Ford Madox Ford, France and Provence Dominique Lemarchal,Claire Davison-Pégon,2011-05 The controversial British writer Ford Madox Ford 1873 1939 is increasingly recognized as a major presence in early twentieth century literature This series of International Ford Madox Ford Studies was founded to reflect the recent resurgence of interest in him Each volume is based upon a particular theme or issue and relates aspects of Ford's work life and contacts to broader concerns of his time Ford is best known for his fiction especially The Good Soldier long considered a modernist masterpiece and Parade's End which Anthony Burgess described as the finest novel about the First World War and Samuel Hynes has called the greatest war novel ever written by an Englishman After the war Ford moved to France beginning Parade's End on the Riviera founding the transatlantic review in Paris taking on Hemingway as a sub editor discovering another generation of Modernists such as Jean Rhys and Basil Bunting and publishing them alongside James Joyce and Gertrude Stein From the late 1920s he spent more time in his beloved Provence where he took a house with the painter Janice Biala The present volume combining contributions from eighteen British French and American experts on Ford and Modernism has two connected sections The first on Ford s engagement with France and French culture is introduced by an essay by Ford himself written in French about France and republished and also translated here for the first time and includes an essay on literary Paris of the 1920s by the leading biographer Hermione Lee The second on Ford and Provence is introduced in an essay by the novelist Julian Barnes and includes a selection of previously unpublished letters from Janice Biala about her life with Ford in Provence The volume also contains 16 pages of illustrations including previously unseen photographs of Ford and Biala and reproductions of Biala s paintings and drawings of Provence A History of Western Literature J.M. Cohen, 2017-07-12

This book begins in a narrow territory strictly Western and extends with the passage of time to include the poetry plays novels and works of speculation of the great authors of the past and present from Russia to Mexico His objective is to tell the whole story of Western writing in languages other than English from the twelfth century Chanson de Roland to Evtushenko s poetry of the 1960 s Cohen not only presents a factual account of historical growth The book reflects the author s own judgments and valuations arrived at in the course of almost forty years reading in the main European languages A work of original criticism A History of Western Literature immediately became a standard reference when first published In this new edition the author has included revisions covering the most important recent writers and their work The True Story of the Novel Margaret Anne Doody, 1996 An erudite intelligent and imaginative work of literary scholarship With vivacity grace and wit Doody traces the history of the novel from the ancient novels of Apuleium and Heliodorus through the Renaissance fictions of Boccaccio Cervantes and Rabelais to the official birth of the novel in 18th century England BOSTON GLOBE 39 illustrations A History of English Literature from Beowulf to 1926 William Vaughn Moody, Robert Morss Lovett, 1926

Which Degree? , 1990 Without God Louis Betty, 2016-06-03 Michel Houellebecq is France s most famous and controversial living novelist Since his first novel in 1994 Houellebecq s work has been called pornographic racist sexist Islamophobic and vulgar His caricature appeared on the cover of the French satirical weekly Charlie Hebdo on January 7 2015 the day that Islamist militants killed twelve people in an attack on their offices and also the day that his most recent novel Soumission the story of France in 2022 under a Muslim president appeared in bookstores Without God uses religion as a lens to examine how Houellebecq gives voice to the underside of the progressive ethos that has animated French and Western social political and religious thought since the 1960s Focusing on Houellebecq s complicated relationship with religion Louis Betty shows that the novelist who is at best agnostic is a deeply and unavoidably religious writer In exploring the religious theological and philosophical aspects of Houellebecq s work Betty situates the author within the broader context of a French and Anglo American history of ideas ideas such as utopian socialism the sociology of secularization and quantum physics Materialism Betty contends is the true destroyer of human intimacy and spirituality in Houellebecq s work the prevailing worldview it conveys is one of nihilism and hedonism in a postmodern post Christian Europe In Betty s analysis

materialist horror emerges as a philosophical and aesthetic concept that describes and amplifies contemporary moral and social decadence in Houellebecq's fiction

The English Novel, 1700-1740 Robert Letellier, 2003-02-28 The English novel written between 1700 and 1740 remains a comparatively neglected area In addition to Daniel Defoe whose Robinson Crusoe and Moll Flanders are landmarks in the history of English fiction many other authors were at work These included such women as Penelope Aubin Jane Barker Mary Davys and Eliza Haywood who made a considerable contribution to widening the range of emotional responses in fiction These authors and many others continued writing in the genres inherited from the previous century such as criminal biographies the Utopian novel the science fictional voyage and the epistolary novel This annotated bibliography includes entries for these works and for critical materials pertinent to them The volume first seeks to establish the existing studies of the era along with anthologies It then provides entries for a wide ranging selection of works which cover fictional theoretical historical political and cultural topics to provide a comprehensive background to the unfolding and understanding of prose fiction in the early 18th century This is followed by an alphabetical listing of novels their editions and any critical material available on each The next section provides a chronological record of significant and enduring works of fiction composed or translated in this period The volume concludes with extensive indexes Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1901

Columbia Dictionary of Modern European Literature Jean Albert Bédé, William Benbow Edgerton, 1980 With more than 1800 critical entries on the writers and literatures of 33 languages this work presents the entire range of modern European writing from the symbolist and modernist works rooted in the last decades of the nineteenth century through the avant garde and existentialist movement to Barthes Blanchot Breton and continental thought pertinent today
