Figuring Jasper Johns Fred Orton, 1994 The author begins this challenging monograph by probing Modernism's surfaces and subjects its public and private meanings in order to establish Johns's importance as the modern allegorical artist in the years after Abstract Expressionism Yet Figuring Jasper Johns is not an essay that presumes to offer an instant interpretation Rather Fred Orton self consciously constructs a Jasper Johns whose work is introduced and explained in three chapters each of which addresses a specific picture or sculpture like Flag Painted Bronze Savarin and Untitled 1992 These in depth studies situate individual works in their social context as well as in Johns's oeuvre Fred Orton's purpose is to get to terms with and find terms for a difficult and elusive body of work by one of the most important artists of the 20th century

Visualizing Feeling Susan Best, 2011-06-30 Is late modern art anti aesthetic What does it mean to label a piece of art affectless These traditional characterizations of 1960s and 1970s art are radically challenged in this subversive art history By introducing feeling to the analysis of this period Susan Best acknowledges the radical and exploratory nature of art in late modernism The book focuses on four highly influential female artists Eva Hesse Lygia Clark Ana Mendieta and Theresa Hak Kyung Cha and it explores how their art transformed established avant garde protocols by introducing an affective dimension This aspect of their work while often noted has never before been analyzed in detail Visualizing Feeling also addresses a methodological blind spot in art history the interpretation of feeling emotion and affect It demonstrates that the affective dimension alongside other materials and methods of art is part of the artistic means of production and innovation This is the first thorough re appraisal of aesthetic engagement with affect in post 1960s art
