Migrant Nation Paul Longley Arthur, 2017-12-15 Focusing on particular historical blind spots by telling stories of individuals and groups that did not fit the favoured identity mould the essays in Migrant Nation work within the gap between Australian image and experience and offer fresh insights into the other side of identity construction The volume casts light on the hidden face of Australian identity and remembers the experiences of a wide variety of people who have generally been excluded neglected or simply forgotten in the long running quest to tell a unified story of Australian culture and identity Drawing upon memories letters interviews and documentary fragments as well as rich archives the authors have in common a commitment to give life to neglected histories and thus to include in an expanding and open ended national narrative people who were cast as strangers in the place that was their home

Our Greatest Challenge Hannah McGlade,2012 Hannah McGlade s book bravely addresses the complex and fraught issue of Aboriginal child abuse She argues that Aboriginal child sexual assault has been formed within the entrenched societal forces of racism colonisation and patriarchy yet cast in the Australian public domain as an Aboriginal problem with controversial government responses critiqued as racist and paternalistic McGlade highlights that non Aboriginal society has yet to acknowledge the traumatic impacts of the sexual assault on Aboriginal children which was part and parcel of the European project of civilisation She provides detailed analysis of the legal systems response While child sexual assault is a criminal offence the Aboriginal experience of the law is tainted Despite reforms to the law the courtroom experience is based on re victimisation and trauma which prevents the fundamental principle of equality before the law McGlade believes that we should be guided by Indigenous human rights concepts and international Indigenous responses in addressing the problem In doing so she believes that we can help to stem the harm to future generations Child, nation, race and empire Margot Hillel,Shurlee Swain,2017-03-01 Child nation race and empire is an innovative inter disciplinary cross cultural study that contributes to understandings of both contemporary child welfare practices and the complex dynamics of empire It analyses the construction and transmission of nineteenth century British child rescue ideology Locating the origins of contemporary practice in the publications of the prominent English Child rescuers Dr Barnardo Thomas Bowman Stephenson Benjamin Waugh Edward de Montjoie Rudolf and their colonial disciples and literature written for children it shows how the vulnerable body of the child at risk came to be reconstituted as central to the survival of nation race and empire Yet as the shocking testimony before the many official enquiries into the past treatment of children in out of home care held in Britain Ireland Australia and Canada make clear there was no guarantee that the rescued child would be protected from further harm
