Renee Cox American Family:

Renee Cox Renée Cox, 2001 Catalog of an exhibition held Oct 10 Nov 10 2001 Cutting a Figure Richard J. Powell, 2008 Examining portraits of black people over the past two centuries Cutting a Figure argues that these images should be viewed as a distinct category of portraiture that differs significantly from depictions of people with other racial and ethnic backgrounds The difference Richard Powell contends lies in the social capital that stems directly from the black subject's power to subvert dominant racist representations by evincing such traits as self composure self adornment and self imagining Powell forcefully supports this argument with evidence drawn from a survey of nineteenth century portraits in depth case studies of the postwar fashion model Donyale Luna and the contemporary portraitist Barkley L Hendricks and insightful analyses of images created since the late 1970s Along the way he discusses major artists such as Fr d ric Bazille John Singer Sargent James Van Der Zee and David Hammons alongside such overlooked producers of black visual culture as the Tonka and Nike corporations Combining previously unpublished images with scrupulous archival research Cutting a Figure illuminates the ideological nature of the genre and the centrality of race and cultural identity in understanding modern and contemporary portraiture Not Your Mother's Mammy Tracey L Walters, 2021-04-16 Not Your Mother's Mammy examines how black artists of the African diaspora many of them former domestics reconstruct the black female subjectivities of domestics in fiction film and visual and performance art In doing so they undermine one dimensional images of black domestics as victims lacking voice and agency and prove domestic workers are more than the aprons they wear An analysis of selected media by Alice Childress Nandi Keyi Victoria Brown Kara Walker Mikalene Thomas Rene Cox Lynn Nottage and others provides examples of generations of domestics who challenged their performative roles of subservience by engaging in subversive actions contradicting the image of the deferential black maid Through verbal confrontation mobilization passive resistance and performance black domestics find their voices exercise their power and maintain their dignity in the face of humiliation Not Your Mother's Mammy brings to life stories of domestics often neglected in academic studies such as the complexity of interracial homoerotic relationships between workers and employers or the mental health challenges of domestics that lead to depression and suicide In line with international movements like MeToo and timesup the women in these stories demand to be heard The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter, 2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries Troubling Vision Nicole R. Fleetwood, 2011-01-30 Nicole R Fleetwood explores how blackness is seen as a troubling presence in the field of vision and the black body is persistently seen as a problem She examines a wide range of materials from visual and media art documentary photography theatre performance and more American Photo , 2001-05 Provoking Religion Anthony Michael Petro, Petro, 2025 In the late twentieth century artists were on the front lines of the culture wars Leaders of the Christian Right in the U S made a national spectacle out of feminist and queer art blasting it as sacrilegious or pornographic and sometimes both On the bully pulpits of television and talk radio as well as in the halls of Congress conservatives denounced artists ranging from Robert Mapplethorpe and Judy Chicago to Marlon Riggs and David Wojnarowicz Conservatives alarmed by shifting sex and gender norms collided with progressive artists who were confronting sexism homophobia and racism In Provoking Religion Anthony Petro offers a compelling new history of the culture wars that places competing moralities of gender and sexuality alongside competing visions of the sacred The modern culture wars he shows are best understood not as contests pitting religious conservatives against secular activists but as a series of ongoing historical struggles to define the relationship between the sacred and the political Through captivating case studies of subversive artists Provoking Religion illuminates the underside of the culture wars revealing how progressive artists and activists rendered from those most apparently profane aspects of human life the stuff of conservatives worst nightmares their own haunting visions of the sacred
