Paoletti, Gary M. Radke, 2005 Art in Renaissance Italy sets the art of that time in its context exploring why it was created and in particular looking at who commissioned the palaces and cathedrals the paintings and the sculptures Art in Renaissance Italy, 1350-1500 Evelyn S. Welch, 2000 Between the Black Death in the mid fourteenth century and the French invasions at the end of the fifteenth artists such as Masaccio Donatello Fra Angelico and Leonardo working in the kingdoms princedoms and republics of the Italian peninsula created some of the most influential and exciting works in a variety of artistic fields Yet the traditional story of the Renaissance has been dramatically revised in the light of new scholarship and new issues have greatly enriched our understanding of the period Emphasis has been placed on recreating the experience of contemporary Italians the patrons who commissioned the works the members of the public who viewed them and the artists who produced them In this book Evelyn Welch presents a fresh picture of the Italian Renaissance Giving equal weight to the Italian regions outside Florence she discusses a wide range of works from paintings to coins and from sculptures to tapestries examines the issues of materials workshop practises and artist patron relationships and explores the ways in which visual imagery related to contemporary sexual social and political behaviour American Artists On Art Ellen Johnson, 2018-02-20 From the Preface The fact that so much of modern art has devoted itself to the exploration and assertion of its own identity is reflected in but does not explain the increasing amount of writing and talking on the part of contemporary artists Rather the whole history of the changing role of art and artists in a democratic industrial and technological society stands behind the spate of artists words and the public s hunger for them even some of the general public out there beyond art s little circle Statements by artists appeal somewhat the way drawings do they bring us or at least they hold the promise of bringing us closer to the artist s thoughts and feelings and to an understanding of his or her modus operandi they hold the keys to a mysterious realm And sometimes they offer us the sheer pleasure of good reading Such is the primary raison d'être of this book Its other motivation is educational and stems from the frustrating lack in teaching contemporary art of any single compilation of statements by American artists from 1940 to the present This anthology differs in several respects from those others that do include documents of American art since 1940 The selection I have made is devoted exclusively to statements of artists it is limited to the last four decades it presents in a single volume a representative and fairly comprehensive coverage of major developments in American art beginning with Abstract Expressionism and whenever possible it cites the first or among the very earliest documents signaling a shift in the definition intent or direction of art

Michelangelo and the Pope's Ceiling Ross King, 2014-10-14 Recounts Michelangelo's creation of his masterpiece the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel from his commission from Pope Julius II through the artist's four years of work to the final acclaim at the paintings 1512 unveiling

Talking Shop Peter J. Betjemann, 2011 Discussing a wide range of material from fiction and essays to artifacts the book explores how the era paved the way for the vitality and the viability of a language of craft in much later decades
