even though at times I was the only woman in the midst of an army of twenty thousand fighting men as was the case at Milliken s Bend after the repulse of General Sherman at Haines Bluff Not one impertinent or rude word was ever spoken to me in all those years No purer or grander army ever marched to the music of fife and drum than the army that stood for the defence of our flag and the unity of our government from 1861 to 1865 A woman could walk in their midst in white and a little child would have been as safe as in its mother s arms As I was all along the lines from Vicksburg to Petersburg and was on some of the bloodiest battle fields and as I followed Sherman s army along the fiery lines from Chattanooga to Atlanta I necessarily had to pass through many perils and witness many exciting scenes A few of these stories I have now thought best to publish Military Reminiscences of the Civil War Jacob Dolson Cox,2018-09-20 Reproduction of the original Military Reminiscences of the Civil War by Jacob Dolson Cox A Woman's Civil War Cornelia Peake McDonald,1992 Cornelia Peake McDonald kept a diary during the Civil War 1861 1865 at her husband s request but some entries were written between the lines of printed books due to a shortage of paper and other entries were lost In 1875 she assembled her scattered notes and records of the war period into a blank book to leave to her children The diary entries describe civilian life in Winchester Va occupation by Confederate troops prior to the 1st Manassas her husband s war experiences the Valley campaigns and occupation of Winchester and her home by Union troops the death of her baby girl the family s refugee life in Lexington reports of battles elsewhere and news of family and friends in the army Reminiscences of the Civil War, 1861-1865 Preston Lafayette Ledford,1909
