Rene Leys:

Rene Leys Victor Segalen, 1988-12-19 In this entrancing story of spiritual adventure a Westerner in Peking seeks the mystery at the heart of the Forbidden City He takes as a tutor in Chinese the young Belgian Ren Leys who claims to be in the know about strange goings on in the Imperial Palace love affairs family quarrels conspiracies that threaten the very existence of the empire But whether truth teller or trickster the elusive and ever charming Ren presents his increasingly dazzled disciple with a visionary glimpse of an essential palace built upon the most magnificent foundations Rene Leys. Victor Segalen, 1982-01 From Occupation to Revolution Yvonne Ying Hsieh, 1996 Professor Hsieh attempts to identify which aspects of the complex entity called China each writer chose to present while probing the personal and ideological reasons that gave rise to such a choice The authors writings are also examined against the backdrop of Chinese culture and history including contemporary Chinese literature René Leys Victor Segalen, 1922 The Modernist Traveler Kimberley J. Healey, 2003-01-01 The Modernist Traveler considers figures whose writing about travel rebelled against a literary tradition of exoticism adventure stories and novelistic travelogues Instead these writers initiated a modernist strain in travel writing and a shift in the literary establishment and the culture at large Kimberley J Healey focuses on those French writers and thinkers who traveled in order to experience a displacement of both the inner self and the physical body while writing against the prevalent tradition of travel literature The modern self modern time colonial spaces and the physical body are Healey s concerns as she reads works by Victor Segalen Paul Morand Blaise Cendrars Henri Michaux Saint John Perse Guillaume Apollinaire Paul Nizan Albert Londres Andre Malraux Val ry Larbaud and Isabelle Eberhardt This book shows how in the field of French literature these texts about travel best capture the modernist experience of being alone in a world of new technologies cultural diversity and anxiety about the self Figuring the East Marie-Paule Ha, 2000-01-01 Examines the ambiguous constructions of the Orient in the works of four major twentieth century French writers China's New Cultural Scene Marie Claire Huot, 2000 Portrays the ongoing revolution in cultural production that has transformed contemporary life in the People s Republic of China Orientalism and Reverse Orientalism in Literature and Film Sharmani Patricia Gabriel, Bernard Wilson, 2021-06-17 Acknowledging the significance of Edward Said s Orientalism for contemporary discourse the contributors to this volume deconstruct rearrange and challenge elements of his thesis looking at the new conditions and opportunities offered by globalization What can a renewed or reconceptualized Orientalism teach us about the force and limits of our racial imaginary specifically in relation to various national contexts In what ways for example considering our greater cross cultural interaction have clich s and stereotypes undergone a metamorphosis in contemporary societies and cultures Theoretically and empirically this book offers an expansive range of contexts comprising the insights analytical positions and perspectives of a transnational team of scholars of comparative literature and literary and cultural studies based in Australia Hong Kong Japan Malaysia USA Singapore Taiwan and Turkey Working with through and beyond

Orientalism they examine a variety of cultural texts including the novel short story poetry film graphic memoir social thought and life writing Making connections across centuries and continents they articulate cultural representation and discourse through multiple approaches including critical content analysis historical contextualization postcolonial theory gender theory performativity intertextuality and intersectionality Given its unique approach this book will be essential reading for scholars of literary theory film studies and Asian studies as well as for those with a general interest in postcolonial literature and film

Victor Segalen and the Aesthetics of Diversity Charles Forsdick, 2000-11-09 From his premature death in 1919 until the final decades of the twentieth century the French traveller author and naval doctor Victor Segalen remained relatively obscure his extensive work on exoticism largely unavailable With the appearance of the Complete Works in 1995 the dramatic scope and wide ranging implications of his reflections on diversity were at last fully apparent Segalen's understanding of the exotic is radically different from that of his colonial contemporaries His exoticism or Aesthetics of Diversity focuses on the instability of contact between different cultures and represents a unique response to the decline of diversity triggered by colonialism and Westernization Recent attention to Segalen in a variety of fields post modern sociology post colonialism literary criticism anthropology indicates his role as a precursory theorist of the exotic whose work is of increasing contemporary relevance At a moment when exoticism is rapidly emerging as a term of critical currency this study of the genesis of Segalen's aesthetics is a timely contribution to work in this area France/China Alex Hughes, 2018-12-13 China has long been an object of fascination for the French who celebrated their Année de la Chine in 2004 Symptomatic of that fascination are the movements into China made by groups as diverse as the Jesuits who arrived in L'Empire du Milieu in the late seventeenth century and the Tel Quel intellectuals whose will to political pilgrimage took th
