Renaissance Discovering The Past:

Ancient Models in the Early Modern Republican Imagination ,2017-10-02 Ancient Models in the Early Modern Republican Imagination edited by Wyger Velema and Arthur Weststeijn approaches the early modern republican political imagination from a fresh perspective While most scholars agree on the importance of the classical world to early modern republican theorists its role is all too often described in rather abstract and general terms such as classical republicanism or the neo roman theory of free states The contributions to this volume propose a different approach and all focus on the specific ways in which ancient republics such as Rome Athens Sparta and the Hebrew Republic served as models for early modern republican thought The result is a novel interpretation of the impact of antiquity on early modern republicanism The War Against the Past Frank Furedi,2024-08-20 A war is being waged against the Past Whether it s toppling statues decolonising the curriculum or erasing terms from our vocabulary a cultural crusade is underway designed to render the past toxic It is condemned as enemy territory and has become the target of venomous hate What is at stake in provoking such a strong sense of societal shame towards Western history In this book Frank Furedi mounts a fierce defence of the past and calls for a fight back against the delegitimization of its ideals and accomplishments Casting the past as a story of shame has become a taken for granted outlook permeating the educational and cultural life of western society from the top down Its advocates may see it as a cultural imperative but a society that loses touch with its past will face a permanent crisis of identity Squandering the wisdom provided by our historical inheritance means betraying humanity s positive achievements Challenging this great betrayal Furedi argues is one of the most important battles of our time Medieval Literature Holly Crocker,D. Vance Smith,2023-05-31 Medieval Literature Criticism and Debates combines classic critical essays alongside new voices and approaches highlighting vibrant debates on medieval literature that will continue to shape critical conversations for the coming decades Holly A Crocker and D Vance Smith present a fascinating collection of essays from leading contemporary scholars of medieval literature and culture examining topics including gender sexuality politics belief language nationhood science and desire The volume sheds light on critical discussions of the medieval period and shows the continuing relevance and vivacity of Medieval English literature in the twenty first century Each section is thoroughly introduced and the essays develop various debates in key areas providing a springboard for readers to establish their own study arguments and opinions Further reading sections make this volume an accessible and important resource for those studying literature from the Medieval period and beyond Contributors Anthony Bale Sarah Beckwith Anke Bernau Glenn Burger Ardis Butterfield Christopher Cannon Christine Chism Lisa H Cooper Susan Crane Holly A Crocker George Edmondson Ruth Evans Sylvia Federico Laurie Finke Aranye Fradenburg Frank Grady Richard Firth Green Patricia Clare Ingham Hannah Johnson Steven Justice David Lawton Robert Mills J Allan Mitchell Nicholas Perkins Tison Pugh Elizabeth Robertson Kellie Robertson Jessica Rosenfeld Sarah Salih Corinne Saunders Martin Shichtman D Vance Smith Emily Steiner

Jennifer Summit Stephanie Trigg Marion Turner David Wallace Angela Jane Weisl Nicolette Zeeman Venice & Antiquity Patricia Fortini Brown, 1996-01-01 Inscriptions medals and travelers accounts on more learned humanist and antiquarian writings and most importantly on the art of the period Brown explores Venice's evolving sense of the past She begins with the late middle ages when Venice sought to invent a dignified civic past by means of object image and text Moving on to the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries she discusses the collecting and recording of antiquities and the incorporation of Roman forms Allegory and Enchantment Jason Crawford, 2017 Allegory and Enchantment is about the genealogies of modernity and about the lingering power of some of the cultural forms against which modernity defines itself religion magic the sacramental the medieval Jason Crawford explores the emergence of modernity by investigating the early modern poetics of allegorical narrative a literary form that many modern writers have taken to be paradigmatically medieval He investigates how allegory is intimately linked with a self-conscious modernity and with what many commentators have in the last century called the disenchantment of the world in four of the most substantial allegorical narratives produced in early modern England William Langland's Piers Plowman John Skelton's The Bowge of Courte Edmund Spenser's The Faerie Queene and John Bunyan's The Pilgrim's Progress The Social Circulation of the Past Daniel R. Woolf, 2003 Woolf details here the ways in which English men and women first became seriously aware of and interested in their own and the world's past Previous works have focused exclusively on the writings of a small minority of historians yet through using a variety of manuscript and printed sources this study examines the wider historical culture within which historical and antiquarian studies could emerge European Images of the Americas and the Classical Tradition Wolfgang Haase, Reinhold Meyer, 2011-08-02 No detailed description available for European Images of the Americas and the Classical Tradition The Church in the Early Modern Age C. Scott Dixon, 2016-03-24 The years 1450-1650 were a momentous period for the development of Christianity They witnessed the age of Reformation and Counter Reformation perhaps the most important era for the shaping of the faith since its foundation C. Scott Dixon explores how the ideas that went into the making of early modern Christianity re-oriented the Church to such an extent that they gave rise to new versions of the religion He shows how the varieties and ambivalences of late medieval theology were now replaced by dogmatic certainties where the institutions of Christian churches became more effective and modern staffed by well-trained clergy Tracing these changes from the fall of Constantinople to the end of the Thirty Years War and treating the High Renaissance and the Reformation as part of the same overall narrative the author offers an integrated approach to widely different national social and cultural histories Moving beyond Protestant and Catholic conflicts he contrasts Western Christianity with Eastern Orthodoxy and examines the Church's response to fears of Ottoman domination A Companion to Western Historical Thought Lloyd Kramer, Sarah Maza, 2008-04-15 This broad survey introduces readers to the major themes figures traditions and theories in Western historical thought tracing its evolution from biblical times to the present Surveys the evolution of historical thought in the Western World from biblical times to the present day Provides students with the background to contemporary historical debates and approaches Serves as a useful reference for researchers and teachers Includes chapters by 24 leading historians
